DOC & MERLE OV 11335 VHS € 25.50

• PAL/VHS, 60 minutes, color This documentary is a rich mixture of music, informal interviews, old photographs and rare footage. The wide range of musical influences the Watson's embraced is clearly shown through concert footage and less formal at-home-picking sessions. Sixteen songs are presented ranging from "Black Mountain Rag and Wabash Cannonball to Blue Suede Shoes and Freight Train Blues". Doc is reunited musically with Jack Williams, his partner from the early 1950s, for a rare rockabilly performance of "Step It Up And Go". He also performs with Clint Howard and Fred Price playing "Fire On The Mountain and Daniel Prayed" and with his wife Rosa Lee for a moving rendition of "Wandering Boy". This video is dedicated to the memory of Merle Watson who died in a tractor accident on October 23rd, 1985.

CLASSIC HITS 50S & 60S (2) MMGVD 005 VHS € 29.90

• PAL/VHS, color & b/w, 145 min, rare cinemascop clips; Volume One: The 1950's an 1960's produced an incredible number of classic hit records from the explosion of rock and roll to the emergene and excitement of the beat boom. The exposure that television could offer was often instrumental in bringing these new acts and sounds the the widest possible audience. In The United Kingdom opportunities for such exposure were limited but in the United States it was a very different situation. This video features an array of television performances made in the United States, Canada and Europe, mostly in the 1950's, that featured artists who were to become part of the history of popular music. In some cases their success was limited to the United States where the artists were to see their songs covered by local acts in other countries; in others the artists were to become international household names such as CONNIE FRANCIS, BRENDA LEE and PAUL ANKA. Running Time 50 minutes approx. Volume Two: The second volume of 'Classic Hits From The Fifties And Sixties' again features a compilation of promotional appearances from a wide range of artists all of whom achieved chart success either in North America or the rest of the world. These appearances were largely made in television studios and broadcast mostly, but not entirely, in black and white to promote a new record either locally or nationally. Some however were actual promotional films aimed at an even wider audience in arcades and bars. In addition the clips of FABIAN and the RIGHTEOUS BROTHERS were made at live appearances in Brooklyn, the promotional aim of the appearances is common to them all. Whilst the quality of the original recordings cannot be compared with the standards of today they are a further fascinating reminder of the early days of popular music and some of its greatest artists.

Running Time 55 minutes approx.

ROCK & ROLL AND THE 1950S

VOL.1&2

MMSGVD 006 VHS € 34.50

• PAL/VHS, 120 minutes; included in these programmes are a number of televised personal appearances including Bill Haley and the Comets (performing "Rock Around The Clock" and "Rip It Up"), Fats Domino (performing "Blueberry Hill", "Need Your Lovin'", "You Win Again", "Let The Four Winds Blow" and "When My Dreamboat Comes In") and The Platters (performing "Only You" and "Dance With Me Henry"). In addition are newsreel clips, movie trailers and television advertisements from the period. Along the way are glimpses of the Marx Brothers, Abbott and Costello, Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor and James Dean in addition to the riotous arrival in London of Bill Haley. Vol.2: Included on these programmes are personal appearances by Jerry Lee Lewis, Gene Vincent, the Everly Brothers, Bobby Darin and Charlie Gracie together with newsreel coverage of such notable events in rock and roll history as the controversy surrounding the ill fated UK debut tour by Jerry Lee Lewis and the media coverage of the death of Buddy Holly, the Big Bopper and Ritchie Valens in a plane crash. Of equal interest is the newsreel coverage of such notable events in rock and roll history as the controversy surrounding the ill fated UK debut tour of Jerry Lee Lewis and the media coverage of the death of Buddy Holly, the Big Bopper and Ritchie Valens in a plane crash. Of equal interest is the newsreel coverage of both mid-1950s concerts by Elvis Presley and the incredible publicity surrounding his rise to stardom. Linking these items are a number of classic American television commercials from the period.

