Warriors Forever

1700 South 5th Street Lebanon, Oregon 97355

Enrollment: 1,271

The Möbius Strip

Named after August Ferdinand Möbius, a nineteenth century German mathematician and astronomer, who was a pioneer in the field of topology. The Möbius Strip stands as a symbol for infinity because its path is neverending. In a time of construction and the politics regarding our mascot, this symbol represents the everlasting spirit of the Lebanon Warriors and all those who have passed through these halls.

What are the disadvantages and advantages of working with your spouse or student?

"I could have immediate contact with my son or daughter. Many people assumed that I would play favorites, but it's the opposite."
~Mrs. Horner, Office Manager.

"My wife and I kept work and home separate. We really did not see each other during the day, but it would be an easy dinner conversation."
~Mr. Steele, Welding Teacher.

"It's a joy to work with my husband, he is the most positive, optimistic, unselfish, caring person I know. I really admire him and love him."
~Mrs. Stolsig, Attendance Secretary.

"It's nice to be able to talk to someone who understands and has empathy about what I go through each day."
~Mr. Bauer, Teacher.

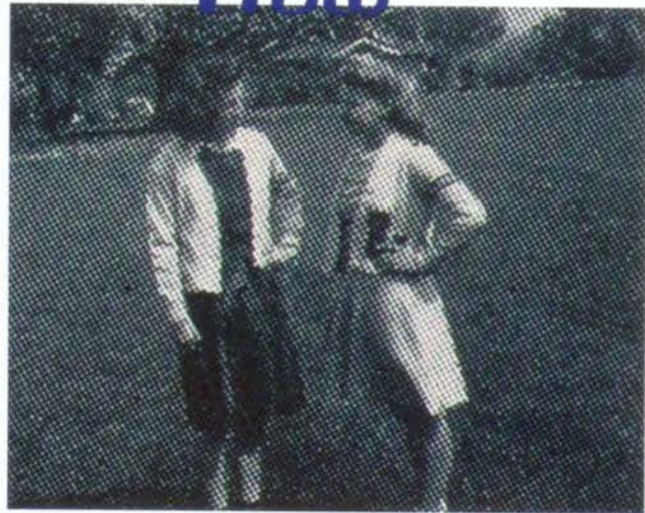

"I think that it runs smoother here than it does at home. I love being around Casey and his friends and helping when I can."
~Mrs. Humphrey, Career Center.

Fashion don'ts of 2002, this would be a good example of what you would not wear in 2002. Back in the forties women were only allowed to wear below the knee dresses to school, which were made with wool.

Fashion trends of now and then have dramatically changed over the years. They have evolved into many different styles, some of which are modeled by seniors Justin Rowan, Kyle Warren, Allison Keith, and Aaron Ritzel.

nd Then

The world comes of age as we move closer to a new era, Diane Argo and Peter Mangen, class of 1976, gladly model the fashion trend. Women were allowed to wear pants, skirts, and if they were lucky, shorts.

Laci Wardlaw, had many family members attend LHS including her aunt, Natalie Frazer. They both enjoyed playing softball.

Ashley Hummel's grandfather graduated in 1951 from LHS.

Ashley Voncannon's mother graduated with the class of 1973. Her mother was involved in FBLA and FHMA.

Freshman Dani Lesh's mother was involved in sewing, cooking, and other home life classes.

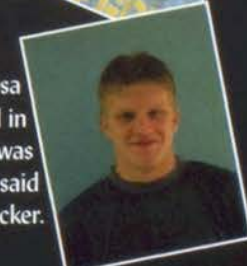

Senior Zach Mix's mother graduated in 1986. "My mom was a laid back kind of person like me."

"Both my parents graduated in 1984. My dad was involved in Japes, my mom was involved in key club," said senior Rettai Reppy.

"My cousin Teresa Upmeyer graduated in 1985 and was involved in FFA," said junior Henry Tucker.

What do you do in your free time?

"You don't want to know."
~Andy Herzburg, 12.

"I write poetry, short stories, and parodies."
~Kayla Nissan, 11.

"Take weird and stupid surveys."
~Amy Phillips, 9.

"I don't have any free time,
so I don't have to worry about that."
~Nancy Bauer, teacher.

"Pillage the countryside."
~Nathan Hodgdon, 12.

Culturally In Our

Music, dance, and new faces as the dance team came off the floor after performing with the cheerleaders, the band members watched from their area over the new freshmen faces.

Diverse Own Way

Cheers go out across the stands as the junior and senior upper-classmen showed their school spirit at the first pep assembly. Many students attended the mandatory gathering, while another small percentage didn't.

Practice makes perfect as Jason Bond becomes a victim of the Lebanon High administrators. It seemed that summer administration camp taught them well as he didn't even notice his cell phone had been confiscated.

Juniors Michael Erwin and Danielle Nagel walk down the hall hand in hand. Believe it or not, that's an angry smile.

Sophmores Mindy Hatmaker and Amanda Funk share a quick hug.

Senior Aaron Ritzel, took advantage of his time off during lunch to take a relaxing stroll around the school.

Senior Bryan Lane showed the style of a wrestler on the day of a meet.

Senior Jeff Ellis shouts at the camera on his way to a relaxing session of head banging to "real" music.

Junior Sean Kenyon and Sophmore Jenny Nordstrom walk down the hall showing their maturity.

What is your favorite cartoon? Why is it your favorite cartoon? How often do you get to watch it?

"The Road Runner. Cause it's funny and it's something my dad and I watch together."
~Latisha Cordero, 9.

"Sponge Bob, because it's cool. I watch it all the time."
~Felicia Sloan, 10.

"I really like Looney Toons, because it is wholesome TV with fair morals."
~Nia Franzwa, 11.

"Rocket Power, because there's a skater/surfer chick. [I watch it] in the morning while I get ready."
~Shanon Johnson, 12.

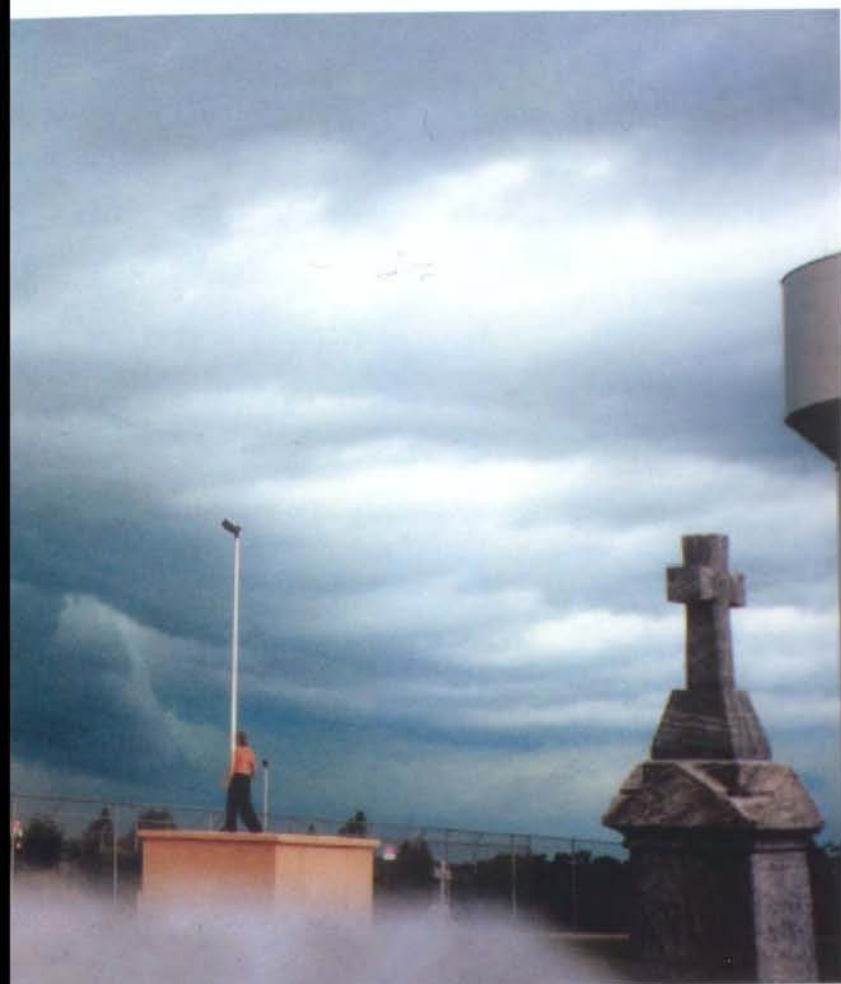

"The Simpsons, because they make literary allusion so that gives me an excuse to show them in class."
~Scott Crowell, teacher.

Fun in

A little slice of paradise when, over the summer, senior Ashley Adams went on a missions trip to Mexico. "We went and bought food in bulk with our own money and gave it to the people at the migrant camp, [it was] one of the best experiences ever."

Summer Plans gone wrong in South Dakota, on top of a building in the center of a cemetery in the middle of a tornado, "It was really cold, and the rain was hitting me in the stomach," ~Justin Atteberry, 10.

"I went [to Las Vegas and went] on the New York, New York roller coaster. It was the first time I almost got sick on a roller coaster." ~Derek Klein, 11.

"I went down to San Diego. I almost went down to Mexico [too]." ~Micah Cabrera, 12.

"Becoming assistant manager of Club Drinks. I almost got a record deal but I moved here." ~Noel Goodwin, 11.

"I got stuck in a tornado [in South Dakota]." ~Tom Gurner, 12.

"I went and saw Phantom of the Opera. That was one play that I've always wanted to see." ~John Evans, 9.

"Went skateboarding, took pictures of it, tried to get fat [with friends]." ~James Sloan, 10.

"I shot bottle rockets out of a moving vehicle, went to the lake mostly, jumped off a few bridges." ~Bud Hoover, 12.

the sun

Fun at Camp Attitude over the summer, junior Danae Falk (second from left, back row) went and helped out at Ron Heagy's camp for kids with disabilities, Camp Attitude. "It's amazing to see the positive change in the kids even after just a week. Camp is not only good for them but also for you. You realize how lucky you are."

What crazy things have you done?

"One time at band camp..."
~Rachael Palinkas, 10.

"I once tried a backflip on my snowboard off a cliff about ten feet high."
~Sean Kilborn, 9.

"I ran from the cops on a dirt bike all the way through Sodaville up to Middle Ridge."
~Colten Bateson, 10.

"I told my parents I was going to work, drove to Seattle, got two flat tires, bought Indian fireworks, and went to Hooters."
~Nick Brewster, 11.

"I went bungee jumping when I was 11 years old. It was the funnest thing I have ever done."
~Vicki Dobrkovsky, 9.

After the Sun

Saturday Night Fever, senior Jennifer Thomas likes to do many things on the weekend, including cruising around Albany sometimes. "I only go when I have nothing better to do. When my friends and I do go though we always manage to have lot's of fun."

Skater boy, "I've been skateboarding for a while, can't really say why. I just do! I keep forgetting to leave my phone at home because I always end up getting calls in the middle of tricks."

~Andy Herzburg

~Bonnie VanCurler, 11.

Goes Down

Lonely, so lonely..... "I play my guitar on the weekends. It's like my girlfriend because I don't have any friends," sophomore Trevor 'Clam Chowder' O'Brien explained as he showed us how to play power chords. Better watch out Trevor, wouldn't want your guitar to get pregnant.

“If you were to choose any song as your ‘theme’ song, what would it be and why?”

“My theme song would be ‘Bohemian Rhapsody’ by Queen, because the lyrics are so diverse.”
~Megan Pierce, 10.

“It would have to be ‘Nelly #1’, because I am #1.”
~Juan Sanchez, 9.

“In ‘Santa Ria’, Sublime says they would spend a million if they had it. So would I.”
~Dan Gilbert, 11.

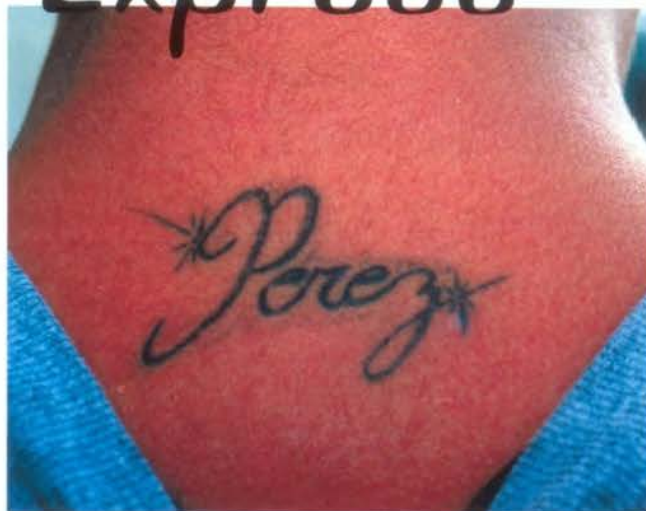

“The theme to my life would have to be ‘The Thrill Is Gone’ by BB King. The lyrics say it all.”
~Peter Dryden, 10.

“It would be ‘The One That I Want’ by Olivia Newton John and John Travolta because Grease is like the coolest movie ever.”
~Ashley Fritz, 10.

Express

The name says it all, junior Martin Perez has gotten two tattoos so far. His brother has created them for him. Perez describes tattoos as, “Cool. They’re the best thing in the world!”

Black and looking thinner than ever, Brian Perry revealed the reason he always wears black is to hide his figure. "It just makes me look thinner this way."

Yourselves!

That's a Gecko not Geico, freshman Courtenay Kinkaid's parents paid for her tattoo last January, because she "...wanted a tattoo for a long time and my parents told me they'd pay for it on my birthday." She plans on getting more in the future.

"I wear my hat to stand out and be defiant of everything people don't approve of."
~James Samuel, 11.

"My piercings didn't hurt, because I'm a macho man and I can take the pain."
~Adam Sears, 12.

"I decided I had to have the industrial piercing too."
~Makayla Lane, 11.

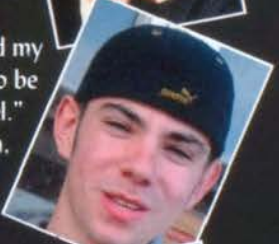

"We dress this way because it's so much cheaper."
~Britney Benedict, 11 and Adam Ulm, 10.

"I dress to express me, not everyone else."
~Aaron Jefferson, 12.

"I pierced my eyebrow to be a rebel."
~Sam Newton, 11.

"Tattoos are addictive; they don't hurt as bad as you think they would."
~Stephanie Broyles, 12.

If we weren't the Warriors, what would you want our mascot to be and why?

"Probably something cuddly. I think we're a cuddly school, maybe a panda bear."
~Jeremy Lundberg, 12.

"A giraffe because they are tall and have square spots."
~Ashley Coakley, 11.

"We should be the killer bees because they would be better than what we are now."
~David Sperle, 11.

"Zebras because they are odd and so am I."
~ Mary Buchheit, 9.

"We should be the purple people eaters, because with a mascot like that, who wouldn't be intimidated?"
~Joshua Landis, 11.

The Things

Beyond belief. Andy Darling received a state award for being a person with disabilities who is working. Darling is faced with Autism and has proceeded to defy the odds by accomplishing things that many thought weren't possible.

Challenges, junior Kevin Alley is faced with not being able to hear, yet he has managed to succeed in many ways. Alley is a member of the football team as well as the baseball team. Junior Callie Brown was faced with an obstacle beyond what most have ever had to face. When asked what the biggest challenge of her life was, she said "Beating cancer."

We've Done...

Things we never thought would happen, junior Makayla Lane has dealt with a challenge that many have never thought about. She has overcome Multiple Sclerosis and continued to live with it while living her life to the fullest of her capabilities.

