Why donate to The Blues Society of Omaha?

The Blues Society of Omaha, Inc. is a 501C3 Non-Profit Organization that was formed in 1998. We are an all-volunteer organization with over 800 members. BSO's mission is to "Keep the Blues Alive". We are recognized as one of the top Blues Societies in the country – a very cool thing for our great city. Through your support we continue to contribute to Blues venues and musicians and events in the area through our sponsorship and volunteer support:

- In 2001, BSO created BluesEd, a non-profit youth artist development program which provides opportunities for young musicians to perform with other students in a band format. Blues Ed has also gained national attention for Omaha.
- Regularly produces charitable events for musicians in need
- Provides support to The Zoo Bar – Lincoln's award-winning Blues venue
- "Jammin Away The Blues" – annual fundraiser for The Nebraska Mental Health Organization
- Operation Feed the Troops – fundraiser to provide free food to deploying and returning armed forces members and their families
- Annual toy drive for the children of Pine Ridge Reservation

Other Donor Benefits:

- Free monthly subscription to "Blues Notes" – our monthly newsletter that will keep you abreast of Blues events in the area, Blues CD reviews and other articles of interest to Blues connoisseurs!
- Weekly e-blasts with late-breaking Blues news
- Invitation to special events and parties
- Special pre-sale and discounted tickets to select events
- Various discounts offered by BSO advertisers
- Pride in belonging to a group dedicated to "Keeping The Blues Alive!"

Please consider switching to the GREEN VERSION of Blues Notes. You will be saving the planet while saving BSO some expense. Contact Becky at BSOmembership@gmail.com to switch to e-mail newsletter delivery and get the scoop days before snail mail members!

Laura Rain and the Caesars

Thursday, June 4th 6 pm. $10 Cover
21st Saloon, 96th & L St., Omaha, NE

Laura Rain has been performing on the Detroit and Los Angeles music scene for well over a decade. Starting out in the trenches of the Motor City blues circuit, Laura quickly encompassed more versatility and began branching out from her blues roots,

Her former guitarist Andre Frappier, has toured with Kelly Clarkson, Kindred, The Family Soul Ne-Yo, Karen Clatck Sheard, and many more. D'aundre "D – Bass" Thomas, bassist for Dwele, Missy Elliot, Karen Clark Sheard, and more; Keith "Bubby" Webb, Drummer for Charles Walker and the Allstars, Method Man and Red, and much more.

From enbarcoentertainment.com

Detroit soul is what Laura Rain and the Ceasars bring to the stage. As a vocalist she has been compared to Chaka Khan and Aretha Franklin. If you are a Sharon Jones fan this show is one you should catch.

and thus adapted a soul drenched, high energy, sensuous format that is the essence of her show. Classically trained as a Verdi Soprano, she has an exceptional, diverse range that will take you on a musical journey.

Throughout the years, her exotic look, stellar sound, and versatile repertoire has kept her working with many top R&B, Jazz, and Blues bands all over the country. She has performed repeatedly at the MGM Grand Hotels and Casinos in Detroit and Las Vegas, The Flamingo Hilton, Motor City Casino, Greek Town Casino, Mountaineer Casino in West Virginia, Trump Taj Mahal, in Atlantic City; plus countless other performances across the country. She also has had a standing spot for the past six years at Detroit's Premiere restaurant group, Andiamo.

Today Laura is recording and performing with her band members who have shared the stage with many top R&B performers.

What's New with BluesEd?

BluesEd Off to Big Start

All six BluesEd bands showed off their stuff at 21st Saloon May 3. New band Silver Lining made its debut at the first official BluesEd event. Lead singer Natalie Dark wowed the crowd with her pipes. Her father, James Dark, was impressed with the program. "I didn't realize how much talent we had in Omaha," he said after Natalie's performance. Grace Giebler, lead singer for Highway 61 (formerly Set in Stone), is enjoying the experience as well. She was inspired by her neighbor, Trace Jones, former Dilemma guitarist, and her namesake and former lead singer of Dilemma, Grace Bydalek.