VOL.3, ROCK & ROLL AND THE 1950S / BIG BEAT

MMSGVD 007 VHS € 34.50

• PAL/VHS, color & B/W, 104 min; Vol.3 features the final two programmes from the original American series. Produced in black and white the production features, once again, movie trailers and advertisements from the 1950s in addition to a range of classic performances. Included are Little Richard (Long Tall Sally, Whole Lotta Shakin'), Johnny Otis (Willie And The Hand Jive), Chuck Berry (Roll Over Beethoven), Everly Brothers (Long Time Gone, Wake Up Little Susie), Frankie Lyman and the Teenagers (Why Do Fools Fall In Love, The Only Way To Love, Goody Goody). Also featured are fascinating newsreel clips of Richard Nixon, Nikita Khrushchev, Dwight Eisenhower, Ronald Reagan, Grace Kelly and Jayne Mansfield. Vol.2: In this programme we see some of the earliest newsreel clips to report the phenomenon of rock and roll and also some of the earliest television appearances by the new wave of artists. The film clip, as an independent form of promotion, began to emerge by the end of the 1950s. Initially these clips were in black and white but by the early 1960s they had already progressed to full colour. Many of the artists who were promoted in this way made their own contribution not only to the development of the music but also to the way in which it was promoted. The artists included in this video range from the raw power of Jerry Lee Lewis to the sophisticated delivery of Bobby Darin. In between come a host of artists who were to enjoy international fame including Bill Haley, Johnny Otis, Paul Anka, The Exciters, The Diamonds, Fats Domino, Big Joe Turner and many others. Although the quality of these early recordings cannot be compared to the technical standards of today their importance to the evolution of rock on television cannot be underestimated.

BLACKBOARD JUNGLE (SAAT DER GEWALT) NTSC VHS M 205963 € 22.50

• English, 1955, B&W, 90 minutes, digital video transfer; few copies only ! In this gritty urban drama, war veteran Richard Dadier (Glenn Ford) wants to begin his career as a teacher and is given an assignment at a boys high school in inner-city New York. However, he soon discovers the school is overrun by delinquents, led by Artie West (Vic Morrow), an insouciant hood who likes to call Richard 'Mr. Daddy-O.' Artie and his gang steal, destroy property, refuse to respect authority and threaten the female teachers with rape. While most of the faculty have given up and meekly let the delinquents do what they want, Dadier is determined to bring order back to his classroom, even after Artie's thugs threaten Richard's pregnant wife. Keep your eyes peeled for a bit part by Jameel Farah, years before he would change his name to Jamie Farr. The blackboard Jungle was also the first major studio film to use rock 'n' roll on the soundtrack; the film's success kick started sales of 'Rock Around The Clock' by Bill Haley and His Comets, which helped to spark the rock 'n' roll boom of the 1950's.

Nürnberg wurde im Oktober 1999 100 Jahre jung. Dieser
runde Geburtstag wurde gebührend gefeiert - unter anderem

mit einer grossen Fahrzeugschau in eben jener Halle, in der die
Vorkriegs-Reichsbahn bereits 1935 das hundertjährige
Bestehen der deutschen Eisenbahn feierte. 64 Jahre später gab es dann zusätzlich noch eine eindrucksvolle Lokparade, die rund 33000 Besucher bewunderten. Eisenbahn-Romantik war mit fünf Filmtams zugegen, um dieses einmalige Ereignis sowie die zahlreichen Zusatzveranstaltungen exklusiv zu dokumentieren. Das Ergebnis: ein einmaliges Dokument der Zeitgeschichte, das in keiner Videosammlung fehlen sollte.

VACHROM VETERANEN NPF 01 VHS € 25.00

- PAL, Farbe/s-w, 58 Min.: Locker und mit sehr sparsamen Kommentar versehen ist diese unglaubliche Sammlung von Werbefilmen, Wochenschauausschnitten und Werksfilmen über deutsche Nachkriegsautos. Einmalige historische Aufnahmen, technisch einwandfrei restauriert. Informativ, kurzweilig und eindeutig die gelingendste Veröffentlichung der NPF-Sammlung bisher.