Junior Amber Gorham faced her biggest challenge "When my dad got sick and had to have brain surgery."

Senior Dennis Conklin overcomes challenges every day. He is in a wheelchair, yet he has many friends and is well liked by everyone.

Junior Sanju Ufford said, "learning to walk" has been the largest challenge that he has faced in his life.

Junior Alexis Lutons' biggest challenge was, "Getting diabetes.. support from my boyfriend and family has helped a lot."

Krista Schwieger has faced many obstacles in her life, but nothing has stopped her from being a truly amazing and outgoing person.

Junior Teresa Rush stated, "Getting through my parents divorce and trying to make something of myself."

Halie French said the biggest challenge of her life has been her parents divorce.

"Being able to see my dad often has been challenging too."

What has been your most embarrassing moment in high school?

"During Freshmen Orientation, I tripped over one of the speedbumps in the parking lot."
~Karisten Kilborn, 9.

"My whole Freshmen year, because I hung out with the two biggest geeks and I was the third biggest geek."
~Zach Smith, 10.

"During lunch one day, I went to get up and my boyfriend grabbed the pocket of my jeans and they ripped open."
~Sheila Williams, 11.

"I was eating a salad with ranch on it, and I looked up and there was a table full of girls laughing at me because I had ranch all over my face."
~Josh Scott, 12.

"As a sophomore, a friend tripped me and I fell flat on my face in front of a group of senior guys."
~Tina Rimov, teacher.

The People

You are my sunshine, sophomores Audrey Williams and Brady Whaley met last year at a basketball game. "Brady drives me crazy at times, but he's always there for me when I need him. Somehow he can always make me smile," said Williams.

We Know

Row, Row, Row Your Boat, juniors Ben Walnum and Greg Otta have been friends since kindergarten. "One of our favorite movies is Pulp Fiction, but if we had to pick two movie characters to be, Greg would be Chest Rockwell and I would be Dirk Diggler because they rock," said Walnum.

Rummy, the driving range, fire truck chases, seniors Laura Mackie and Laci Wardlaw met in seventh grade and have been best friends since freshmen year. "Last winter, Laci's dad took us snowboarding. It was my first time, but Laci had no problem taking me to the top and laughing at me as I tried to go down," said Mackie.

Freshmen Nick Pomeroy and Kyle Poston have been friends for two years. "In class one day, I was talking to someone about a game that hardly anyone knows how to play, and Kyle overheard me and said he knew how to play. We've been friends since then," said Pomeroy.

Sophomore Evangelina Santana, junior Veronica Davidson, and senior Nancy Brown are involved in Generation Life and Choir together. "I met Evangelina and Nancy in Choir. We started hanging out more and now we're best buds," said Davidson.

Freshmen Collin Durling and Chad Anderson met while playing on the football team in sixth grade. "We didn't really know each other, but we had fun playing football together. Now we're best friends," said Durling.

If you could be any animal on the planet extinct, futuristic, or a fantasy creature what would it be?

"I would be a dragon because they live for thousands of years and they are very intelligent."
~Ronnie Johnson, 11.

"I would be a mix between a tiger and an elephant because I could do what I wanted."
~Talon Cherry, 10.

The ones

A weasly friend, senior Jacob Kutsch and Siirro, his friendly ferret hang out. Siirro enjoys attacking people while they're sleeping. He also eats cat food and loves to play with cats.

An exotic squirrel, Ashlee Turner, a senior, holds her sugar glider, "Teebu." Turner's other sugar glider, "Glidee" hangs on the cage wall. These flying squirrels eat fruit, eggs and their shell, bugs and other items, however, Turner doesn't feed her pets bugs, "cause bugs are gross".

we love

An amazing animal to cuddle, Crystal Mustoe, a senior, cuddles with her chinchilla, Chai, a squirrel-like rodent. Mustoe says Chai pounces on her cat when not in his cage. Chinchillas have extremely soft fur and bathe themselves in dust, due to the fact that water damages their fur coat.

Sally want a cracker? Joseph Jorgensen, owns a Yellow fronted Amazon. Jorgensen says his parrot, Sebastian is very friendly and talkative.

"I wanted to name Bailey 'Oreo' at first because of her coloring, but it's too hard to say "Here, Oreo, Oreo, Oreo!" So Mom changed it." ~Sheena Bishop, 12.

Taco Bell? Makayla Lane, a junior, chills with her Chihuahua, Sally. Lane has a few other dogs also.

One of two... Jim Goodrich, a sophomore, owns two iguanas, this being the nicer of the two.

Da-ta-da-na junior Nick Brewster's Collared lizard rests on his knee in awe at the camera.

Moo Moo This is Natalie Marshall and her two year old Jersey Dairy cow, Fuzzy. Fuzzy is one in a herd of sixty-five.

Isabella... teacher Mark Whitson's ten year old kitty waits patiently for a warm lap to sit on. In the mean time she snuggles on an old lumber jacket.

What's your hidden talent?

"I can talk like the possessed girl in the movie 'The Exorcist'. My friends say I sound just like her."
~Nicole Taylor, 12.

"We are championship grocery cart racers. We live life a quarter mile at a time."
~Bret Pyle and Ben Tacy, 11.

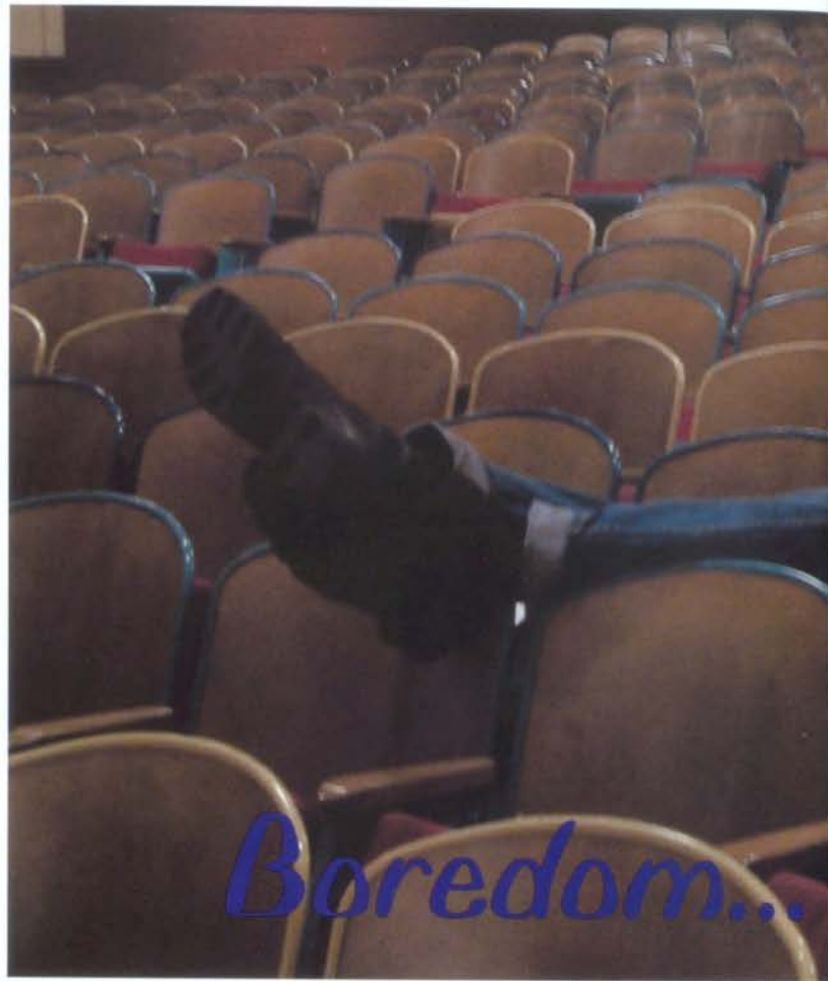

"I can breakdance like no other brother."
~James Barlett, 10.

"I can hop through the hole I make by holding my foot with my hand."
~Cody Guthrie, 9.

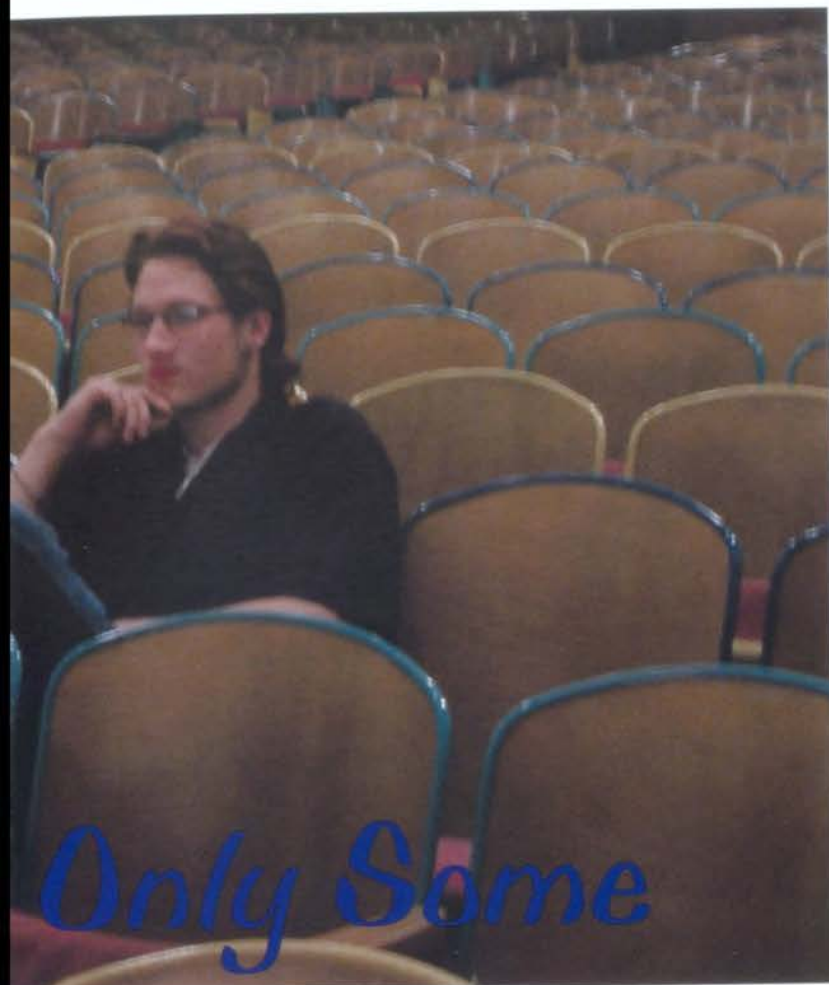

"I can make myself pass out. Whenever I do, it seems like I have long funky dreams."
~Andrew Kienow, 12.

Bach, Brandson, Beethoven, junior Brandon Stevenson has been playing the piano for ten years. "I mainly like to play classic rock. The Beatles are my favorite composers." said Stevenson.

Only Some

From It.

That's a wrap folks, in senior Andy Lockwood's spare time he likes to study movies. "I'm going to become a director," said Lockwood. He's been interested in movies ever since he saw Nightmare on Elm Street when he was two.

Bret Haines, 10, likes flying radio controlled planes. "My dad got me into them a long time ago. Planes are so freakin cool!"

Steve Young Jr., 12, is a member of a roller hockey league in Corvallis. "I usually just get bruises, but I've seen people get broken bones."

Tristin Morche, 11, has worked on cars with his grandfather since he was four. "I've been working on a 1929 Ford most of my life. It's my favorite car."

Cipirano Rodriguez, 9, has skateboarded for four years. "It keeps me from getting into trouble."

Jason Howard, 10, has knitted for three years. "My great grandma Edith got me into it. She said it would give me big muscles!"

Rachelle McDermott, 12, collects porcelain dolls. "They fascinate me because they are amazing and dressed like the old days. They had cool dresses then."

Betty Rood, 11, has been sewing with canvas and yarn since seventh grade. "My teacher got me into it. I usually just make boxes or shapes out of canvas."

How do you describe the style of music you listen to?

"I like all kinds, I don't really like rap... if you'd consider that music. I play lots of music as well. I started playing piano in grade school, guitar in high school, and around 1980, I picked up the banjo."

~Steve Speth, teacher.

"I like to listen to bag pipes, Celtic music and video game soundtracks. Chrono Trigger is my favorite. Besides that all I have to say is... The bad make the good look better."

~Jayson Stewart, 12.

"Light-Punk Rock type stuff. It's great, it moves my soul."

~Mark Graham, 11.

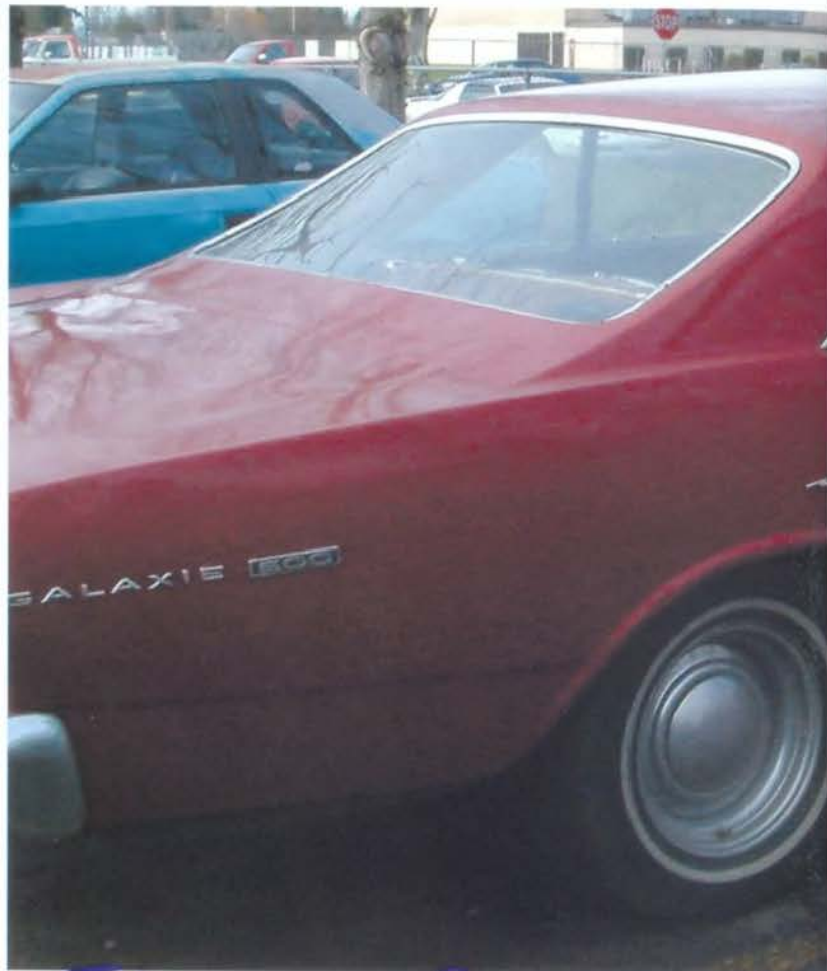

"Techno! I like melodies that are kind of like trance... rhythmic, calms my nerves and such. TechnoSphere RULES!"