A big thank you to all who donated to BluesEd for Omaha Gives on May 20. The total donation amount was not available when this went to press. Be sure to plan for BluesEd benefit at Sokol Park, Bellevue, Father's Day, June 21, 2-8 pm.

THE BRUCE KATZ BAND

Zoo Bar, Wednesday June 3rd @ 6 pm
Only Area Show

Master of the Hammond Organ Bruce Katz will be appearing at the Zoo Bar Wednesday 6/3. Katz has appeared on over 60 albums and served as a valued sideman for Ronnie Earl, Delbert McClinton, John Hammond and the Allman Brothers. He is touring with his band in support of his new CD Homecoming. The Legendary Zoo Bar is a great place to catch this very tight band.

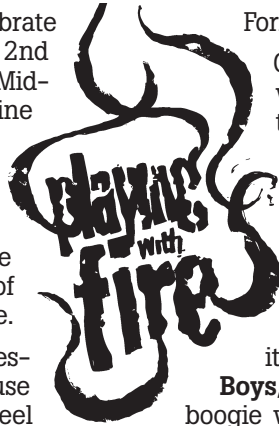

"Homecoming is a crowning achievement for Bruce Katz and his cohorts. The Bruce Katz Band's music has the air of unflagging tradition yet it blurs the lines between genres. It is of itself and beyond itself at the same time. It's like Mozart with a jazz trio playing at Junior's Juke Joint on a Thursday night. There's no name for it and it doesn't really need one. At a recent show, Bruce was heard to say, several times, that "It's all Blues." I think we can go with that."

Playing with Fire 2015 Concert Series

Playing with Fire free concert series is set to celebrate 12 years of music June 15th, June 25th and July 2nd in conjunction with 'Thursdays in the Park' at Midtown Crossing's Pavilion at Turner Park. A stellar line up of accomplished artists that includes Canada's blues elite, sacred steel greats, an internationally-renowned Sitar maestro fusion player, and a rousing boogie woogie piano band from Poland are slated for the three Thursday series. Long time Playing with Fire fans will recognize several of their favorite musicians returning to the PwF stage.

June 15th headliner, The Campbell Brothers, present a stirring sound that originates from the House of God, with two of the finest in the sacred steel tradition. The family band's rousing rhythm section and classic, gutsy gospel vocals bringing the family band ensemble to a level of energy and expression that defies description. National Public Radio describes their music as "a soul-stirring blend of gospel and the power and volume of electric blues and rock, a sound as hot as brimstone that kicks holy butt." Support artists, Markey Blue serves up a contemporary blend of original tunes, classic soul and R&B. From gritty blues ballads to sultry soul, the band delivers a perfect balance of amazing vocals and instrumentation that Forrest definitely knows how to rock the house.

Our final concert series on July 2 starts the holiday weekend and headliner Albert Cumming is sure to light up the night with his sizzling guitar work. Long time PwF fans were blown away by Albert Cummings during our 2005 concert. Cummings just finished recording his 7th CD, a yet unnamed effort to be released this summer. He may be a master home builder by day but his fiery shows of blues and soul singing and slinging bring down the house. In his hands, the guitar is definitively a power tool. Supporting artists The Boogie Boys, the rousing Polish piano band, delivers blues and boogie woogie music that transports its audiences to the crazy rhythms of the early American reality. This duo group blends exceptional musicianship with passionate live, nearly acrobatic stage performances that urge their audiences to boogie along. The band was a finalist in the 2009 International Blues Challenge, competed in the IBC in 2014 and finished in the top three at the 1st European Blues Challenge in Berlin. Formed in 2002, Boogie Boys hit the 'Blues TOP' Survey lists in 2010 and 2011 as Band of the Year, and in 2013 scored Album of the Year on the poll with their 2012 CD release "Made in Cali."

SAVE THE DATE: Sunday, September 6th - Playing with Fire Presents Music For The City
Introducing: Andria Simone and Those Guys · Reuniting: Freeway (Australia) · Returning: The OK Sisters
 - More details to follow -

features blazing guitar, powerful horns and the high energy that electrifies PwF fans.