RENDEZVOUS UNTERM NIERENTISCH NPF 02 VHS € 25.00

- PAL, Farbe/s-w, 85 Min.: Erstes Werk in der Sammlung historischen Film- und Fernsehkluturguts der Firma NPF. Lobenswertes Bemühen, die Kinowerbefilme der 50er und frühen 60er Jahre in technisch machbarer Qualität auf Video zu bringen. Das Auffüllen des Bandes mit aus dem Zusammenhang gerissenen Wochenschauausschnitten ist mehr als überflüssig. Die Werbefilme sind sehr amüsant und teilweise viel kurzweiliger als heutige Werbung. Da warten wir sehnsüchtig auf Teil 2 mit den Werbefilmen aus den Kindertagen des Fernsehens. Wissen Sie noch 'Ki-Witt, Ki-Witt' - 'Nix Ki-Witt, Witt Weiden, Witt Weiden!'

FRÖHLICHE ZUKUNFT - WÜNSCHE, WUNDER, VISIONEN NPF 03 VHS € 20.50

- GERMAN/DEUTSCH, Farbe, PAL, 60 min.: Höchst amüsante Zusammenstellung von Ausschnitten aus Science-Fiction Filmen der 40er bis 60er Jahre, 'wissenschaftlichen' Erkenntnissen und Wunschräumen von Laien und 'Experten', wie denn die Zukunft aussehen müsste oder könnte. Eine sorgfältige Auswahl in technisch vorzüglicher Qualität. Allerdings hätte man sich die unqualifizierten Kommentare von Herrn Hüsch sparen sollen, er ist nun einmal kein Komiker.

ALTE REKLAME NPF 05 VHS € 20.50

- PAL, Farbe, 50 Min.: Technisch vorzüglich, sowohl Bild als auch Ton, mit etwas reichlich Kommentar und nicht immer passender Musik unterlegt, muss man sich fragen, ob Video das richtige Medium ist, alte Werberplakate und -emailschilder dem Zuschauer darzubieten. Ich hätte mir das eine oder andere lieber in einem grossformatigen Buch auf Kunstdruckpapier angesehen.

AMERICAN TV COMMERCIAL CLASSICS NPF 179 VHS € 25.00

- PAL/VHS, english, sw, ca 50 Min. Die besten 50er Jahre Spots der amerikanischen Fernsehwerbung.

PIN UP GIRLS NPF 248 VHS € 25.00

- PAL/VHS, Deutsch/German, Farbe/S&W, 55 Minuten; Die Geschichte des Pin-Up-Girl beginnt in den zwanziger Jahren am Broadway. Shows wie "Celebrating the American Girl" begeistern das Publikum. Jean Harlow, Mae West gehören zu den frühen Stars. Später bemächtigt sich die Armee der Pin-Ups, um die Jungs an der Front bei Laune zu halten. Marlene Dietrich und andere leicht bekleidete Stars trällern ihre Liedchen zur Wehrtüchtigung. Jede Woche bringt die Militärzeitung "Yank" Pin-Up-Girls zum Ausschneiden. Die erotischen Mädchen Hollywoods stehen begnadeten Zeichnern Modell: Traumfrauen für Männerträume. Der Film enthält seltenes, weitgehend unbekanntes Archivmaterial von Revuen und "Bathing Beauties" zeigt die schönsten Mädchen der Welt unter ihnen Rita Hayworth, Marilyn Monroe (ihre ersten Auftritte!), Jean Harlow, Mae West, Jane Mansfield und ihre europäischen Nachfolgerinnen Gina Lollobrigida, Brigitte Bardot, Anita Eckberg und andere ungezählte Schönheiten ...!