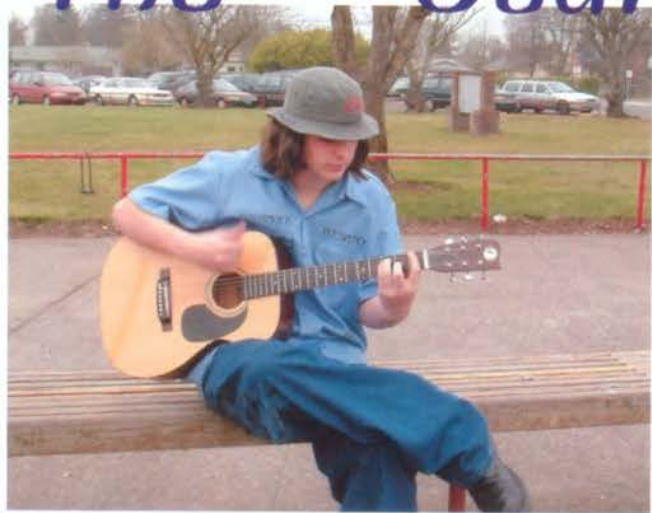

~James Goodrich, 10.

"Super... Hip-hop, Rap, Rock, R&B, and Punk. I like Ja Rule."

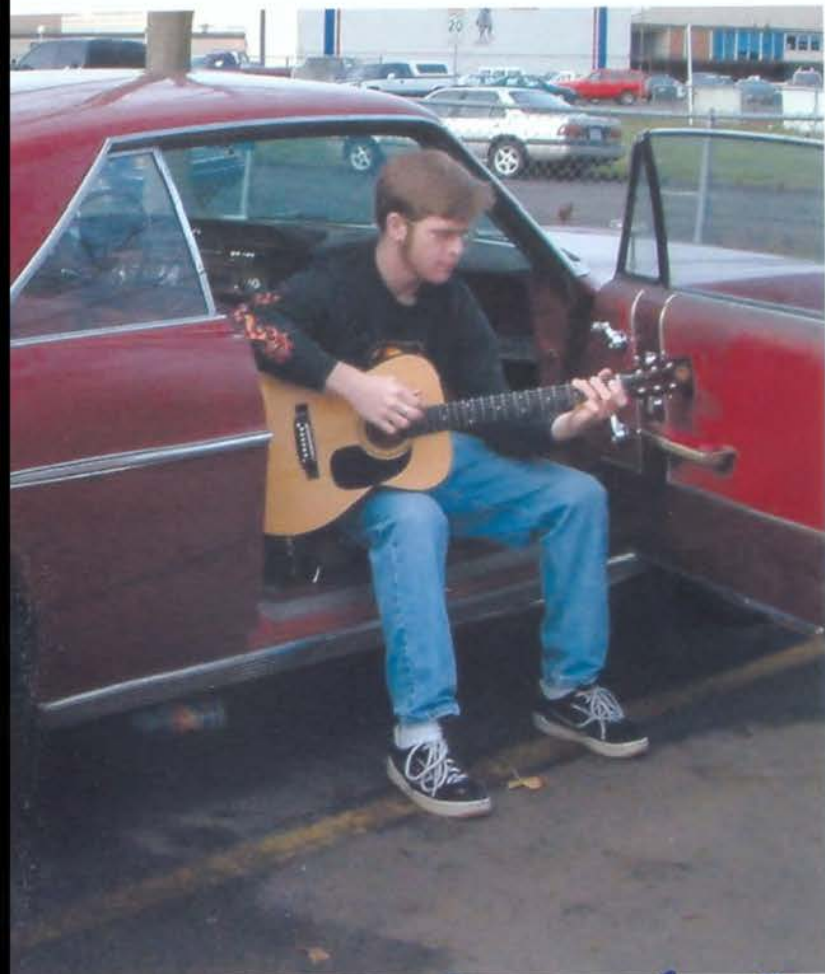

~Makenzie Mayer, 9.

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A WARRIOR

Many students showed their spirit by writing on friends vehicles after games.

"A warrior is someone who strives for the best and takes pride in what they do, even if it is running around in a home-made warrior suit."
~(Mascott) Kory Brown

"A Warrior is courageous, bold, and shows pride for what they believe in. The Warrior is not afraid to take the next step to change lives."
~Wendy Rapley

"A warrior is someone who shows pride, and someone who gets up in front of people and makes a fool of themselves."

Clubs & Academics

*Junior Amanda Van Loovan brushes a weld during
Mr. Steele's welding class.*

What clubs were you involved in during high school?

Whether it was Drama club, DJ club, Decca, Vica, or even Band, people who were once in a club have memories that will last a lifetime.

What academic interests did you have?

Our school offered many different types of classes this year as it did years ago.

Classes such as Woodshop, Electronics, Automotives, Musical Theatre, Law, Video Productions, and Photography were just a few of the popular classes offered.

3... 2... 1.... BLAST OFF! The Rocketry club sends some home made rockets into the air on a Saturday Rocketry social.

Senior Sophie Mason enjoys being involved in the Poetry club because the adviser, Mr. Wells, gets involved with the students and their poetry.

Senior Jeremy Lundberg plays D&D with some friends whenever he can. "It's not really a violent game, it's more of a social thing."

Senior Bryan Lane started the Rocketry Club this year and has been running it since.

Senior Alex Rauch has been involved with the Lebanon Racquet Ball club since he was tiny. (18 years in all.) He likes to play with his long body raquet.

Chicka-chicka whaaa..... The DJ club keeps em' bustin', blasting the tunes at the school dances and local concerts. The DJ club was started last year.

What's that?.... A Book Club for teachers? That's right the staff here at LHS has a book club. They meet every month usually, to get their mind somewhere... other than school. "We only have one rule," said Carol Dinges, "you can't talk about shop."

Senior Megan Phillips is in Leadership because she likes being involved with the school and putting on events.

Wandering the halls, seniors Brandon Fountain and Joel Delgado (pictured) enjoy recycling for their 8th period class. They do it three or so times a week gaining a great sense of pride and making our school cleaner. "Recycle, reduce, reuse."

To Infinity and beyond!

Front row: Lacey Hellums, and Tiffany Campbell. Second row: Callie Bennett, George Reuter, and Sara Aikin. Not Pictured: Amber Gorham.

Strike a pose, "I think ASB has made a positive step this year integrating with the rest of the school," said senior Tiffany Campbell, Secretary.

"I've had an awesome time being a part of ASB this year! We've had fun and accomplished alot."

~Sara Aikin, 11
Public Relations

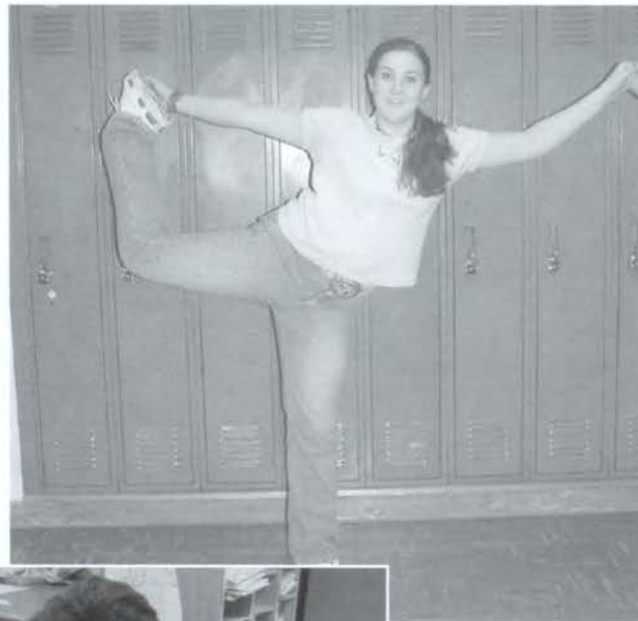

"ASB this year was great, we all clicked and had the same ideas for the year and everything turned out as we planned."

~Lacey Hellums, 12
Activities Coordinator

"I'm on ASB so that I can not only be involved but help my classmates get involved. Helping as a doorway into something they can change about their school."

~Callie Bennett, 12
President

Picture perfect, "ASB has been fun, and I get to sign LOTS of checks," said junior Amber Gorham, Treasurer.

Hard at work, "It is a good program that allows us to be involved in the community and our school and besides that, it's a whole lot of fun!" said junior George Reuter, Vice President.

Senate

Always organizing, "My favorite thing this year was planning graduation and working with other senators." said senior Megan Phillips. She organized many events in a creative manner.

First row: Katherine Breshears, Celina deJesus, Nichole Kaprielian, and Kelly Soltau.
 Second row: Melissa Brazeale, Micah Cabrera, George Reuter, and Ruth Bennett.
 Back row: Sophie Mason, Tiffany Campbell, Callie Bennett, and Amber Gorham.

Say cheese, "We got to learn parliamentary procedure. Senate is super-dee-duper fun!" said senior Sophie Mason.

Good times, "Everyone knows everyone, we all get along and get a lot of stuff done," said junior Celina deJesus, secretary.

"The best thing about being on Senate is instead of blowing hot air I was able to make things happen like putting together homecoming dance."
 ~Micah Cabrera, 12

"I like the way everything is mixed up. The new teacher is great!"
 ~Amy Stuart, 11

"Senate is great fun!!"
 ~Callie Brown, 11

Active leaders

Workin' hard, junior Heather Hankins designs another poster. "Leadership is a lot of fun. It's a good way to get involved in our school and the community," said Hankins, "Also, Mrs. Bauer rocks!"

From the top: Sophie Mason, Heather Hankins, Andy Benneth, Callie Bennett, Mark Graham, Nicole Kaprielian, Brea Woodhouse, Brooke Scofield, Amy Stewart, Micah Cabrera, George Reuter, Sara Aikin, Megan Phillips, Celina deJesus, Katherine Breshears, Brittany Thomas, Callie Brown, and Lacey Hellums.

What do you like about leadership?

"It feels good when an event goes well and you were part of it."
~Brooke Scofield, 10

"I like being able to effect the school that I go to."
~George Reuter, 11

"Oh boy, there's a lot. It's fun!"
~Celina deJesus, 11

A friendly chat, seniors Sophie Mason and Megan Phillips spent their class time wisely, talking about important leadership activities and community projects.

There is no "I" in team, juniors Callie Brown and Mark Graham worked on their collection buckets for Christmas baskets that Leadership created. "It's all about teamwork," they said in unison. "Callie would be lost without me," Graham added. "The class would be lost without us," Brown corrected.

Great volunteers

What do you like about being in Key Club?

The Gift of Life, seniors Shannon Johnson and Melissa Buchheit talks to senior Aaron Riutzel, who donated blood to the Red Cross. This blood drive was yet another Key Club project.

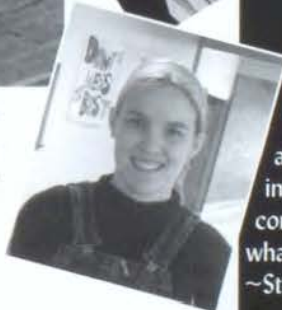

"Doing projects that help out people in the community."
~Daniel Vore, 10

"When you help someone out, and they come back to thank you."
~Amy Durling, 11

Let's do lunch, Key Club members discuss community projects during lunch. Lunch meetings were just another part of the commitment involved in service.

"Key club gives you a chance to get involved with the community. That's what I like about it."
~Stephanie Madesh, 12

Generation Life

Fifth row: Lonny Bumgardner (youth pastor), Jeff Meek, J.T Ford, Alex Williams, Kevin Collins, Collin Salisbury, and Charles Johnson.

Let's eat lunch, freshmen Barbara McGehee and Rachel Schoenthal enjoy their lunch at a Generation Life meeting.

"Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen."

Ephesians 4:26
~ Tina Milam, 11

"The Lord is good, a refuge in times of trouble, he cares for those who trust in him."

Naham 1:7
~ Heather Hankins, 11

"Blessed is the man who makes the Lord his trust."

Psalm 40:5
~ Paul Santana, 12

Generation Life met every Friday at lunch to study the Bible and just get to know each other better. People in the club also take part in many community activities as well.

Be prepared, seniors Nancy Brown and Shanon Johnson talk before the meeting starts. They are both actively involved in the club as officers.

Finding a seat, junior Jonathon Jantzi greets freshman Lindsey Aikin before the meeting starts.

S.T.A.R.S.

It takes team work, on a trip to OSU, the STARS leaders participated in many team building activities to get them introduced to each other so they could perform their best when they got into the classroom.

On bole?... bole on! junior Amelia Durling, a returning STARS leader prepares to come down after climbing to the top of the rock wall.

Share the message, senior Carlina Calderon likes being involved in her community and letting the students know that when they get into high school not everyone is having sex.

"STARS is a great program, it allows students who share a common goal to unite and expand abstinence."

~Trevor Spangle, 11

Get involved, junior Drew George likes being involved in the community and STARS is a way to do that.

Capture the moments

All for one, and one for all, the "Warrior" yearbook staff worked long hours to get the annual done and out to the students. Back: Cooper Huffman. Middle: Rachele Tracy, Michael Whitmore, Jerid Lown, Lacie Rogers, Megan Siewell, Danae Falk, and Candace Wallace. Front: Hilary Karr, Lucille Oeder, Christina Thomas, Courtney Sloan, Jennifer Thomas, Tanya Murphy, and Rachel Oeder. Not pictured: Carey Blackburn, Kyle Jones, Daniel Sherman and Kyle Warren.

Hard at work, publications adviser Mark Whitson spent many long evenings working with the Annual and the Newspaper, often not getting home until one in the morning. Whitson implemented several new concepts into the publications program since his arrival in 2001.

In search of the right one, juniors Candace Wallace and Danae Falk work together going through surveys completed by the student body. They pulled out good quotes and information that other annual staff members needed for their pages. It was a long and tedious job, but they got it done.

A day at the plant, Herff Jones representatives Bill & Cindy Dube took Mark Whitson and other yearbook advisers from ten schools to the Herff Jones plant in Logan, Utah.

Spread the news

Deadline time again, senior Nathan Hodgdon works on a page for the newspaper, making the final corrections so that he can meet his deadline.

Group discussion, seniors Sheena Bishop, Justin Rowan and Aaron Jefferson, junior Colleen Schallig, and sophomore Joshua Geil sit around a table in the publications room critiquing the previous issue. The intent was to make the next issue even better.

Crunch time, senior Jayson Stewart and sophomore Amber Porter work hard on one of their deadlines. This was one of many stressful moments of producing 14 issues of the newspaper.

"We will be done by 5 o'clock, I bet."
~Matt Stewart, 12

"Did we get it done?"
~Colleen Schallig, 11

"People who like money as much as I do should never sell ads."

Fun in the barn

Tractor and crop teams, the judging teams get together for a quick smile after a competition at the Linn County fairgrounds.

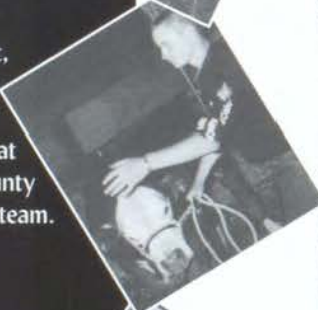

Not too baaaadddd, junior Andrea Bruce scrubs on her sheep with soap to get him ready for a long day of showing at the Linn County Fair.

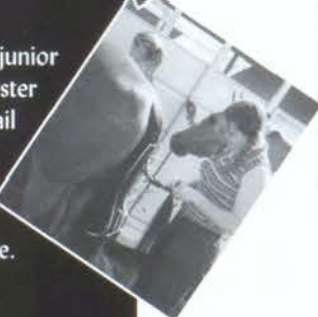

Hard at work, juniors Kyle Atchley and Ryan Allen work together at a soil judging contest in Central Linn.

If you got it, flaunt it, junior Mike Pitzer shows his cow at the Linn County Fair for the FFA team.

The final touch, junior Angela McAlister braids her horse's tail to get her ready for the FFA part of the Strawberry parade.

