Feminist Periodicals

A Current Listing of Contents

Volume 31, Number 3 (Summer 2011)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Phyllis Holman Weisbard, UW System Women's Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone (608) 263-5754. Email: wiswsl@library.wisc.edu. Website: <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu>
Compiler: Heather Shimon. Graphics: Daniel Joe.

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html>. A subscription to the publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women's Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism along with email notification of each new issue of Feminist Periodicals. Subscription rates: Wisconsin subscriptions: $10.00 (individuals affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (organizations affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (individuals or non-profit women's programs), $30.00 (institutions). Out-of-state subscriptions: $35.00 (individuals & women's programs in the U.S.), $65.00 (institutions in the U.S.), $50.00 (individuals & women's programs in Canada/Mexico), $80.00 (institutions in Canada/Mexico), $55.00 (individuals & women's programs elsewhere outside the U.S.), $85.00 (institutions elsewhere outside the U.S.). Wisconsin subscriber amounts include state tax (except UW organizations amount). Feminist Periodicals was originally a print publication (ISSN 0742-7433) from v.1, n.1, 1981 through v.27, n.4, Fall 2007. Printed back issues of these issues are available for $10 each. All prices include postage. Publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian are available free of charge to UW Women's Studies Offices, UW Campus Women's Centers, and UW Libraries.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at <http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259>.

5 TRAPS TO AVOID VOLUNTEERING OVERSEAS 32

Lofty ideals and a desire to change the world compel many people to volunteer their time overseas. However, it is difficult to keep one's own privilege in check. Here's a checklist of traps that volunteers working in developing countries often fall into.

FEATURES

- 26 Rape Is Rape
BY STEPHANIE HALLETT
If a woman isn't bruised and bleeding, will her rape be counted?
- 32 Treatment Denied
BY MOLLY M. GINTY
The opinions that count most at Catholic hospitals are those of bishops, not doctors. Are they whom women want to entrust with their reproductive health care?
- 36 The Forgotten Women of West Mesa
BY LAURA PASKUS
Eleven women were murdered and dumped on an Albuquerque, N.M., borderland. Why haven't the crimes been solved? And can't we do better for the most vulnerable women in society?
- 40 what would bell hooks say?
BY JENNIFER WILLIAMS
Ms. called the iconoclastic scholar, writer and activist to find out.

ISSUE 80, SPRING 2011

“CALL OF THE NORNS”
BY HOLLY SIERRA

FEATURED ARTICLES

6 THERE ARE CROSSROADS: SKELETON WOMAN, ELEGBA, AND ME Cathleen Bailey

When we are born, we forget what we previously knew, and our life becomes a process of remembering the path we have already chosen.

11 KEEP WALKING: MY JOURNEY WITH CANCER

Lisa McSherry

As a priestess I have long counseled others to turn to the divine when the going gets tough, but now I find my prayers wanted to revert to a child's plea: “Make it better and I'll clean my room.”

16 SEEKING THE WELL OF LIFE: ILLNESS AND THE SHAMANIC CALL OF THE NORNS Katherine McDowell

I had entered a time of purging, shedding, descending, decaying, dwindling, dying, waiting, and gestating at the threshold of life and death; a time of neither birth nor peace — and one when comfort is not often apparent.

23 THE HEALING POWER OF BEAUTY Elise Fischer

I have always associated the Mother Goddess with the beautiful: the prairie landscape of my childhood home, the call of the meadowlarks, Grandma's quilt that covered my bed, my mother's gentle singing.

26 EMBODYING SHAKTI: KUNDALINI RISING & THE HEALING POWER OF LIGHT Teri Degler

For more than two decades I'd been researching and writing about Shakti — the divine feminine force — and how ancient yogic teachings about her related to personal transformation and divinely-inspired creativity. Clearly, I was being called upon to “put my money where my mouth is.”

11. "Aspasia is an international peer-reviewed yearbook that brings out the best scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary women's and gender history focused on—and produced in—Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe. This region includes such countries as Albania, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Greece, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine. In these countries the field of women's and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the "international" canon. Through its contributions, Aspasia transforms "European women's history" into more than Western European women's history, as is still often the case, and expands the comparative angle of research on women and gender to all parts of Europe."

11. "Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

11. "The primary mission of Black Women, Gender & Families (BWGF) is to analyze, develop, and further Black Women's Studies paradigms. It centers the study of Black women and gender within the critical discourses of history, the social sciences, and the humanities. Second, this journal provides an Africana/Black Studies and Women's Studies cross-field and interdisciplinary venue for Black womanist and Black feminist theories, methodologies, and analyses. Third, it more fully integrates gender as an analytic category, and strengthens Black Women's Studies as a paradigm for studying black women, gender, families, and communities—especially policy-related issues within the broader disciplines of Black Studies and Women's Studies. Fourth, this journal provides the space for interdisciplinary, comparative/transnational studies of Global Africa/the African Diaspora and other women, families, and communities of color, using Black Women's Studies frameworks."