RADIO STAR - DIE AFN STORY NPF 269 VHS € 25.00

- PAL/VHS, Deutsch/German, Farbe/S&W, 94 Minuten; Rock'n'Roll und Jazz wurden im Nachkriegsdeutschland durch den amerikanischen Soldatensender AFN (American Forces Network) populär. AFN wurde schnell zum Liebessender von Teenagern und Twens, die mit der Musik von Bill Hailey und Elvis Presley der deutschen Provinzialität zu entfliehen suchten. "Radio Star" zeigt einen atem-beraubenden Abriss aus der Geschichte des Senders mit den schönsten Hits der 50er, 60er und 70er Jahre, klug montiert mit Statements ehemaliger DJs und Musiker. Seltenes Archivmaterial mit Auftritten von Marilyn Monroe, Judy Garland, Marlene Dietrich, Glenn Miller und Bing Crosby lassen "Radio Star" zu einem faszinierenden Rückblick auf den schönsten Import amerikanischen Lebensgefühls werden. Ein Film von Hannes Karnick und Wolfgang Richter

VOL. 2, CHROM VETERANEN NPF 391 VHS € 25.00

- PAL/VHS, Deutsch, Farbe, ca. 58min; Die deutschen Autos der 60er und 70er Jahre in Original Werbe- und Werksfilmen, kommentiert von Motor Klassik-Autor Christian Steiger. 1960 gibt es in Deutschland 3,8 Millionen Automobile. 1970 sind es bereits 13 Millionen. Vollmotorisierung ist das Motto der Zeit. Das Wirtschaftswunder ermöglicht vielen Kraftfahrern den Aufstieg vom Kabinenroller zur repräsentativen Familienkutsche. Neue Modelle mussten grösser sein als ihre Vorgänger - und natürlich auch kräftiger. Heute wärmen die Autos der 60er und 70er Jahre als "Youngtimer" die Herzen der Sammler. Am Steuer holen sie sich einen Teil ihrer Jugend zurück: Erinnerungen an eine Zeit auf der Überholspur. Ein Film von Wolfgang Dresler.

HAUPTSACHE GEMÜTLICH - DEUTSCHE WOHNZIMMER NPF 402 VHS € 25.00

- PAL/VHS, Deutsch, Farbe, 80 min; Rückblicke und Einblicke AUTOWAHN UND WIRTSCHAFTSWUNDER NPF 583 VHS € 25.00
- PAL/VHS, Deutsch, Farbe, 60 min; In den 60er Jahren steuerte die Nation auf einen Verkehrskollaps zu: Verstopfte Städte, die Zahl der Zulassungen und Verkehrstoten stieg dramatisch an. Doch das Auto blieb des Deutschen liebstes Kind. Diese Kassette präsentiert eine Fernsehdokumentation und Aufklärungsfilme aus den 60er Jahren über die Deutschen und ihr Verhältnis zum Auto.

ALS DIE WERBUNG FLIMMERN LERNT E - FIFTIES NPF 627 VHS € 25.00

- PAL/VHS, Farbe und sw, ca. 65 Minuten; Wünsche werden Wirklichkeit! Sie hiessen Zauberspiegel, Michelangelo, Optimat, Imperator: die Fernsehruhen der Fünfziger. Der Warenkorb war frisch gefüllt und 1956 ging der erste Spot über den Sender. Die gute Rama ist wieder da und Bauknecht weiß, was Frauen wünschen. Mecki, Sarotti-Mohr und Bärenmarke-Bär toben in drölligen Trickfilmen über die Mattscheibe. Ein witziger Streifzug durch die Wunderwelt des frühen Werbefernsehens mit flotten Seitenblicken auf die bunte Kino- Werbung!