- President: Teresa Rush
- Vice President: Brandon Herb
- Secretary: Amber Barnett
- Treasurer: Sarah Wilson
- Reporter: Andrea Bruce
- Sentinel: Anne Aldrich
- Officers at Large: Ryan Allen, Angela McAlister and Felicia Sloan
- Adviser: Charlie Clingenpeel

Take a quick seat, juniors Andrea Bruce, Amber Barnett, Ryan Allen, Felicia Sloan, Anne Aldrich, and teacher Charlie Clingenpeel stop in Sisters to sit on the big wooden chair on their way back from the officers retreat.

On the road again, junior Brandon Herb poses for a quick picture before competing in the tractor driving contest in Albany.

FCCLA

The power of laughter, juniors Amanda Westfall and Christina Thomas work on their Power of One packets together. "When we go to state we have a big banquet and receive awards for finishing the five parts of Power of One."

President: Jennifer Thomas
 Vice President: Rachelle McDermott
 Secretary: Dana Garlinghouse
 Coordinator: Lacie Rogers
 Historians: Courtney Sloan & Christina Thomas

Workin' it! sophomore Audrey Williams, and juniors Christina Thomas and Heather Benton enjoy socializing while working on an activity during a family fun night, put on by the club for preschool children and their families. Family fun night was one of the many community service activities FCCLA does throughout the year.

Let's make a difference, sisters and fellow FCCLA members senior Courtney Sloan and freshman Claire Jarvis look at the volunteers wanted section of the Lebanon Express. "One of the fun things we do in FCCLA is volunteer."

"FCCLA has helped me improve my leadership skills and has given me many memories I will never, ever forget!"
 ~Jennifer Thomas, 12

"The thing I will remember most was when we went to state and these boys were calling us all night long!"
 ~Rachelle McDermott, 12

"FCCLA has been a really great experience for me! The part I enjoyed most was doing all of the community service projects!"
 ~Lacie Rogers, 12
 Two year member

VICA

What is most exciting
about VICA
for you?

"The thing I most look forward to this year is Nationals in Kansas City!"
~Rachel Evans, 12

"The funnest thing about VICA is getting to work with the people in the club."
~Alice Marshall, 9

"If I could tell people one reason why they should join VICA, it would be because you get to work with the all-boys school."
~Wendy Rapley, 12

Jolly good time!, senior Jennifer Thomas listens to fellow VICA members intently. "I just love everybody in VICA. They always keep me entertained and laughing."

Leaders in action, senior Jennifer Thomas, freshman Alice Marshall, senior Carlina Calderon, adviser Neva Clausen and senior Rachel Evans work on a community service project during lunch.

Laughter is the best medicine, VICA President Carlina Calderon, adviser Neva Clausen and senior Wendy Rapley enjoy a good laugh during a Friday afternoon lunch meeting.

Future of design

A design to be proud of, junior Leah Mock shows off the model she worked on for four months with her partner Bethany Suderman.

JAPES: Rettai Reppy, Nick Suing, Heath Smith, Richard Reynolds, Andrew Schneider, Jacob Gabell, adviser John Oman, Kevin Dugan, Brandon McClain, Justin Rowan, and David Johnson.

A perfect cut, junior Bethany Suderman finishes the final wall of her model, which was an exact replica of Suderman's and Mock's first project.

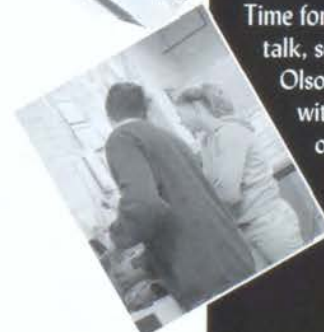

Do not be afraid to ask for help, senior Brandon McClain discusses options with teacher John Oman about his drawings that he had been working on for the past few months.

Time for transfer, senior David Johnson converts his drawings from paper to computer.

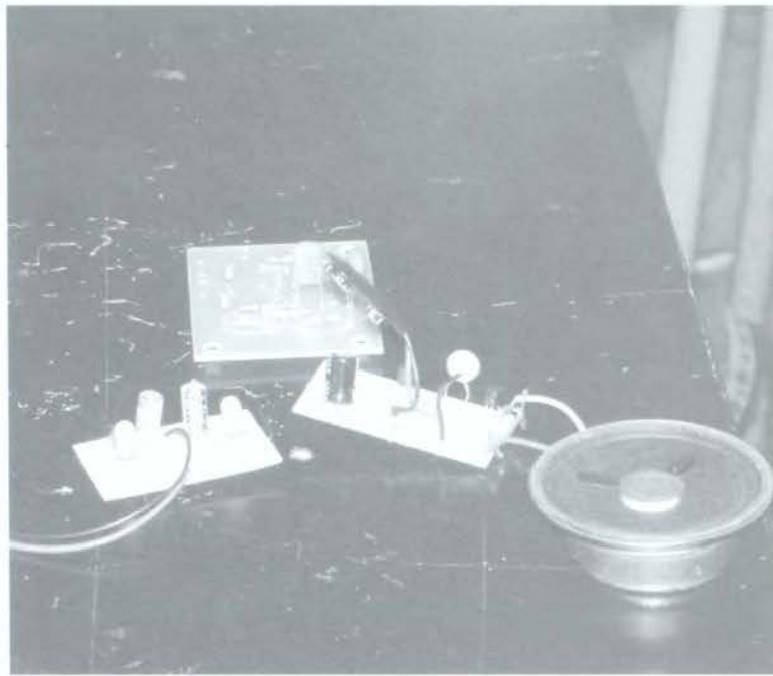

Designers at work, seniors Justin Jorgensen and Adam White work together on a project.

Time for a serious talk, senior Megan Olson confers with Mr. Oman on some missing work.

Circuits and sparks

A product to be proud of, freshman Levi Carter finishes a model of an alarm that he made in electronics. "A model of a light simulator flashes colors if it works right," said Carter.

Just kick back and relax, freshman Levi Carter poses after finishing his alarm. Carter took this class because he wants to be an electrician when he graduates. This summer Carter plans to go into business with his uncle.

Do not disturb, freshman Chris Davidson concentrates on sorting wires to the computer chip so he can get his alarm working.

Be sure to read all the instructions, senior Adam Flowers follows the instructions on how to build his alarm to ensure that he assembles it correctly.

"Electronics has changed my life because my hate towards it has grown a lot by being shocked."
~Nathan Hodgdon, 12

"I think the teacher is cool and outgoing."
~Shon Ebbs, 10

Man of the year, senior president Alex Rauch joined last year when he brought some music that he wanted to play at the 2001 Homecoming dance.

D.J. Club: Top left: President Alex Rauch, adviser Andy Dye and Vice President Aaron Riutzel. Bottom: Dan May, Vice President Kyle Jones, and Chris Kelley. Not Pictured: JT Ford and Steven Macy.

Ugly litter, sophomore Kyle Jones and freshman Steven Macy kept the music going in the student center for an afterschool punk rock concert and dance.

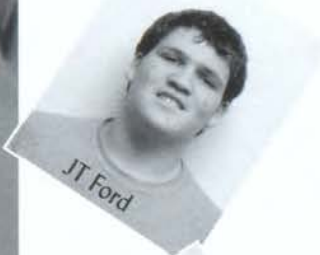

Keep it up, freshman Dan May and sophomore Kyle Jones made sure the right music was played at Winter Formal. This was May's first dance and he hopes to be president when he is a senior.

Learn to market

What is the best part of DECA?

"Going to the state conference and meeting new and exciting people."

~Stephanie Madesh, 12

"Competitions, meeting new people, and learning new things about marketing and business."

~Allison Grenz, 10

"Waking up at six every morning and working in the store with Charlie."

~Tom Gurner, 12

Back Row: George Geizler, Tom Gurner, Ashley McDowell, Lindsay Cullo, Bethany Suderman, Trase Privratsky. Middle row: Allison Grenz, Kristina Muscutt, Melissa Johnstone. Front row: Stephanie Madesh

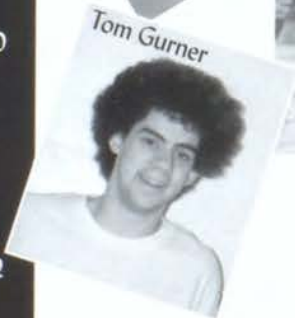

Serving customers, senior Charles Hobson is a part-time member of DECA. Hobson helped out the club in the Warrior Trading Post taking orders from students and doing the early morning supply runs.

Allison Grenz

Mr. Geizler

Tom Gurner

Manning the register, senior Dana Garlinghouse is another volunteer in the Warrior Trading Post for the club. The Trading Post sold soup, salads, sandwiches, chips, bagels, sodas and juices. Oh, and cookies...

Thank you, please come again, senior Stephanie Madesh waits to help costumers during lunch. Many students visited the Warrior Trading Post throughout the year to get a specialty sandwich of their choice.

Peace makers

Meet together, sophomore Karen Snook listens attentively as the Vice President expresses goals for their club's activities for the year.

 Middle row: Laci Rose, Jared Wolfer, Natalie Paden, Kellie Renfro, Heather Benton, Karen Snook. Bottom Row: Micah Leming, Logan Cherry, John Aldrich and Eric McFetridge. Not pictured: Amber Barnett, Ashley Caster and Ashley Graves.

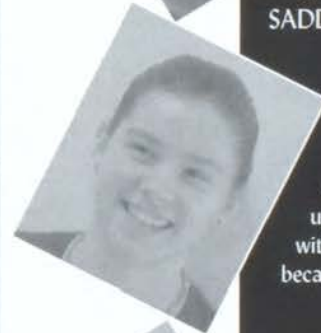

Let's get started, Ms. Renfro, a new teacher to LHS, speaks to the SAVADD group to discuss current events at a club meeting. SAVADD's major event of the year was bringing Marc Savard, a performing hypnotist to conduct an assembly teaching students about the dangers of drinking and driving.

Secretary at your service, sophomore Whitney Mitchell takes notes during a SAVADD meeting. Sophomores Natalie Paden and Micah Leming also helped organize events.

Mr. Crowell has been the adviser for the SADD group for about three years and had decided this year to help combine the SAVE group with SADD.

Senior Rachel Oeder has been part of SADD for a year and a half until they mixed with SAVE and became SAVADD.

Junior Amanda Vanloovan was the President of SAVE for the past year and a half and is now Co-president with Rachel Oeder in SAVADD.

A stage of life

"I breathe drama. I don't know how to explain it other than wild hand gestures."

~Alison Keith, 12

"The best type of friend is the friend who can act like a friend."

~Jim Goodrich, 10

"The seniors whose act we have to follow are cool. I got to know a lot of people. I love bananas."

~Melissa Stanley, 11

More than just an open house with these drama kids, Drama club President senior Kyle Warren and board member Chelynn Bowser sit with junior Kayla Nissen to greet students with a dramatic hello! Mrs. Edwards often worked into the evening to promote, organize and teach her students.

Party on stage, sophomores Aaron Oglivie and Logan Cherry shove their faces full with chocolate cake at the Uncool/Juvie cast party. It is tradition for Mrs. Edwards to purchase a cake for celebration and for someone to have cake on their face.

Two lovely ladies pose for Hollywood, sophomore Chelynn Bowser and freshmen Holly Hodson practice their looks before a show on closing night. Actors like Bowser are comfortable flaunting their talents in a spotlight or a camera flash at all times.

It's more than just an act, juniors Lanai Opel, Dani Ogel, Melissa Stanley, and senior Tiffany Campbell warm up with a dance before performing while at the regional acting competition in Coos Bay.

Act together

Whatever, major, loser..., in drama clubs fall production of Uncool junior Kayla Nissen played the "uncool" new girl at school, junior Melissa Stanley acted as the popular snob, senior Kyle Warren played the passive hippy teen and sophomore Kaylee Nelson played the accepting friend of Nissen and Stanley.

Front row: Sophie Mason, George Reuter, Kyle Warren. 2nd row: Janet VanEpps, Makenzie Mayer, J'Aime Beck, Kayla Nissen, Shannon Anderson, Natalie Allen, Tiffany Campbell, Cassie Thorp, Natalie Paden, Dani Ogle. 3rd row: Lanai Opel, Jim Goodrich, Tina Milam, David Sullivan, Danielle Hall, Kristen Deibebe, Marie Antons, J.D. Luton.

Lots of love for Edwards, sophomores Cassie Thorp and Chelynne Bowser grovel on the ground with senior Tiffany Campbell. Junior boys Aaron Oglvie and Logan Cherry stand in the back ground. Senior Alison Keith, Junior Melissa Stanley and sophomore Kaylee Nelson blow kisses to Debbie Edwards. Edwards has been advisor of the drama club for years.

"My name is George and I represent puppies, I mean the Drama club."
~George Reuter, 11

"Uh, uh, uh drama people are lots'o'fun"
~Naylee Kelson, 10

Locked away with out a thing to do, in Juvie sophomore Natalie Paden portrays a delinquent, Pinkie, who is in jail for drug use. Behind Paden is sophomore Chelynne Bowser who played Jean, the character charged with accidental manslaughter.

"Drama club is a strong, supportive, high-spirited place to be."
~Matt Bazurto, 9

Hard work pays off, junior Sara Aikin receives her diploma. "I'm delighted to be in Honor Society. I've worked hard and it's nice to be recognized for it."

"It's a great opportunity to help in the community, and get scholarships for your hard work."

~Leah Mock, 11

"It got me to volunteer in the community."

~Ben Walum, 11

Anticipate the moment, junior Honor Society members listen during the induction. To be a member of Honor Society, students must maintain a GPA of 3.5 or higher. They are also required to do at least two hours of community service.

Seniors

Back row: Ian Caster, Jennifer Beach, Daniel Sherman, Bodie Dowding, Ross Wopat, Nicole Suderman. Third row: Travis Robinson, Anna Darling, Amanda Wallace, Rachael Hayes. # Christian athletes

A crowd for the speaker, students come to the Little Theater to hear Harold Reynolds speak. All students were able to come and listen to Reynolds and ask him questions. Reynolds played professional baseball for many years and recently has been the host on ESPN's "Baseball Tonight".

Lead our fellow Christians, senior Paul Santana and junior Sara Aikin lead the FCA meeting of the week. "I always enjoy Austin Yoder's awesome impressions from the Princess Bride movie." said Santana.

Start of the session, sophomore Jenilyn Lacer, freshman Lindsey Aikin, and junior Danae Falk join in during the opening prayer. Aikin recalled her best memory of FCA: "When we were playing hangman and Josh Landis sat on his Winterfest crown after spelling a word wrong."

"To me, FCA is like another family that I can share my ups and downs with. I know they will support me and reassure me with God's love and words."
~Sandra Springer, 11

"It's fun and spiritual. Just come and check it out."
~Casey Humphrey, 10

"A game can never be won, just played."
~Jenilyn Lacer, 10

Listen to the lesson, junior Sandra Springer and sophomore Tiffany Dorland pay attention during FCA. Meetings opened in prayer, then there was a game played followed by a lesson. Having the meetings in a classroom setting helped them be more interactive with more discussions.

Poetry club

Talk, talk, talk, sophomore Megan Pierce lays on the floor and discusses with other poetry club members the situations with the teachers going on strike and leaving school.

The book of thoughts, Poetry club has a book of thoughts, some poems, a few things they've done together, a couple pictures of them, and anything they wanted to write. This is their new book since the last one started to fall apart on them. It's private, only read by members of the club. Basically the book is like a diary shared by more than one person but never seen by unwanted eyes.