"Early Modern Women: An Interdisciplinary Journal (EMWJ) is the only peer-reviewed academic journal devoted to the interdisciplinary and global study of women and gender during the years 1400 to 1700. Each issue of this annual journal reflects the energies of this rapidly growing field by publishing essays, art exhibition and book reviews, bibliographies, and a forum on a current topic of interest to the study of early modern women. Essays may consider women and gender from any region of the globe and may develop a number of scholarly perspectives, including but not limited to art history, cultural studies, history, history of philosophy, history of science, literature, music, politics, religion, or theater. Approaches that challenge current assumptions and cross disciplinary boundaries are especially welcome."

The journal is committed to an international perspective and to the promotion of feminist work in all areas of law. The editorial board encourages the submission of papers from people working outside the academy, as well as academics other than 'lawyers'. Although the focus of the journal is law, we encourage interdisciplinary work addressing the concerns not only of lawyers but others, women and men, interested in feminist work."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S."

It is an international forum for research on and debates about feminist research on gender and language. Gender is defined broadly, as a key element of social relationships often loosely linked to perceived differences between the sexes as well as a primary arena for articulating power in complex interaction with other dimensions of power, like class, race, and sexuality. It welcomes research employing and investigating a range of different linguistic approaches (including, but not only including, conversation analysis, critical discourse analysis, ethnography of communication, interactional sociolinguistics, linguistic anthropology, variationist sociolinguistics, stylistics and pragmatics) which focus on a range of different linguistic phenomena."

Appropriately social sciences research is reflecting this increasing concern with gender, especially in the field of work and organization where this journal is focused. Gender, Work and Organization is the first journal to bring together a wide range of interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary research in this field into a new international forum for debate and analysis. The journal is dedicated to advancing theory, research and applications concerning gender relations at work, the organization of gender, and the gendering of organizations. Contributions are invited from all disciplinary perspectives, including anthropology, history, labour economics, law, philosophy, politics, psychology and sociology."

11. Hawwa publishes articles from all disciplinary and comparative perspectives that concern women and gender issues in the Middle East and the Islamic world. These include Muslim and non-Muslim communities within the greater Middle East, and Muslim and Middle-Eastern communities elsewhere in the world. Articles dealing with men, masculinity, children and the family, or other issues of gender are also considered. The journal strives to include significant studies of theory and methodology as well as topical matter. Approximately one-third of the submissions focus on the pre-modern era, with the majority of articles focusing on the contemporary age. The journal features several full-length articles and current book reviews. The majority of Hawwa's articles are in English. However, articles submitted in French are also considered.

"International Journal of Gender, Science and Technology (GST) is an open access, peer reviewed journal that welcomes contributions from practitioners, researchers and policy makers concerned with gender issues in and of science and technology, including engineering, construction and the built environment. Research in these areas is of interest not only to academics, but also to employers and educators involved in these sectors. We welcome contributions from a variety of disciplines and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on a wide range of theoretical frameworks. Our aim is to help foster and provide a focus for constructive debate and interchange of ideas between key players and experts in this field—promoting the sharing of knowledge and new understandings. GST enables those outside of academic institutions to have access to research data and results to inform strategies, responses and progress. Academic researchers will benefit from access to case studies and reports developed by practitioners and policy makers."

11. "Persimmon Tree showcases an impressive variety of literature and art by women over 60, many still working well into their 80s and 90s. Many of the writers and artists are well-known: Marilyn French, Ruth Stone, Grace Paley, E. M. Broner, Paula Gunn Allen, Jane Lazarre, Faith Ringgold, and Nicole Hollander. Others are lesser known, while some are newly developing their craft in their later years. All of them are at the height of their creative powers, and all of them express the shared, though diverse experiences of aging women, from late middle age to late old age. Persimmon Tree is intended to fill a niche that has been neglected by contemporary publishing, whether in print or online. There is a growing body of work by male writers and artists who are entering or well into old age. But the comparable body of work by aging women in much smaller and mostly limited to a few already well-known writers and artists. Women are creating, but they are not getting the exposure they deserve."

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [its] women-centered perspective...allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

"The purpose of the journal is to encourage and promote an understanding of how visual culture constructs gender in context with representations of race, age, sexuality, social units, and social class. The significance of visual culture for art education rests not so much in the object or image, but in the learning and teaching processes or practices used to expose culturally learned meanings and power relations that surround the creation, consumption, valuing, and dissemination of images. Similarly, the significance of gender for art education involves issues of equity and social justice in the learning, teaching, and practicing of art."

11. "Women's Writing is an international journal focusing on women's writing up to the end of the long Nineteenth Century. The Editors welcome theoretical and historical perspectives, and contributions that are concerned with gender, culture, race and class. The aim of the journal is to open up a forum for dialogue, discussion and debate about the work of women writers, and hopes to reflect the diversity of scholarship that can be brought to bear on this area of study."