ALS DIE WERBUNG FLIMMERN LERNT E - SIXTIES NPF 628 VHS € 25.00

- PAL/VHS, Farbe und sw, ca. 55 Minuten; Der Duft der großen weiten Welt weht den Deutschen um die Nase; Neckermann macht's möglich und der weiße Wirbelwind bläst die Wohnungen blitzblank. Die Fernsehbildschirme werden größer, die Geräte eckiger. Eine Seeler nascht Gummibärchen, das HB-Männchen geht in die Luft und Klementine fummelt an Waschmaschinen herum. Afri-Cola entfacht zum Ausklang der Sechziger den Flower-power-Rausch. 1967 wird das Fernsehen farbig: grellbunt stürmen moderne Synthetics und schrille Muster auf die Konsumenten ein. Eine amüsante Begegnung mit alten Bekannten und vertrauten Tönen: 'Mutti, Mutti, er hat überhaupt nicht gebohrt!' Ein Film von Ulrich Wunsch.

* Code 0, PAL, Dolby, English, Dolby 5.1, 60 minutes; After a decade apart from the rest of the Beach Boys, Brian Wilson re-united with them in 1996 at the behest of Capitol Records in the U.S. 35 years after their hit-single, the plan was to record of classic Beach Boys songs with some of country music's biggest names, thus bringing together two major forces within American popular music. With Brian Wilson as producer, the result was the album 'Stars & Stripes' that, whilst retaining the Beach Boys trademark close harmony backing vocals; also, in Mike Love's words, brought 'a whole new life and personality' to the songs. 'Nashville Sounds - The Making Of Stars & Stripes' documents the sessions for the album and gives us an intimate behind-the-scenes look as the Beach Boys record with amongst others, Willie Nelson, Tammy Wynette, and The Eagles' Timothy B. Schmit. Candid footage of the recording process, and interviews with each of the Beach Boys and their special-guests, makes this a fascinating portrait of a unique collaboration.

DVD U 0061

€ 19.90

• PAL, Color, 4:3, 2.0 Dolby, 90 Min; Tony Bennett, the man who gave the world I Left My Heart In San Francisco, has now been one of the world's top singing stars for almost half a century. His popularity and appeal spans all generations, won over by a musical style that is timeless in its appeal. Born Anthony Dominick Benedetto, the son of an Italian immigrant, in Queens, New York, in 1926, he became Tony Bennett in 1949 after comedian Bob Hope saw him singing in a club and suggested a change of name. Bennett never looked back... early hits like Boulevard of Broken Dreams, Just In Time and Strange In Paradise brought him recording success on both sides of the Atlantic. In 1962 he recorded I Left My Heart In San Francisco, the song that has become his signature tune. More than thirty million album sales later, Tony Bennett is still going strong. This unique video special features Tony in performance in Atlantic City and in an interview in and around New York in 1996. Archive footage and contributions from his many entertainment business friends bring further insights. It is a fascinating look at the eventful life and career of the man who Frank Sinatra named as his favourite singer and who is now considered 'The King Of Cool' by a new generation of admirers.

• English, Dolby Stereo, 5:1, 80 minutes; The producers of the documentary movie Johnny Cash: The Man, His World, His Music set out to focus on one of the leading lights of country music in the late 1960s. They were rewarded with a unique portrait of an artist who, by the time the documentary was screened, was arguably as famous and as popular as any singer in America. The film - first shown in Britain on cinema screens, rather than TV - was shot over slightly less than a year. The shooting covered the period between the mixing sessions for 'Land Of Israel', a track from Cash's spiritual LP 'The Holy Land', in the final weeks of 1968 to the Country Music Association awards ceremony in the early autumn of 1969.

BOB DYLANDON'T LOOK BACK (1) DVD NVG 9447 € 39.90

• Documentary 1965, 96 minutes, Feat: Joan Baez, Alan Price, Donovan and Albert Grossman; When acclaimed documentary filmmaker D.A. Pennebaker (Monterey Pop, The War Room) filmed Bob Dylan during a three week concert tour of England in the Spring of 1965, he had no idea he was about to create one of the most intimate profiles of the musician ever put on film. Wanting to make more than just a concert film, Pennebaker sought both the public and private Bob Dylan. With unobtrusive equipment and rare access to the performer, he achieved a fly-on-the-wall glimpse of one of music's most influential figures. Hailed as one of the best documentaries about a performing artist ever created, 'Don't Look Back' is more than a view of an extraordinary concert tour - Bob Dylan's last as a solo acoustic performer. It's 'a portrait of the young Dylan tearing the pop world apart!' (S.F. Examiner) Five original, uncut audio performances/Spectacular new digital transfer/Commentary from D.A. RAMBLIN' JACK ELLIOTTTHE BALLAD OF RAMBLIN' JACK*(0) DVD WHE 73134 € 39.90