June 25th brings a three hour nonstop show, 'An Evening with The Paul DesLauriers Band & Very Special Guests.' The Paul DesLauriers Band features members of Canada's blues elite. Collectively, this three member band have won 13 Lys Blues awards in Quebec, a total of six nominations and recipients of three Maple Blues Awards. DesLauriers is familiar to PwF fans, but revises his style for every outing, including this year's show. The constant is DesLauriers' awe-inspiring talent on guitar and vocals that engages audiences, induces uncontrollable dancing and pleases the toughest music fans. Special guest Anwar Khurshid is an internationally renowned Sitar maestro whose music was featured in the Oscar winning film, The Life of Pi. Along with The Paul DesLauriers Band, they released "Enter The Gate" in 2013 to critical acclaim. Born from a mutual love and respect for each other's music they engage in a musical dialogue that takes the listener on a sensual and exhilarating journey from Delhi to the Mississippi Delta. Special guest Angel Forrest is a three-time Maple Blues Award winner for Female Vocalist of the Year and Canadian Songwriter of the Year. Returning to Playing with Fire, Forrest, accompanied by Lys Blues winner Denis Coulombe, brings her dynamic presence, energy and enthusiasm. Together with DesLauriers, she and Denis released "Live Love" in 2014 to wide success. Whether she's singing gentle, sultry ballads or belting out blues-rock tunes,

In the Playing with Fire tradition, bands from the BluesEd youth music program will open all three shows; Voodoo Vinyl, Dilemma and Us & Them, respectively.

Gates open at 5:00pm/music starts at 5:30 p.m. We encourage you to bring your family and friends of all ages. Blankets, chairs, food/beverage coolers are permitted; stakes or open flames are not allowed. Midtown Crossing vendors will be selling food and beverage onsite.

Playing with Fire free concerts series are made possible with the generous support of the Nebraska Arts Council and the Nebraska Cultural Endowment, the Douglas County Visitor Improvement Fund, OmahaGives! donors, corporate and private sponsorships, in-kind donations, volunteers and free-will donations at each concert series.

DAMON FOWLER

Saturday June 20th @ 6 pm • $10
21st Saloon, 96th & L St. Omaha, NE

"With his hybrid of roots rock, blues, and sacred steel, Florida native Damon Fowler started wowing audiences with his musical exploits as a teenager, building a reputation as one of the hottest young players on the scene. Adding songwriting and vocal skills to his repertoire over the years has brought him many accolades, with critics extolling his originality and maturity as well as his technical guitar expertise. In last year's "Best of Tampa" poll, Creative Loafing magazine named him "Best Guitarist... And Slide Guitarist... and Lap Steel Player... And Dobro Player."

Blind Pig, noting that he's looking forward to furthering the blues tradition by "making roots music for my generation as well as for generations to come." Scott Cable, renowned for his work on Blind Pig's acclaimed comeback album by Nappy Brown, served as producer.

Fowler's guitar work has been compared to Johnny Winter and Jeff Beck, while his slide guitar has a hint of the late Duane Allman. He can play fiery guitar runs with the best of them, but it's his lyrical work on lap steel and Dobro that makes him stand out among the legions of guitar heroes.

Sugar Shack, Damon Fowler's Blind Pig Records debut, showcases a fresh and exciting rising star at the height of his powers as a performer and writer. Damon's sparkling original compositions pair perfectly with well-chosen cover tunes from Billy Joe Shaver, Merle Haggard, and the Amazing Rhythm Aces. And Damon's soulful vocal delivery and instrumental prowess continually excite and delight. He said he was honored and excited about working with Sugar Shack's producer Scott Cable remarked at the end of the sessions, "Working with Damon, I really understood why so many people are in his corner. He is talented, bright and just a very gifted artist without all of the usual ego and weirdness that sometimes accompany someone so talented. Catching someone like Damon on their way up is a refreshing experience."

Markey Blue (PWF Pre-Party)

Wednesday, June 17th @ 6 pm • $10 • 21st Saloon, 96th & I St. Omaha, NE

Markey Blue is an innovative, high-energy "New Indie Soul/Blues" band from Nashville, combining a heavy Memphis/Stax Records influence with a cutting-edge new sound. The band in its entirety reads like a "who's who" list of the music and entertainment industry.