"I write poetry because I can get out all of the negative thoughts on paper instead of keeping them bottled up inside."
~Sophie Mason, 12

"Whatever takes me at that moment is what I write."
~Maria Antons, 12

"Poetry club is a very open and comfortable place which is good when you are sharing a piece of poetry because it is like sharing a piece of your soul."
~Rachel Hayes, 12

Lunch awaits, senior Rachel Hayes eats a muffin as she listens to Mr. Wells and others discuss things like politics. Most members of poetry club eat lunch and talk about poetry and other issues around a blanket placed on the floor.

Kickin' back, senior Rachel Kropf lays on the floor in teacher Kerry Wells' room, 101. She had prepared to read another one of her poems to the rest of the club.

Lights, camera, action

Let us review, senior Nicole Taylor goes back and reviews her last take. During both 7th and 8th period you can see many video productions people roaming the halls looking for something interesting to film.

It's him..again, senior Andy Herzberg films Myra Guitron and Amanda Unrau as they talk. Herzberg had this to say, "[I like] hangin' out with Mr. Wells.

"It's a mellow mood, with peoples attitudes, catching clues, singing the blues, with nothing to loose. We like this class, we have a blast, it goes by so fast, so we share some laughs, we all have gas that we don't mind to pass, through the looking glass we see the past, making videos at last, who should we cast? Feeling better when we get our potatoes mashed. We've all learned to clash...baby."

~Karissa Hauck, Aaron Jefferson, and Ian Caster, 12

Horse play, sophomores Katie Simmons and Erica Johnson role play a fight while sophomore Tristin Schumacher films the crime in progress. "I really enjoy [video productions]. It's an awesome class and tons of fun," said Johnson.

Help me, save me, Mr. Wells helps out seniors Josh Andrew, Jake Probert, and sophomore Kristel Skaflestad when they began to have computer difficulties. "There's so much I could say about the art, that is producing film... Wells for president in 2004!" said Andrew.

"Video productions is so much fun! You make cool videos, you can do what ever you want! Wells is an awesome teacher!"

~Katie Simmons, 10

"There are no limits in this class, everything you do you can do well, and especially when you finish a dominant video. It makes you feel [great]."

~Jake Probert, 12

Play me a song

"I'll be Home for Christmas," teacher Robert Caster leads the concert band at the Winter Holiday Concert held in the auditorium. The concert band played a selection of Holiday songs.

March on, the LHS band entertains the crowd during halftime on Homecoming night. The band learned new songs this year that kept the crowd upbeat.

"I'm in the jazz band because it's the best of the best!"

~Alexander Legg, 11

Adam Mah

"I already play alto sax and flute. Then Mr. Caster found an oboe at the school, and I thought it would be fun to learn how to play that, too."

~Tori Harvey, 9

Jayson Stewart

Raisin' spirits, Mr. Caster plays a song on the bass with the band at a home basketball game. Caster took over as the LHS band teacher this year and really worked to improve the program.

Amanda Allen

Jazzin' things up, the jazz ensemble practices in the early hours of the morning. "Practicing that early in the morning shows people's dedication to the band," said freshman Lindsay Aikin.

Do Re Mi

Silent night, holy night, teacher Ron Patch leads the select choir as they carol in the main office during Christmas time. This was Patch's first year teaching at Lebanon.

Strong voices, members of the select choir sing a song at the Fall Choral Concert. Left to right: Tina Milam, Paul Santana, Alex Rauch, Ryan Gordon, Charles Johnson, Ian Caster, and Veronica Davidson

BEADGCF, the musical theater ensemble presents a wonderful performance to the audience after many hours of hard work and practice. Choir and band concerts entertained to large audiences.

Sing like larks, the concert choir performs before a full audience. "I'm in concert choir because I have always liked to sing, and there are a lot of interesting people in choir that make it fun," said sophomore Douglas Slauchenhaupt.

"I want to be a famous singer, and select choir is getting me one step closer to my life dream. It takes time to practice but I love every moment I'm up there!"

~Tiffany Dorland, 10

"When I sing, my mind can go somewhere else, away from my problems."

~Cammi Bloom, 9

"Select choir is a lot more challenging this year. But, it's awesome! We have a great choir full of fantastic singers."

~Veronica Davidson, 11

Student Work

Ashley Swindoll, 12

It's hard to believe that Swindoll began painting her sophomore year. This year she worked with a lot of oils, but plans to start working more with watercolors. "I like to sculpt, it's enjoyable because its three dimensional" said Swindoll. She plans on going to an art school, but hasn't decided with one she would like to attend.

Dan Wilson, 10

"I started drawing and painting with my cousin when I was younger," said Wilson. "We would draw little characters every time we were bored. We would look through comics and try to make our own." Music is one of Wilson's biggest inspirations. "Boredom from class also drives me to doodle." He doesn't think he'll attend an art school, but hasn't completely ruled it out.

Courtney Sloan, 12

Shiny Mood

Seems as if this ride is a dead-end
Why should I keep up to such a demanding pace?
These invisible faces, I feel them around me,
dangling that which will attract me with time,
Yelling obscenities at these demons,
only jostles me back into my prison cell
My tears have been crying themselves now a' days
These thoughts alive enough to unglue
Every time I turn around these lies are always there to make me frown, telling me more.
But I'm so empty there's not even enough hate to go around anymore
All's left is my cold drink of worries and a handed down recipe for addiction to self suffering.
So unprotected, where's my sanity these days?
God, where are the clues to finding you;
Am I missing you inside?
Just needing back some old ways
Sickness in a dark, cold corner.
Just me.
Alone
Getting rid of these burdens.
All my friends, sure lost sight of them somehow.
Thought I was left with only one; an appealing one with shiny catches, sharply dressed.
Always was the one cutting smiles to my body, not so happy with him anymore.
Couldn't admit to you - just that I hated myself.
After all, who really wants to admit they're living off pain when all they try to do each day is laugh and smile?

Lacie Rogers, 12

"I started drawing and painting in 9th grade, over the past few years I've taken many of the art classes Lebanon has to offer," said Rogers.

Brian Hayes, 11

"I've welded many different things over the years, one of my favorites is this hole punch I made earlier this year," said Hayes.

Express ourselves

"Eyes are the windows of the soul, made from one-way glass. Drawing is just a picture of what's on the other side."

~Rachel Kropf, 12

"Art is how we express ourselves, it comes in many forms and inspires in many more."

~Aaron Jefferson, 12

"Art is just something I create when I'm bored."

~Stephanie Broyles, 12

Artistic talent, senior Ashley Swindoll draws a life-like drawing of a young woman. Ashley has been drawing for many years and has won contests. She has begun to sell her paintings.

Hard at work, sophomore Jennifer Eckert and junior Cary Rapley are busy drawing pictures for their Drawing II class.

Blank pieces of paper: an artist's nightmare, junior Melissa Chaney and sophomore Erin Van Atta size up their papers, getting ready to start drawing.

Let's make a masterpiece, senior Zach Mix listens to music while drawing a picture in Mr. Steve Quigley's graphics class.

Creativity in paint form

Who says ink blots have to be black? senior AJ Schneider blots multiple colors of paint on his paper experimenting with mixing colors to create new ones. Learning the color wheel was a basic part of becoming a fine artist.

Way to mix those colors, senior Adam Flowers dives into painting, tackling his first assignment of mixing colors and experimenting with shades.

Not all artists are loud, junior Justine Small quietly works on a painting in class.

I prefer finger painting myself, sophomore Jesse Peters illustrates his skill by sketching out a rough image of what he is about to paint.

"Painting is hard to do when you're not good at it, like me."
~Ben Tacy, 11

"Painting is like drawing, but with more color and fun."
~Jessica Collins, 11

"Expressing myself through the visual arts, is what I live for."
~Jesse Peters, 11

Through the camera's eye

Watchin' the time, junior Aric Williamson watches the clock as he gets ready to dump the fixer from his canister so he can remove his film and look at it.

Deep in thought, junior Krystal Praskey thinks long and hard about what she will do for her final project. In the meantime, she finished mounting a portrait of junior Amy Julifs she drew for a portrait project.

Cutting it down, freshman Ashley Justice cuts her picture down to size so that she can mount it on poster paper. This time she got it in the bag.

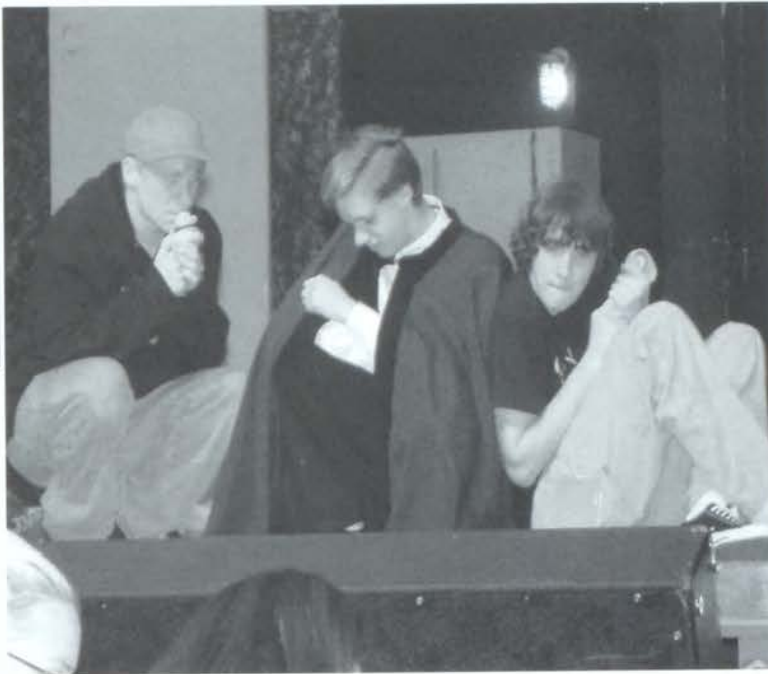

Tyin' up loose ends, sophomore Leah Stock paints the frame for her final project and prepares to mount her picture. The goal of the final project was to present a picture in a new way.

It's show time

Up to no good, seniors Kyle Warren and Zach Mix pull sophomore Jeff Thomson aside to get the Toyland potion.

Nowhere to go, seniors Zach Mix, Kyle Warren and freshman John Evans try to avoid the toy soldiers. The three portrayed Roderigo, Barnaby, and Gonzorgo.

We have to go, sophomore Danielle Hall, senior Carlina Calderon, freshman Ashley Justice, seniors Laura Bohna and Tiffany Campbell and junior Kayla Nissen hurry to find a restroom in Toyland before it is too late.

Time of your life, seniors Alison Keith and Andy Benneth have fun during rehearsal. Keith played Mistress Mary, while Benneth portrayed Alan.

What do you enjoy the most about musical theater?

"The practices because it's fun and you work towards the final production."
~Logan Cherry, 10

"The practices because they make you smile. They are wonderful and I love them all."
~Holly Hodson, 9

"The productions because it's the final product of what we have been working on."
~Kayla Nissen, 11

Tune it up

Hard at work, seniors Andrew Herzberg and Steven Young Jr. work at unhooking an engine from the stand. The engine was moved to the back room to put it out of the way.

Learning through experience, teacher Ken Clark shows freshman Don Stewart how to check the voltage of a car battery in the shop. Clark has been teaching at Lebanon for twenty-two years.

"In Auto Tech, I've learned that you shouldn't eat too much antifreeze."

~Tom Boykin, 11

"Auto Tech I is a great chance for hands on learning... when Clark's actually there."

~Drew Waring, 11

Cranking it up, sophomore Joanna Jasin checks the cranking voltage of a battery. This was one mechanical technique Clark taught his Automotive Technology students during the year.

Revin' it up, junior Jesse Shanklin tries to figure out why the engine keeps overheating on a car in the shop. Students in the Advanced Automotive class were given the opportunity to work on vehicles people brought into the shop.

A weld in progress, sophomore Shon Ebbs does a Mig Tee weld. "I took two pieces of metal and tacked them to look like a 'T' then I used a Mig machine and welded three passes on each side," explained Ebbs.

Let the sparks fly, senior Joel Delgado grinds a guided bend project where two pieces of metal were welded together, then cut, and bent to test the weld's strength.

LBC Skills Contest results:

Novice Mig: Brett Pyle (3)

GMAW-Mig: Mike Lacer (2)

GTAW-Tig: Matt West (1), Ryan Drummond (2) and Greg Gandee (3)

Gas: Seth Anderson (4)

SMAW-ARC: Jon Atchley (1), Tom Fillmore (2), Dustin Bounds (3), Reuben Davidson (4) and Chris Shafer (5)

General Welding: Wade Glaser (2)

Pass or fail, senior Aaron Riutzel cuts the metal for a guided bend test in his Welding Tech I class. "I was doing a test where you weld two pieces of metal together then bend them, and if the weld breaks, you fail the test. I passed though!" said Riutzel.

Listen and learn, sophomore Melicia Hartness listens as teacher Steve Steele explains how to gas weld. Steele has been teaching students how to weld for twenty-four years.

LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL WELDING

Swing that hammer

Mark the spots, junior Erik Wooton and senior Kevin Dugan prepare for the foundation pour as junior Jesse Shanklin III looks on. The construction class worked hard to build a house for Habitat for Humanity.

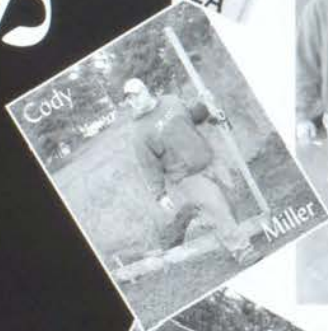

Puttin' it together, Mr. Frazier and junior Cody Miller assemble the transit as other class members observe. The transit is used to make sure the job site is level.

Shape the metal

Spin the lathe, shavings fly as a student's project comes into shape.

Using the chuck key, sophomore James Barker works to finish his project, a small aluminum bat into which he drilled a hole in the middle and put a brass fitting inside.

Shaving that metal down, junior Stuart Gatliff and junior Travis Rhodes take their time on a project in the machine shop.

Shape the surface, junior Brian Hayes adjusts the mill bit to cut the metal down to proper size.

Spin and trim, sophomore Brandon Brown enjoys machine class because of all the different things you can make out of metal.

Work hard, play hard, juniors Jeremy Gilbertson and Tom Fillmore work on the grinder. Shop class was fun because after you finish your projects, you could relax.

Going along the metal, senior Matthew Jennings machines metal on the lathe.

Periods and commas

To be, or not to be, longtime and well liked teacher Kerry Wells spices up his language arts classes by being dramatic and corky. He also taught Video Productions and advised the Poetry Club.

I come in peace, during a sophomore class, teacher Jennifer Walter adds some humor by imitating an alien.....or maybe a robot?

Group discussions, sophomore Cody Pedigo sits on the heater while working on an assignment in Ms. Walter's sophomore Language Arts class. After winter break, several teachers were relocated to other classrooms while construction took place.

"Being a teacher allows me to be a student all over again. This is what I love about teaching. I am forever learning."

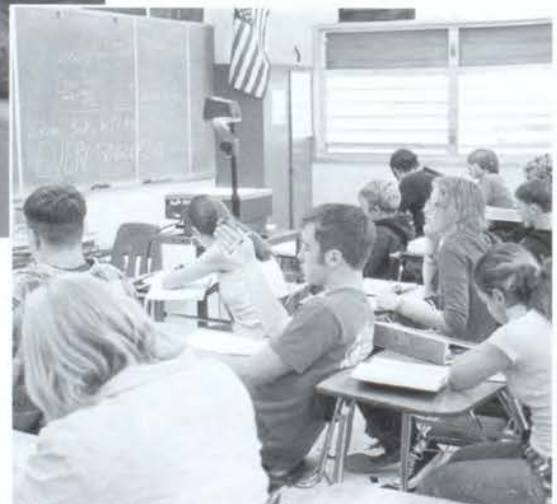

~Ms. Wittwer, Teacher

"A favorite quote of mine is 'Read... and you'll never be lonely.'"