• NTSC, English, Color, Documentary/Performance, 112 minutes; From his unlikely roots as the son of a Jewish doctor in Brooklyn, to his ongoing wanderings as the last of the singing cowboys, Ramblin' Jack has packed so many adventures into his life that he seems more myth than man. After running away to join the rodeo at the age of fifteen, he traveled and sang with Woody Guthrie and became friend and mentor to Bob Dylan. His music helped ignite a folk revolution in the '60s and has influenced some of the most popular musicians and performers of our day. Jack's daughter Aiyana had originally wanted to document the great Rambler in action and bring his story to light. However, when she hit the road with him, the focus of the story turned from the roving cowboy's life on the road to the daughter's search for a dad who was rarely at home. Shot over the course of two years, the film skillfully weaves stellar performances, contemporary verité, candid interviews and a wealth of archival material including never-before-seen home movies from the Guthrie family's private collection resulting in a film that takes us beyond the legend and into the psyche of the man. private, troubled figure. In documentary style, drawing on the research of blues scholars Mack McCormick and Gayle Dean Wardlaw for its foundation, the soul of an elusive spirit is pieced together. Those who come to bear witness include fellow bluesman J. Shines and Honeyboy Edwards, who learned their craft from Johnson, girlfriend W. Mae Powell and others who knew the man who folklore says sold his soul to the devil at the crossroads.

• 2001, PAL, Color, 4:3, Dolby Digital, 73 Min; This is the award winning biography of the King of the Beat Generation - Jack Kerouac's writings, including his extraordinary novel 'On The Road,' took American literature to new levels of creativity and in the process inspired unprecedented social and cultural change. Kerouac's life is examined through fascinating rare documentary footage and revealing interviews with some of Kerouac's most famous contemporaries such as Allan Ginsberg, Lawrence Ferlinghetti and William Burroughs. 'Jac, Kerouac: King of the Beats' is both an accurately detailed documentary and a moving drama. The film begins with Kerouac's Catholic boyhood; captures his development as one of the most important modern American authors, and end with his self destructive demise at the age of 49. Music by: Duke Ellington, Thelonius Monk, Charles Mingus, Zoot Sims.

London concert where this DVD was captured, puts it all little simpler: 'He's loud and he's proud.' Under the musical direction of Dave Edmunds, the great Jerry Lee is seen performing in the company of his regular band and a retinue of long-time admirers, most of whom are superstars in their own right... John Lodge (Moody Blues), Dave Davies (The Kinks), Brian May (Queen), Van Morrison, Stuart Adamson and Dave

• Farm Aid, Concert for America was performed on September 29, 2001, in Noblesville, Indiana, at the Verizon Wireless Music Center. Held just 18 days after the September 11 attacks, the sold-out concert honored family farmers as a resource for the nation-strong farmers for a strong America. Willie Nelson, Neil Young, and John Mellencamp organized the first Farm Aid concert in 1985 to raise awareness about the loss of family farms and to raise funds to keep farm families on the land. Farm Aid 2001 was the organization's 14th concert.

Randy Newman has received a "Grammy", nominations for five Golden Globe Awards, 13 "Oscar" nominations, and the 2000 Billboard Century Award. His idiosyncratic songs, about misfits, outcasts, charlatans, yuppies, rednecks and commens, have a wry, satiric edge and draw from musical traditions that stretch back to New Orleans R&B and Tin Pan Alley pop. Newman is a true American original whose music moves us all.