The band opened for Stax legend Steve Cropper twice (he has stopped his show to talk about the Markey Blue Band creating what he would be recording today), which led to Cropper writing their liner notes – and later inviting them to his studio to co-produce one of their songs.

The Band was brought together by Ric Latina and Markey when both performed at the same venue with their respective bands. They joined forces and within a little over a year's time Markey Blue has picked up amazing steam.

"Markey Blue brings back the sound, style and feel of timeless tracks from Stax, Muscle Shoals, Chess Records, and a little Philly soul." — Dennis Reeves – Reeves Guitars

They don't just mimic the greats, though – they put their own modern touch on the classics and write and perform original songs that feel right at home alongside them. Showing what happens when you have both style AND substance has garnered recognition, airplay and great reviews, nationwide and internationally.

"This band will blow you right out of your shoes!" — Bill Wilson Blues

"Markey Blue's performances are a breath of fresh air with their new music that will ease right into your soul like a trusted old friend. Every song is uniquely crafted and woven with some "deep-cut" blues and R&B classics. This stellar 7-piece band fueled with horns will keep you on the dance floor." — Jeff Syracuse – BMI

*ALL NET PROCEEDS WILL BE PRESENTED TO DONATE LIFE NEBRASKA

THE LAURIE MORVAN BAND

Thursday, July 9th @ 6 pm • $10
21st Saloon, 96th & L St. Omaha, NE

After winning the Blues Foundation Award for Best Self-Produced CD at the 2010 International Blues Challenge, the Laurie Morvan Band lit up the stage in their very own half-hour TV special, which continues to air nationwide on the Big Ten Network. The band's successful coast to coast touring includes performances at festivals, city events and clubs throughout the USA and Canada, the Legendary Rhythm & Blues Cruise, and later in 2012 their first European Tour. The LMB made their first big splash on the national blues scene at the 2008 International Blues Challenge, where they were a Top 10 Finalist in the live band competition, while simultaneously their CD, Cures What Ails Ya, was a Top 5 Finalist for the Best Self-Produced CD Award. They are the only band in IBC history to reach both finals at a single competition. Other accolades include twice being named the House of Blues Radio Hour "Blues Breaker" artist of the week, a B.B. King's Bluesville "Picks to Click", and winning the Blues Festival Guides' 2008 Blues Artist on the Rise Award.

"Morvan is a stellar guitar player with consummate phrasing and respect for both the music and the spaces between the notes. She is one of the rising stars in the blues guitar world and anyone who wants to hear the future of blues guitar should pick up one of her CDs and check her out."

- Blues Blast

"Guitarist Laurie Morvan and crew make a strong case for more awards to fill their trophy case. With Morvan's muscular, yet lyrical, guitar lines leading the charge..."

- Blues Source

Laurie Morvan's unique, fiery guitar style has been highlighted in feature articles in the world's top guitar magazines. "Morvan sings the strings with fast, clean chicken pickin', reaches heights of lyrical ecstasy through liquid bends, and kicks the rhythm in the pocket with propulsive comping" (Guitar Player). "Fearless and fresh...Morvan plays with plenty of imagination" (Vintage Guitar). "Stunning California axe slinger...exhilarating electric blues guitar style" (Modern Guitars).

So much more than just a wailin' guitar slinger, Laurie is a charismatic performer whose stage presence is both powerful and inviting. Her songwriting has a fresh perspective, and her in-between-song banter alternates between inspirational and flat out hilarious. Audiences feel a genuine connection with her and she enjoys spending time with them after shows signing autographs, talking, and posing for photos. Laurie Morvan Band concerts feature the beautiful harmonies of Laurie and backup singer Lisa Grubbs, as well as dueling solos between Laurie, keyboardist Tom Salyers and bassist Pat Morvan. Drummer Lonnie Jones drives this high-octane train. They are a tight-knit unit who love performing and recording CDs together. Their fun-loving enthusiasm leaps right off the stage...and it's contagious! In short, the Laurie Morvan Band plays red hot blues rock that feeds your soul!