~Mrs. Ray, Teacher

Ask the question, take the notes, junior Derek Klein starts to raise his hand to ask a question in Ms. Walter's English class. This was Walter's first year teaching at Lebanon.

Back in history

In deep thought, teacher Steve Speth pauses to think for a moment during one of his insightful discussions. He was well known for being very knowledgeable about a wide variety of subjects.

Daydreams and fingernails, juniors Trisha Pickles and Corrie Belveal try to entertain themselves during one of teacher Steve Speth's many lectures. Speth is retiring this year after 24 years of service to LHS.

Hard at work, senior Josh Thomason thinks hard in teacher Dave Winter's economics class. Economics was a required class that many seniors struggled with passing.

That's gross! during a senior economics class, Mr. Winters explains how to calculate the gross domestic product. Winters taught freshmen core and remains an avid Boston Celtics fan.

"My goal in teaching government is to have students understand the rules so they can play the game and make government work for them"

~Mrs. Little, Teacher

"One of the greatest things about teaching American Studies is the conversation and debate that often takes place. Whether about current events or events of history, the ideas and opinions students share are fascinating and thought provoking. this makes history fun!"

~Mrs. Bauer, Teacher

Secrets of science

Faster than the speed of sound, teacher Rebecca Cienti leads her students in an experiment testing the speed of sound. She did this by creating a loud sound. The students then timed from when they saw her hit the bell with the hammer to when they heard the sound.

The world of science, freshman Travis Tacy finishes his lab write-up for a science experiment. Many labs were used this year letting the students discover the answers to scientific questions.

"Science is exciting. It's always fun to learn new things."
~Sean Merton, 9

"Science? I'm in Science?"
~Gatlen Richardson, 11

"I can't think of anything!! Please GOD help me!"
~Mickey Franklin, 11

Gator attack, The Reptile Man visits Lynden Brown's zoology class annually to show off and teach about several different kinds of reptiles. He has a traveling show where he engages his audience in learning not to fear snakes and other reptiles.

Hooray for chemicals, freshmen Joyce Johns and Elizabeth Rochefort are busy recording data for one of the many labs performed in science class.

Tired of equations

Welcome to la-la land, freshman Tory Harvey is either paying close attention to the teacher or thinking about how close she was to the end of the day.

Vandehey + Fred Meyers = Hot Dog, teacher Jim Vandehey teaches the class about war, wrestling, Freddie's, those A+ hot dogs, and occasionally math. In all seriousness, Vandehey has taught many years, in many forms of math, and has been the wrestling coach for Lebanon in both present and past years.

Question here, sophomore Jenilyn Lacer raises her hand to ask an important question about math. This class studied Geometry, getting them ready for Algebra 2 and maybe even Calculus.

Remember class, it's always important to at least look like you are paying attention. This technique was demonstrated by senior Tony Lee.

Learn new words

Dancin' away, sophomore Nathan Probert shakes it up for his Spanish project. Students were assigned a product and would try to sell it to the class.

Sing your heart out, the Spanish class stops for a quick picture after caroling. The Spanish class would go around to classes and sing Christmas carols to practice their skills.

"Having foreign languages is a great chance to learn about different cultures and learn how to speak another language."

~Natalie Allen, 10

Stephanie Allen

"Doing the commercial for Spanish was annoyingly fun, but I had to keep looking at my lines."

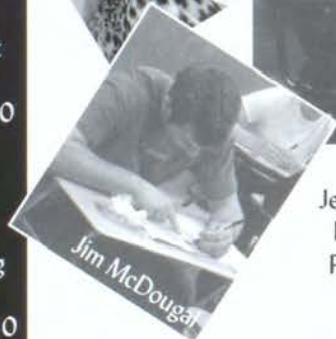

~Stacy Heyne, 10

Chris Kelley

"My favorite part of French class is learning the French songs."

~Sarah Howard, 10

Jim McDougal

Can you explain? sophomore Natalie Allen asks a question as Frau Ingrid Jenson describes how to correctly do a worksheet. Jenson was born in Germany and taught all the German classes.

Mardi Gras time, senior Jennifer Spangenberg cuts eye holes for a mask while Janna Price and Carly Shanks color their masks in teacher Deanne Chambers' French I class.

"Our aid, Julia, from Germany is awesome!"

~Drew Waring, 11

Community & vocational skills

Friends forever, sophomore Ashley Day and senior Brian Johnstone pose together outside of the Brickhouse during PE. PE was a popular class among the kids. "My favorite part is working on speech because it helps me," said sophomore Mindy Hatmaker.

Dance the night away, teacher Lucy Hodson, senior Melissa Plumlee, sophomore Ashley Day and senior Randy Crenshaw take a break during their annual prom.

Kids at play

Some favorite words of wisdom from Teacher Linda Sahnov...

"The truest course is the one you set with your heart."

"We learn by being as well as by doing"

"Until you decide you are worthy of more, you will be content with less."

So many colors, senior Amy Holt helps her playschool child to color in a picture in teacher Linda Sahnov's playschool. Most children know what they want to do for that day.

Yum, things get a little sticky with sophomore Jeremy Shanks and his partner helping their playmates in the plaster tub.

Lending a helpful hand, junior Samantha Bender helps her playschool student color a picture. Playschool helped students practice the skills they learned in Early Childhood education. It took alot of preparation but the results were worth it!

Cotton balls galore, freshman Chelle Robertson gets a good laugh out of her playschool partner as she watches her glue cotton balls on her paper glove.

Chefs on the go

Mixin' it up, juniors Brianna Doll and Lindsey Smith finish mixing frosting for their sugar eggs.

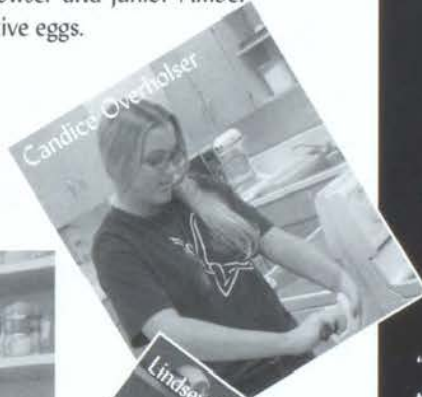

Round and round it goes, sophomore Chelynne Bowser and junior Amber Jones have fun making the frosting for their decorative eggs.

The final touch, junior Rachel Keil works on the finishing touches of her model egg for teacher Neva Clausen's cooking class. Students learned how to create and plan meals.

Ingredients put together, senior Kandi Moore works alongside sophomore Samatha Oliver as they mix the frosting for their decorative egg.

Seniors advice on why you should take this class...

"You learn to make the tastiest, quick and easy snacks. I didn't eat lunch the entire time I took the class!"
~Sheena Bishop, 12

"Finally you will be able to make more than Top Ramen."
~Charles Hobson, 12

"Just because the teacher is so great."
~Justin Rowan, 12

A Time of Change...

Senior Danny Pepperling reaches for the ball over his opponents head. Pepperling was a great asset for the football team. He is also a valued part of the mens varsity basketball team.

Playing the game...

Whether or not you play in the game or just attend it you are still affected by the atmosphere surrounding it.

In our high school many of the students are involved in a sport at one time or another.

Why we do what we do...

Sophomore Aaron Gazeley stated "I wrestle for the pure enjoyment of making my opponents cry." Many play for the fun of it, others play for the pure enjoyment of beating the other schools or for just the love of the game .

Unique sports

"I love skating because of the rush and satisfaction in learning a trick. I enjoy it."
 ~Andrew Herzburg, 12

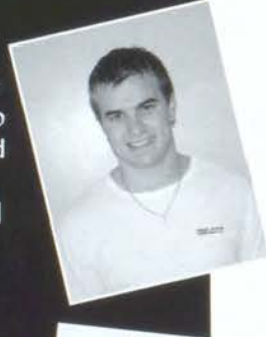

Why do you like your unique sport?

"It's good exercise and it's a lot of fun."
 ~ Jessica Blair, 11

Fun in the snow, junior Jessica Blair (third from the left) loves cross-country skiing. "It's a lot of fun," said Jessica. "Especially with family and friends!"

"Snowmobiling is fun because you get to cover lots of area and go fast doing it."
 ~Trase Privratsky, 11

Dashing through the snow, junior Trase Privratsky and senior Danny Pepperling enjoy an afternoon at Hoodoo.

"Well, I'm on demo team. I help teach kid's karate and it's a lot of fun."
 ~Celina deJesus, 11

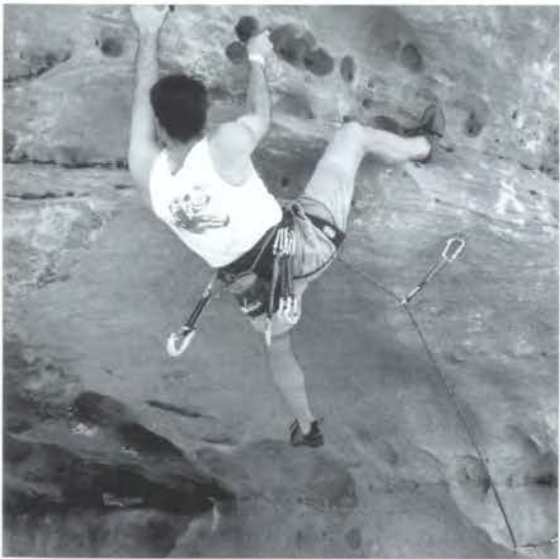

Hi-yah, junior Celina deJesus has a first degree black belt and is part of the Master's Club. She's been studying the Asian art of karate for about three years, at ATA Karate for Kids, which is located on Main Street. "I started because my brother did," said deJesus.

Strike, senior Andy Darling likes spending his free time at the bowling alley.

Ascending to new heights, "The best part of climbing is that you can do it everywhere. I've climbed at more than twenty locations. It's better to go somewhere and to actually do something, than to just sit on a tour bus," said teacher David Kish, who's been climbing for eleven years now.

What is the craziest thing you've done?

"I skipped school with two other people and took a spur of the moment trip to the coast. We never got caught."

~Cindy Harper, 12

"Eating cabbage."

~James Goodrich, 10

"I swallowed a two inch horse shoe nail on a dare."

~Cody Miller, 11

"Rode my bike off a 50 ft. cliff into Foster Lake. My front end did not get up all the way, and I flopped face first into the water."

~Mike Froman, 12

"A friend and I took her parents' car for a spin and almost got caught by her brother while we were out."

~Leanna Stearley, 10

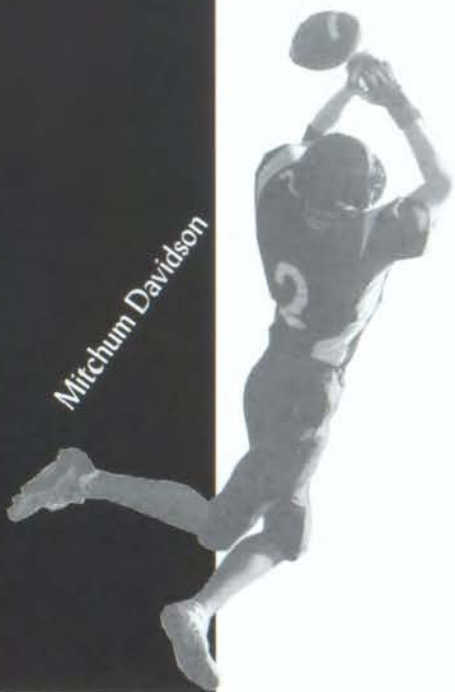

Powerfull, seniors Stephen Siewell, Bodie Dowding, Heath Smith and junior Trase Privratsky rush their opponents in the last few seconds of the game.

College bound, senior Zachary Hagemeister rushes with the ball. Hagemeister was injured for part of the season, but he proceeded to play well and in turn signed with OSU on a football scholarship.

Take down, sophomore Nathan Probert takes down his opponent during one of Lebanon's last home games. Probert was one of few underclassmen who coaches thought could handle the varsity game.

And it's good!

Knock-out, senior Zachary Hagemeister and junior Ben Walnum take their opponent down using swift movements to catch him off guard.

Oh, say can you see, the Warrior football men and coaches pause for a brief moment to honor our nation before the start of the game. Although the team didn't have a good season this year they still made it a memorable year for coach Brad Bauer as his last year as head coach for the Warriors.

Heisman hopeful...? Sophomore Evan Negrete poses perfectly as he hurries to lose his opponent. The JV team finished with a 3 and 6 record. Next year with new coaches and new students the team hopes to show the Mid-Western league what Lebanon is made of.

Touchdown, senior Danny Pepperling makes a run for the endzone to score once again.

Heads or tails? team captains Jacob Probert, Zachary Hagemeister, Heath Smith and Stephen Siewell call the coin in the air as it's flipped. Probert was named first team all-league, making him Lebanon's only player to be selected for this team.

Freshmen on the field

Take it and run, freshman Jesse Flick gets ready to run with the ball.

Take down, freshman Jason White tackles a South Eugene player.

Pep talk, Coach Rob Johnston talks to his players in a quick huddle between plays.

With warrior might, freshman David McDaniel runs with the ball for a touchdown. The freshman team had a good year and tried their best at all the games, showing their good spirit.

"One of great moment was when I intercepted the ball and ran 10 yards on an offside kick."

~Christopher Triglia

Break away and run, junior Sara Aikin sweeps down the sideline on the way to a big gain.

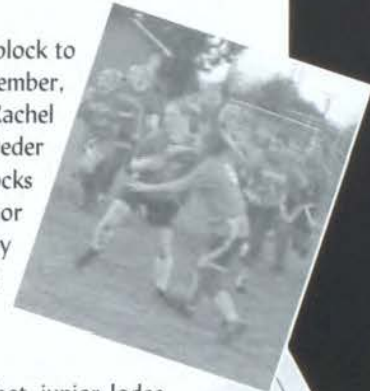

A girl team, the junior girls celebrate a game well played during a huddle after the game.

Junior Girls: Gupse Spasaro(0), Amy Durling(1), Elise Hickson(2), Kelley Soltau(3), Sara Aikin(4), Justine Small(8), Sandra Springer(9), Carra Schmidt(10), Corrie Belveal(14), Kate Lindstrom(15), Amy Stuart(17), Ashley Coakley(20), Celina deJesus(21), Sarah Hilton(23), Jodee Wilson(24), Teresa Rush(26), Brianna Doll(30), Trisha Pickles(34), Kristy Walker(35), Nicole Tarrant(35), Shannon Israel(37), Bethany Suderman(44), Heather Hankins(45), Sammi Jo Johnson(49), Sarah Silverman(50), Kiana Fernandez(55), Sam Bender(56), Brittany Benedict(57), Sam Stephens(58), Allie Simmons(64), Candice Overholser(66), Ruth Bennett(70), Cary Rapley(72), Candice Bultena(74), Krystle Cheshier(77), Mandy Godsey(83), Danae Falk(84), Coach Chris Allen.

In the Spirit, seniors Micah Cabrera, Ian Caster, Michael Froman, Jeremy Lundberg, and graduate Warren Drainville lead the cheers.

A block to remember, senior Rachel Oeder blocks junior Ashley Coakley.

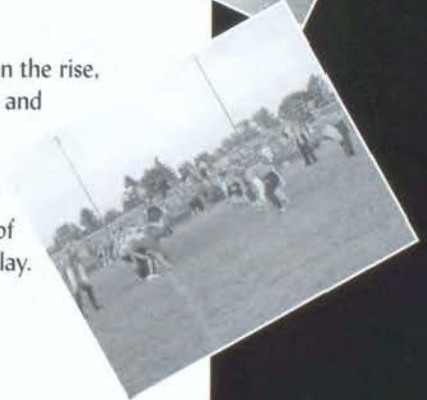

A long shot, junior Jodee Wilson sets up for the next play. Playing as a tight end, she ran and caught passes.