RAT PACKRAT PACK'S LAS VEGAS (1) DVD WS 3025 € 19.90

- Join Frank, Dino, Sammy, Joey and Peter in the Rat Packs' Las Vegas. This unique program traces the history of the Rat Pack, beginning with Frank Sinatra's solo stint as a Vegas headliner when his movie and recording careers crumbled, to his famous "Summits" with the rest of the pack at the fabled Sands 'A Place In The Sun' Hotel, to the triumphant on-location filming of the Packs' Ocean's 11 (which showcased as many stars as could make it to Vegas during the filming). The program features rare footage of the Pack in action at the Sands' Copa Room as well as rare stills of JFK and other Kennedy Era luminaries. The program also offers frank discussion of the racism that dominated Las Vegas in the 1950s - and Frank Sinatra's heroic efforts to end it for his good friend Sammy Davis, Jr. From the birth of the Sands to its razing to make way for today's fabulous Venetian Resort Hotel, the Rat Pack's Las Vegas showcases the men and the times that built the myth - and mystique - of America's No. 1 tourist destination. JOHN WILLIAMSONGUNYAH - I'LL SING YOU THE OUTBACK

DVD EMI 90236 € 24.90

• 'Gunyah - I'll Sing You The Outback' is a musical trip with JOHN WILLIAMSON through the great Australian Outback. But what actually is The Outback? Well, best leave John to explain: "It's not just red dust and the desert, it's all the isolated secret places right across our great country - from top to bottom - from blistering heat and humidity, to wind and snow. But more than, it's than that, it's how it shapes the characters that live there." Featuring 13 songs from the album. It also includes 2 songs 'Sail The Nullarbor' and 'Old Man Emu' not seen in the original TV special. Also included as a bonus is the 30 minute 'True Stories' Documentary tracing John's career, which was filmed for Country Music Television (Australia) at Alice Springs in the Northern Territory of Australia, in 1999.

WEBB PIERCE & CHET ATKINS - COUNTRY CLASSICS DVD SHAN 601 € 39.90

• Area Code 1, Dolby Stereo, Color, 60 minutes, Webb Pierce and Chet Atkins are two of the all-time great figures in country music history. These legendary artists are captured here at the very peak of their powers, in the early days of their careers when one hit song followed another. The high quality 35mm color film used to compile this video was shot from 1954 through 1956. Assembled on this video are the very best performances done by Webb and Chet during that magical period.

HIGH LONESOME - THE STORY OF BLUEGRASS MUSIC DVD SHAN 604 € 39.90

• Area Code 1, Color, 95 minutes; With uncommon passion and devotion, High Lonesome traces the evolution of bluegrass, one of America's most vital musical fusions, from its folk roots in the Kentucky hills through the innovations which shaped its most modern forms. With over 100 songs and a keen thread of the cultural and historical forces running through them, "High Lonesome" captures the heart and soul of the music and its founder Bill Monroe, along with other seminal figures. The story unfolds through the words and songs of the musicians themselves, flawlessly matched with images imbued with an intimate front porch feel. Linking the music's birth with the social upheaval of the Great Depression and following it through the maze of American modernity, "High Lonesome" is more than just the vividly rendered story of bluegrass. It's a vision of how life has changed in America and a testimony to the enduring strength of a music which has continued to find voice over decades of shifting musical taste. Featuring: Bill Monroe/The Stanley Bros/Mac Wiseman/Jimmy Martin/ Flatt & Scruggs/The Osborne Bros/Jim & Jesse/The Seldom Scene/Sam Bush/Alison Krauss/The Nashville/Bluegrass Band...and more