ZYDECO FESTIVAL TO BRING TOP ZYDECO PERFORMERS TO MIDTOWN CROSSING, FEATURING LAZY LESTER AND MAJOR HANDY

Planning is hitting full stride for this summer's regional Zydeco Festival - a full day of high-energy music, Creole and Cajun style food, activities and fireworks.

Coming on the heels of last year's Thursdays in the Park series, the day-long Zydeco Festival will take over the Pavilion at Turner Park on Saturday, June 27th beginning at noon. Admission is FREE. The festival will be capped in grand style with a fireworks extravaganza over Turner Park.

The festival lineup features some of the most treasured musical artists from throughout the New Orleans, Louisiana region:

Little Buck • Bobby Allen • Corey Ledet
Christina Balfa • DL Menard
Lazy Lester • Major Handy

"It's a special thrill for us to be treating the community to this truly unique experience and introducing a big crowd to the good time that is zydeco music," said Molly Skold, Midtown Crossing's vice president of marketing and communications.

CD Reviews

Sugar Ray and the Bluetones • Living Tear To Tear

Severn Records

This is my view of a CD by Sugar Ray and the Bluetones titled "Living Tear to Tear" released by Severn records in August, 2014. I was not aware of this disc until I took a trip to Michigan last Christmas when a very good friend of mine introduced me to it. This is an excellent blues CD by the great blues artist Sugar Ray Norcia who is a former member of Roomful of Blues. So, it's Ray on vocals & harp along with his usual cast of awesome supporting characters who are: Monster Mike Welch on guitar, Anthony Geraci on piano and Hammond Organ, Michael Mudcat Grant on bass, and Neil Gouvin on drums. Most of these players were with Ray the last two times I saw him in Omaha, which is way too long ago. They tore it up at Playing with Fire in 2010, and before that on one of those old Missouri Riverboat blues cruises. Boy, what a blast those old cruises were! Ray and the boys were nominated in a total of seven categories at the 2015 Blues Music Awards held in Memphis. Individual nominations were Best Bassist for Mudcat and Ray for Harmonica and Traditional Blues Artist. Collectively it was Best Traditional Blues Album, Band, Album, and Song (Things Could be Worse). I caught them on Bluesville radio while they were at the awards ceremony a couple weeks ago doing a live version of "Misery" from this disc. How's that for the name of a blues tune? The CD runs for 59 minutes and has 12 songs, mostly originally written by the band members, but includes two covers, one of those being Sonny Boy Williamson's "Ninety Nine". Ray's vocals and harp playing are strong and the lyrics offer clever, truthful, and interesting storylines. Listening to Mike Welch play his axe on this, you understand how he got his moniker. There is a variety of hard core blues tunes on this disc, some deep and sorrowful blues, some easy going or lowdown traditional sounds, and some with high energy. Basically, this is one of those kind of CD's that I can honestly say there is not one bad song on. It's brimming with great stuff and gets my full stamp of approval. I dedicate the song from this disc titled "Our Story" to my life-long soul mate and wife, Colleen.

Bex Marshall The House of Mercy

House of Mercy Records

Bex Marshall recently appeared at the 21st Saloon. The performance wasn't well attended, but the people at the show got to see a very good show.

On The House of Mercy, Marshall demonstrated the rare talents those lucky enough to see her at the 21st got to experience. The British guitarist plays slide and uses finger picking to showcase her unique style. She is also an outstanding singer. The songs were all composed by Marshall. The inevitable comparisons by many to Bonnie Raitt are well founded, but she is very much her own woman.

The cd opens with an uptempo gospel flavored cut. That is guaranteed to get your heart pumping. It is a great start to the cd.

Several cuts are what I would describe as country blues. They have some brilliant banjo, mandolin, fiddle, and dobro work. Track seven is entitled Tough Times. There is some impressive banjo supplied by Don Wayne Reno. The eighth cut is a really nice blue grass song called Big Man.

This is an exceptional cd by a very talented young lady. There are a lot of diverse styles that keep the effort very interesting.