A hard steal, senior Melanie Driskill tried her best to steal a flag from junior Jodee Wilson.

Anticipation on the rise, the junior and senior girls get set on the line and ready for the start of the next play.

Girls can play too...

What was the best part of the soccer season this year?

"The greatest thing about this years soccer season was it was just a big group of friends going out and having fun. Winning was only a part of it."

~Aaron Riutzel, 12

"We had a great season but a lot of people got hurt."

~Chad Shafer, 12

With Watchful Eyes, seniors Robert Burns and Tim Roll enjoy a break from the game. Although the team suffered from having many injured players this year, they did really well through out the season with eleven returning seniors.

Control the ball, senior Ross Wopat kicks the ball away from the other team. Wopat was an important asset to the team this year.

Gooodaaaaaalllllll...

Rush to the ball, senior Aaron Riutzel challenges his opponent during the game. Riutzel played primarily as a defender through out the season.

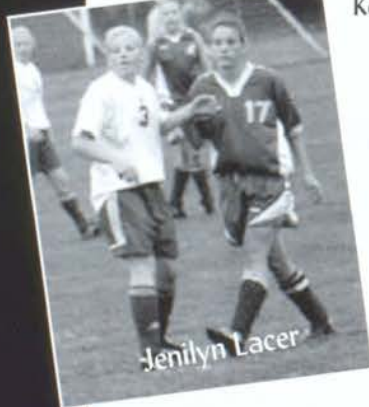

How long have you been playing soccer and what makes you keep playing?

"This was my first year in soccer. I was a little nervous at first about playing but it turned out great. I made a lot of friends and had fun. We didn't do that well in games, but hopefully next year we'll do better, all we need is: MORE PEOPLE WILLING TO PLAY!"

~Hannah Sherman, 10

"This was my third year playing and it was by far the best year. Not just because my dad was the coach, but because we played as a team. Next year will be even better as long as we get the great support we had this year and tons of people come to tryouts."

~Amber Gorham, 11

Go for the goal, sophomore Hannah Sherman jumps towards the ball during the last varsity womens soccer game as teammates junior Danae Falk and freshman Sara Mackie keep up the intensity of the game.

Keep up the pace, junior Kaitlyn Stevens gets the ball away from her opponent with one swift kick.

Lady Warriors

Block the goal, East Linn junior Erin Borland kicks the ball away from the goal so the opposing team can't score. Borland played for Lebanon due to the fact that East Linn didn't have their own women's soccer team.

What made you play soccer this year?

"It is fun and interesting, plus I don't like to play indoor sports and I don't like to run (cross country) so all that leaves is soccer."

~Jenilyn Lacer, 10

"I learned to play soccer during tryouts and to make varsity was sweet. I wouldn't trade my experiences for anything."

~Danae Falk, 11

"I love to compete and play soccer. The girls were awesome this year and it made it one of my best soccer years."

~Laci Wardlaw, 12

Change of possession, seniors Laura Mackie and Tiffany Buckmaster try to steal the ball from the other team. Mackie was a well respected player as well as co-captain along with Buckmaster and Laci Wardlaw.

Season's end, freshman Ashley Bilyeu played the entire year on the varsity team. This year was a growing experience for the entire team. With many young players and a new coach, Rusty Gorham, the team improved immensely as the season went on.

Going straight for the goal...

Sturdy pose, freshmen Zachary Buckmaster and Sean Kilborn stand for a quick photo before a game. Both were outstanding players this year and will be valued for the duration of their high school soccer careers.

Front Row: Bridget Donahue, Rachel Palinkas, Toni Rush, Jodi Barnes, Amber Matz. Back Row: Coach David Kish, Mary Buchheit, Elisa Kruger, Celeste Yoder, Coach Rusty Gorham.

Win the game, freshman Celeste Yoder concentrates on the ball. Yoder played on the J.V. team as well as spending some time on the varsity team when ever she was needed.

Fresh & JV Volleyball

"My most memorable experience playing volleyball was when we won our first home game, it was really awesome!"
~Brittney Dowding, 9

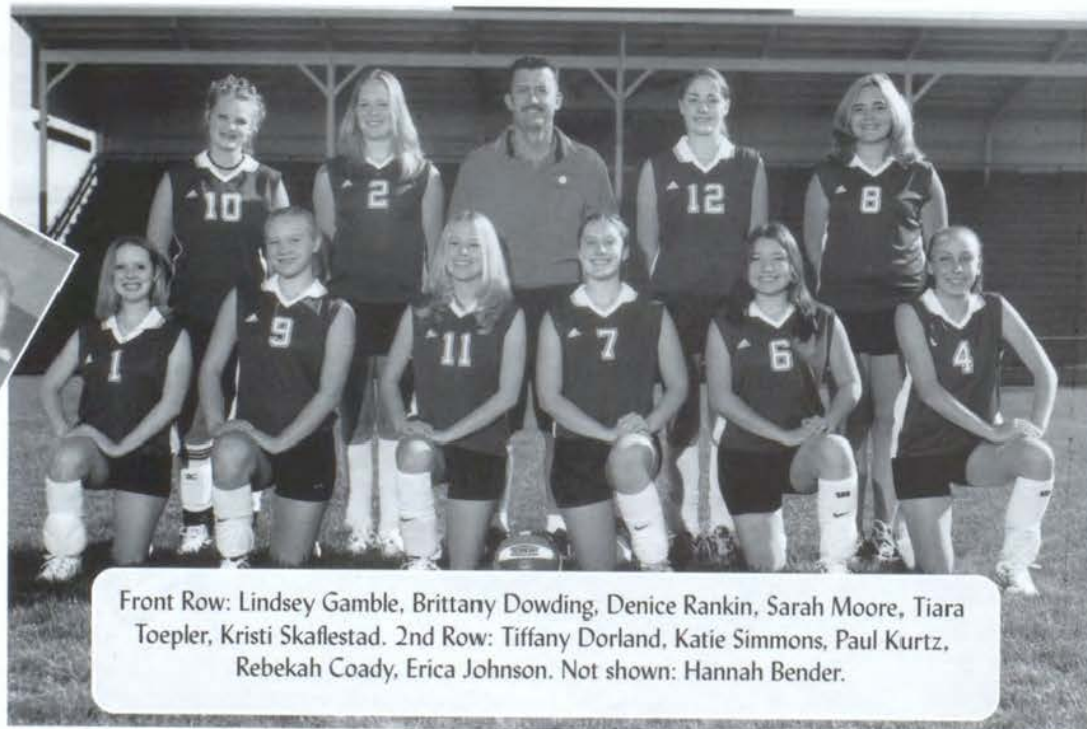

"Volleyball was a great experience for me this year because I got to work with a lot of the older girls."
~Rebekah Coady, 10

"My favorite game we played was against Marshfield even though we lost! It was still really fun!"
~Kiah Alexander, 9

Ready to play, sophomore Erika Johnson and freshman Brittney Dowding are pumped and ready for whatever comes their way. The J.V. team always played with a lot of heart.

Front Row: Rachel Schoenthal. 2nd Row: Liliya Samoyich, Kiah Alexander, Christine Molina, Emily Flory, Allysse Adams. 3rd Row: Larissa Delgado, Lindsey Aikin, Tatum Clingenpeel, Karisten Kilborn, Tiffany Gutierrez.

"My most memorable experience was at one of our games when Katie Simmons jumped to hit the ball and missed it and she fell flat on the floor!"
~Kristel Skaflestad, 10

"My favorite thing about volleyball would have to be our big team meetings because we all bonded together."
~Rachel Schoenthal, 9

Serve it up, sophomore Rebekah Coady serves the ball while sophomore Hannah Bender prepares for the ball to return to Lebanon's side.

On the floor, sophomore Erika Johnson demonstrates "perfect form" as she dives to hit the ball, while her teammate sophomore Kristei Skaflestad waits willingly for her big shot!

Get ready, freshman Brittany Dowding prepares to set the volleyball during a home game.

"My favorite thing about volleyball was when the whole team went to OSU to a volleyball game!"
~Tiffany Gutierrez, 10

How will you remember this volleyball season?

"I was honored to play varsity for my freshman year."

~Melissa Bishop, 9

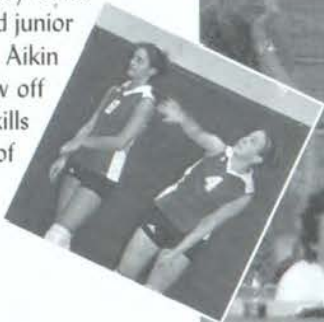

"My mom was the coach so it was really stressful at times, but also very fun."

~Katie Danielson, 10

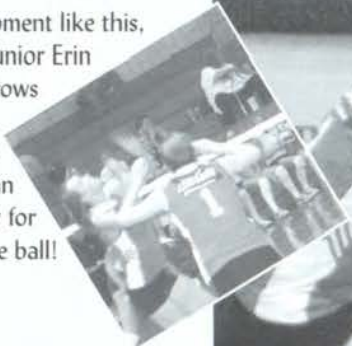

"I didn't get to play this last year because of my knee surgery. Everyone was still really supportive and I know next year is going to be a blast!"

~Maggi Hallock, 10

Keepin' it real, senior Ashley Lamb and junior Sara Aikin show off their skills at one of the games.

A moment like this, junior Erin Burrows is more than ready for the ball!

It takes two, senior Lindsay Gay and junior Sara Aikin hustle their way back into one of the games.

In the air, junior Jodee Wilson records one more hit for the LHS warriors, with the help of her teammates!

Nice form, sophomore Katie Danielson leans back for the perfect set!

Through the net, the team gathers together for a brief moment to congratulate each other for their team effort! Team spirit was evident at every game.

Bump, set, spike, score

Front row: Sara Aikin. 2nd row: Nicole Suderman, Katie Danielson, Lindsey Gay, Chelsea Hartman, Erin Burrows, Bethany Suderman. 3rd row: Debbie Danielson, Ashley Lamb, Jodee Wilson, Melissa Bishop, Maggi Hallock.

Watch yourself, sophomore Chelsea Hartman waits patiently for the ball to score yet another point for the LHS warriors!

Go Warriors! The varsity team huddles together before a big game for encouragement and support from each other.

Throw your hands up in the air, senior Ashley Lamb jumps to block the opponents ball!

Good at what they do

Runners take your mark, Lebanon runners senior Tony Miller and Brett Haines, sophomore Nathan Edwards, and freshmen James Phillips and Nick Rose line up awaiting the starting gun.

The long stretch, junior Amie Hensley tries to keep ahead while still having two more miles to go before she reaches the end.

The end is here at last, senior Zach Edwards begins to slow down as he runs across the finish line. After crossing the finish line runners needed to take a walk to cool down and keep themselves from getting ill.

Front row: Becca Ellis, Sharee Beckham, Samantha McGarry, Melissa Johnstone. 2nd Row: Rebecca Regnaud, Matt Ellis, James Phillips, Nathan Edwards, J.J. Macedo, Zach Edwards, John Barreto, Jeffrey Thomson, Zach Hood, Tyler Scott, Trisha Bloom. 3rd Row: Emily Latimer, Callie Brown, Micah Patton, Bradey Whaley, Alexander Legg, Austin Yoder, Brett Haines, Andrew Wimer, Sheila Williams, Martin Dannen. 4th Row: Marissa Stewart, Ashley Adams, Joseph Jorgensen, Anjuli Feldmose, Sarah Silverman, Kelley Soltau, Eric Habjan, Evangelina Santana, Amie Hensley. Not pictured: Nick Rose, Travis Curry.

Race to the front, senior Ashley Adams sprints as hard as she can to catch the lead. Adams was not only trying to catch the lead, she was also trying to beat her personal record.

Round the corner, sophomore Brett Haines picks his speed up as he nears the end. Haines ran for a good place and time.

McDougal's first year on the team.

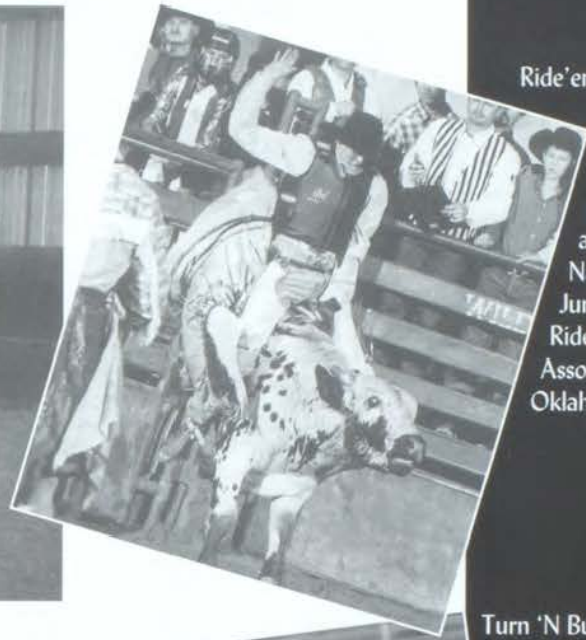

A tight grab, senior Robin Sliker bends down to grab a flag in the team Canadian flags race. Sliker's team had a record-breaking time in the flags race.

Rodeo Team: Hilary Karr, Tyler Gorham, Jon Opel, and Amber Gorham.

Ride'em cowboy, freshman Tyler Gorham rides a bull at the National Junior Bull Riders Association in Oklahoma.

A quick tie, junior Amber Gorham makes a quick goat tie at the Hermiston Rodeo. Gorham also competed in the Pole bending and barrel racing events. This was Gorham's second year on the team.

Turn 'N Burn, senior Hilary Karr makes a run on her barrel horse 'Nip N Jet', sliding around the second barrel. Karr was also a member of the North West Professional Rodeo Association.

A hard ride, senior Jon Opel attempts to ride the bull "Boomerang" at the Wild Eye Ranch. Opel was a member of the Junior Bull Rider's Association and also went to compete in Oklahoma. This was Opel's second year on the team.

At the rim

"The best moment in our season was when we beat Churchill in double overtime."

~Danny Pepperling, 12

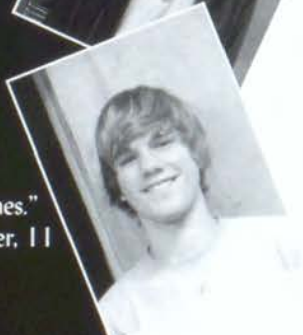

"It's fun being out there playing."

~Bud Hoover, 12

"I like the home games."

~Derek Draper, 11

Slam dunk da funk, senior Zach Hagemeister makes a slam dunk during a game warm up. "This year was most memorable, because it's my last," said Hagemeister. "Being with all my friends, and watching Bud dunk all the time was fun." The away game at Churchill was Zach's favorite game, he scored his first dunk and they won the game.

Group huddle, team members huddle around coach Stepp to listen to game plans and strategies. This was Stepp's first year coaching at Lebanon.

Top: Coach Bart Stepp, Bud Hoover, Zach Hagemeister, Dan Pepperling, Cameron Anderson, Derek Draper. Bottom: Stephen Siewell, Justin Dodge, Casey Humphrey, Drew George.

Illude the defense, junior Derek Draper has been playing basketball since the first grade. "I liked playing with my friends," said Draper. "My highlight was beating North Eugene, we went into overtime and beat them by three."