CAN'T YOU HEAR THE WINDHOWL ? - MOVIE (0) DVD WHE 73015 € 39.90

• The Life & Music Of Robert Johnson - hosted by Danny Glover - NTSC, Color & B&W, 76 minutes, featuring Eric Clapton, Robert Cray, Keith Richards and many others; An in-depth, award winning documentary on Robert Johnson, the man who influenced, among others, Muddy Waters, Bob Dylan, Led Zeppelin and The Rolling Stones. Containing rare photos, exclusive interviews and vivid re-creations of events in Johnson's life, Can't You Hear The Wind? presents a compelling portrait of this enigmatic figure, revealing the man behind the myth. Over sixty years of mystery surround this strange, gifted artist who lived in the rural south of 1920's and 30's. He sang his own songs with unequaled intensity and style songs about betrayed women, terror-filled nights and walking side by side with the devil. Johnson recorded only 29 songs - but they constitute the most astonishing, influential body of work any bluesman has ever committed to wax. Special features: Production Credits, Scene Access, Interactive Menus, Filmographies, Discography

LIFE COULD BE A DREAM - THEX DOO WOP SOUND DVD WS 3094 € 21.50

• (2002/WHITESTAR), NTSC, Color, 70 Minutes; Doo-Wop is a unique form of harmony singing which ultimately swept the world and transformed the face of popular music. It's a simple style of harmony singing, born of the urban streets, but in its inherent simplicity is a powerful attraction and a fascinating tale of passionate young love, heartache, triumph, and some of the sweetest lyrics and sounds ever recorded. It's a story that has never been told. This is that story. Featuring: Lewis Lyman and Jimmy Merchant (The Teenagers), Earl 'Speedo' Carroll (The Cadillacs), Arlene Smith (The Chantels), Pookie Hudson (The Spaniels), Reather Dixon and Emma Pought (The Bobbettes), Dave Somerville (The Diamonds), Things To Come, Cyndy & The Cliftonaires, Ronnie Italiano (UGHA), Bobby Jay (WCBS), Don K. DVD ART 10176 € 25.00

• NTSC, Spanish with English subtitles, 1999, Color / B&W, 105 minutes; "The Buena Vista Social Club," guitarist Ry Cooder's celebrated album featuring the recently re-discovered talents of Cuba's foremost folk musicians, sold millions of copies and earned a Grammy Award. Now, Cooder teams up with acclaimed director Wim Wenders (Paris, Texas) to reveal the astonishing life stories, vibrant personalities and unforgettable music of the brilliantly talented but long-overlooked performers who collaborated on this now-legendary recording. From the crumbling barrios of their Havana, to their triumphant, sold-out concerts in Amsterdam and New York's Carnegie Hall, it's an unforgettable, deeply emotional journey into the passion, pride and humanity of the artists who sparked a worldwide musical phenomenon! SPECIAL FEATURES: Audio commentary featuring director Wim Wenders, 16:9 Fullscreen Version, 5.1 Dolby Digital, Theatrical Trailer, Crew Information, Musician Information, Production Notes, Digitally Mastered, Interactive Menus, Scene Access, Additional Scenes • Farbe/ sw, 100 min.; der Inhalt der beiden Videos wurde neu bearbeitet und mit zusätzlichem Material ergänzt, chronologisch nach Jahrzehnten geordnet und kommentiert. Mit Such- und Sortierfunktionen; 50er Jahre in Deutschland: Die Republik wird mobil. 'Leukoplastbomber' und 'Knutschkugeln' bevölkern die Strassen, bald auch die ersten Nobelkarossen. Von der 'Isetta' bis zum luxuriösen Vorstands-Daimler zeigt 'Chromverfahren' einen amüsanten Rückblick auf diese unvergleichliche Epoche, in der die Autos noch 'Gesichter' hatten. 1960 gibt es in Westdeutschland 3,8 Millionen Automobile. 1970 sind es bereits 13 Millionen. Vollmotorisierung ist das Motto der Zeit. Das Wirtschaftswunder ermöglicht vielen Kraffahrern den Aufstieg vom Kabinenroller zur repräsentativen Familienkutsche. Neue Modelle mussten grösser sein als ihre Vorgänger- und natürlich auch kräftiger: Erinnerungen an eine Zeit auf der Überholspur.
