Capitol W-653

The original front cover slick depicts a smiling Sinatra facing to the left. Although the imagery worked well, it appeared that he was facing away from the lovers. Late in 1956, Capitol replaced the drawing of Frank with a different one that faced toward the happy couple. They moved Sinatra's name to the right as well.

This appears to have been the first LP release on Label 56; all LP's in the W- series before March were on Label 53, and LP's from April in the other series are on Label 53.