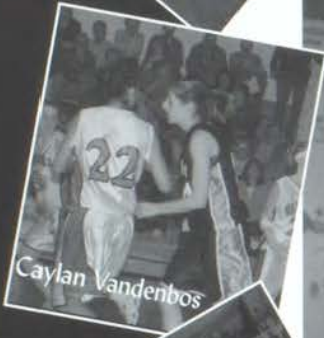

Pass it on, senior Stephen Siewell gets ready to pass the ball. "Being with my friends and playing, that was most memorable," said Siewell. The away game at Sheldon was also memorable for Siewell, because he scored the first point.

Look for the touch, junior Drew George looks for a team mate to pass the ball to. Teamwork required working hard for the best shot.

Jodee Wilson

Shelly Robertson

Stefanie Pool

"I made a lot of new friends and got closer to the girls. Our team improved greatly over the season."

~Shannon Israel, 11

"This year was the best for the seniors because we all became a family after playing together since the seventh grade."

~Shelly Robertson & Lindsey Gay, 12

"The season was really great, we had two new coaches and I really clicked with them. I can't wait till next year!"

~Maggi Hallock, 10

Watch for the rebound, sophomore Chelsea Hartman waits for the ball to come back down. "I thought we had a good year over all. I enjoyed our coaches and players. I think if we stayed in the original league we would have done better. I'll miss this sport, the girls, and all the attitudes," said senior Monica Masog.

Time to make a decision, sophomore Jamie Martinez looks for a teammate to pass to. "We learned this season that we're only playing for an audience of one." said senior Caylan Vandenbos.

Stop, shoot, swish

Look for the open person, sophomore Chelsea Hartman passes the ball to an open team member. "I think overall we had a good season. We had our ups and downs but in the end it was all worth it. I'm going to miss the seniors, and I'm looking forward to next season."

Concentrate on the ball, sophomore Jamie Martinez waits for the rebound. "The best thing about basketball is the feeling you get when you do something good or someone else does something good. It pumps you up when you see them out there." said Martinez.

Fight with all your might, senior Lindsey Gay holds the ball with everything she has. "If we were in the same league we probably would have kicked ah, well, it was fun and not a total waste! Wish we would have accomplished more, but...you do what you can!" said senior Stefanie Pool.

He shoots...he scores!

Fightin' for it, sophomore Nathan Probert fights for a rebound during a game. "I enjoy playing basketball because it is an invigorating sport, and because it makes you a better person," said Probert.

Take your best shot, junior Drew Pettner shoots a free throw after being fouled. "When I shoot foul shots, I just think about my form and look at the rim, then follow through," said Pettner.

Jonathan Lee

"Although we didn't have a very successful season, we had a great team and I had a lot of fun."

~James Bartlett, 10

"The best part of the game is the intensity of knowing that the game could go to the last minute."

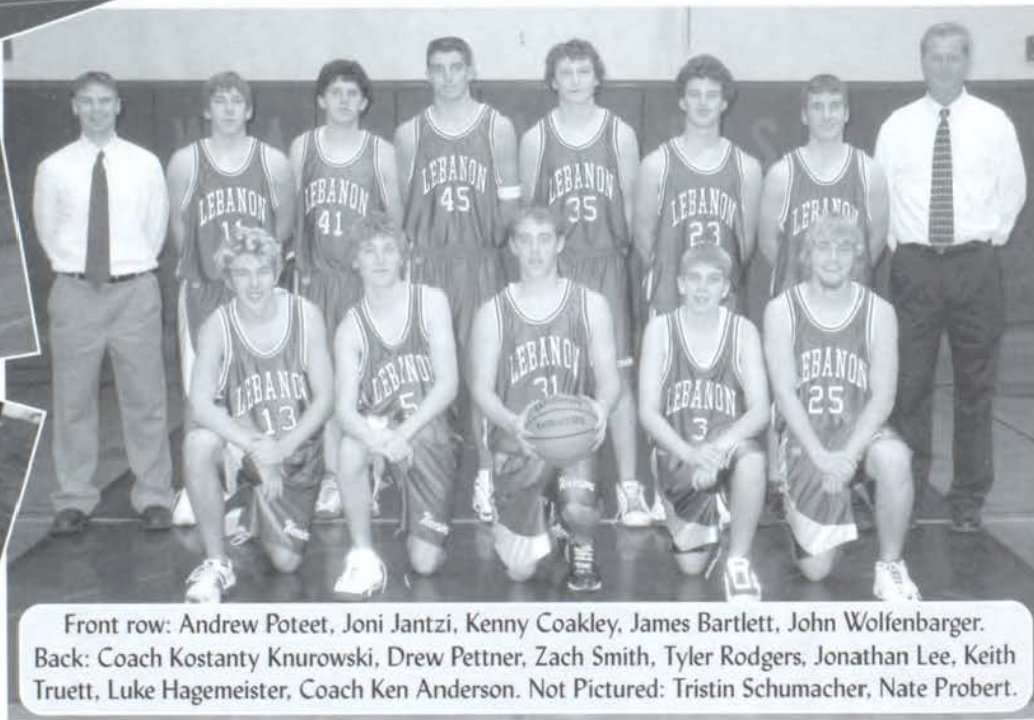

~Keith Truett, 10

Scorin' the points, freshman Chad Anderson goes in for a lay up during a game against Sheldon. "This year was awesome," said Anderson. "We should have done a lot better than we did, but I am sure that the other teams will pay next year and the year after that."

Who said white men can't jump? freshman Alex Kuhns makes a jump shot during a non-league game against South Albany. "I play basketball because it's fun and and it keeps you out of trouble," said Kuhns.

"My motto is 'Play every game as if it was your last.'"
~John Mance, 9

"It's all about the love of the game."
~Cody Cowdrey, 9

"I play basketball because I like it and because it keeps me in good shape."
~Matthew Albion, 9

"There is no 'I' in team. That sums up this team."
~Ryan Bolman, 9

Practice makes perfect!

In the last seconds, sophomore Rebekah Coady struggles with her opponent as she tries to make a basket. The womens team had a fresh start this year which forced them to rebuild as a team and as a result they grew closer and became stronger.

"My favorite moment was when we were in Willamette and I was guarding their best post and she only scored two points."

~Gretchen Zehner, 10

"We improved this year and I'm sure next year we'll do awesome!"

~Alisa Hurtado, 10

Step to the line!

Find the open woman, freshman Larissa Delgado fights with her opponent to make the pass while freshman Heather Goss holds position. Both Delgado and Goss played well through out the season and will continue to be a great asset to Lebanon's teams in the years to come.

What was your most memorable moment this season?

"When I got hit in the head by the basketball in our first game at South Albany."

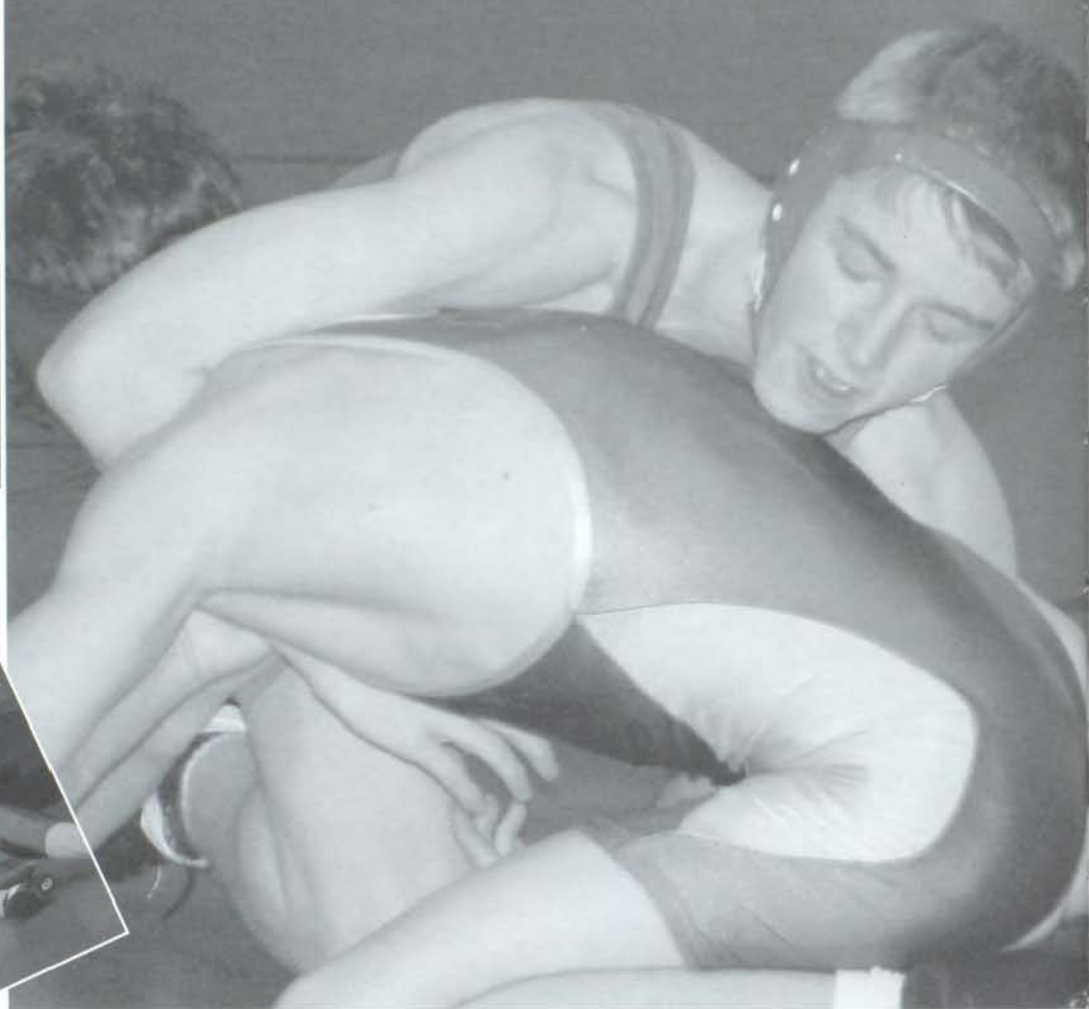

~Allysse Adams, 9

"When I got 2 blocks during our last game against Springfield."

~Sara Erwin, 9

Midwestern League Coach of the Year, Jim Vandehey directs his wrestlers with discipline and a strong sense of humor.

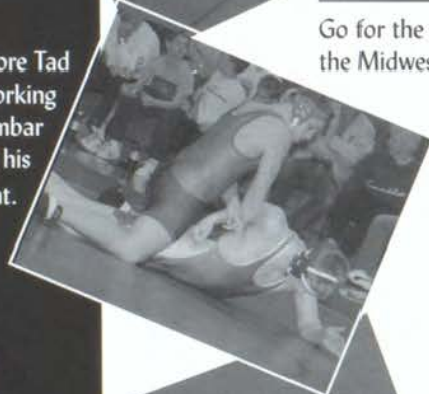

Go for the pin, senior Adam White attempts a cradle pin on his opponent. Lebanon wrestling moved into the Midwestern League this year and placed a strong third overall.

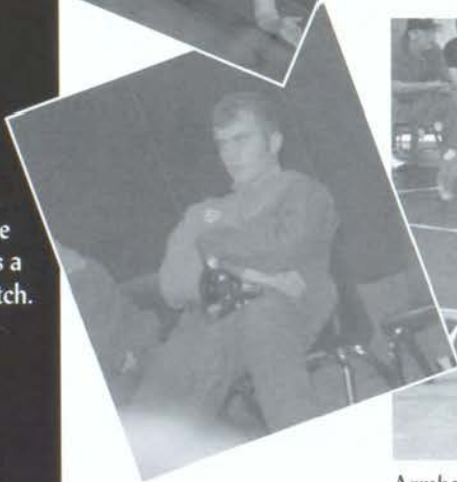

Sophomore Ryan McPherson putting the hurt on as he works in an armbar.

Junior Derek Klein looks on as a teammate wrestles a match.

State Contenders:

Ryan Drummond, Nick Suing, Jon Barnes, Michael Rieke and John Von Ruden.

Armbar to the floor, sophomore Michael Rieke pins his opponent during the Battle of the Border at Del Norte, California. Rieke placed 2nd in his weight class at districts and qualified for state.

Take 'em down

Not Pictured: Amanda Wallace, Amy Holt, Megan McDougal, Coach Tate Page, Andrew Dunham, Ross Hensley, Ian Johnson, Will Pettner, Tyler Stewart, and Jason White.

A matter of mind and muscle, senior Ross Hensley sinks for a crossface on his opponent. Every match took the utmost from committed wrestlers.

That has got to hurt, senior Ryan Drummond stacks his opponent up for a half-nelson. Ryan placed 2nd in the 145 pound weight class at districts.

Bend and twist, senior Tim Brewer works to get his opponent's arm. At districts Brewer placed 5th in the 125 weight class.

Refuse to lose

And they're off! The Lebanon Boys and Girls swim teams placed third at the district meet and sent two relays from each team to the state meet. "The best thing about Swim Team is going head to head with somebody, and beating them in a personal best time." said junior Joseph Andrews.

State Swimmers:

Joe Andrews, Mike Nichols, Jacob Gabell, Andrew Wimer, Andy Benneth, Jennifer Beach, Jenna Cady, Melissa Buchheit, Jessica Coddington, and Callie Bennett.

Swim faster, junior Jacob Gabell swims as fast as he can to beat his opponent to the ball. "The matches" are what Gabell enjoys the most.

"The best part about water polo was going to the matches and feeling the competition and the adrenaline of the fight above and under the water."

~Melanie Driskill, 12

Go warrior polo! The varsity boys water polo team listen as coach Kathy Benzo gives instructions.

Girls Polo

Go team go

"My favorite thing about cheerleading is that all the other cheerleaders are my friends. We are all pretty close and we trust each other. We learn little things about each other all the time."

~Ruth Marshall, 10

"My favorite memory of cheer leading was when our coaches gave us candy. Sugar always made practice a lot of fun."

~Ashley Graves, 10

"The best part about cheerleading was getting to know everyone. Practice was always something to look forward to, because something hilarious would always happen that would make our coaches crazy."

~Kyra Sigler, 9

Jump for joy, sophomore Jennifer Eckert, freshman Candice Goodrich, and freshman Kyra Sigler finish a cheer.

Show of agility, freshmen Candice Goodrich and Ashley Justice, and senior Kandi Moore hold sophomore Brandy Cherry up to create a human pyramid, and this was only one of their gymnastic abilities.

R-E-D spells red, the cheerleaders show their spirit by exciting the crowd with another cheer. The cheerleaders were present at both basketball games and the football games.

Raise the flags

Wave those flags, this year, the color guard entertained the crowd at the football games.

"I wanted to be more involved in school. I like color guard because it's fun. The best part of color guard is the satisfaction of knowing I can do something that not many can do," said senior Wendy Rapley.

"I joined color guard because it was something different and I thought it would boost my confidence, and so far it has. I think our team shows the most spirit possible," said junior Cary Rapley.

Hold up those flags, senior Laura Bohna, juniors Kayla Nissen and Cary Rapley, seniors Wendy Rapley and Marie Antons, and freshman Alice Marshall raise their flags for spirit.

Dance explosion

Front row: Katherine Breshears, Ashley Arnold, Mindy Bloom, Ashley Lamb, Stephanie Madesh, Ashley VonCannon, Kelsey Ufford. Row 2: Barbara McGehee, Janna Price, Sarah Bivins, Samantha Stephens, Candice Overholser, Vicki Dobkrovsky, Ashley Coakley, Nicole, Tarrant. Row 3: Tori Harvey, Sammi Johnson, Candice Bultena, Cammi Bloom.

Put your back into it, Varsity member senior Ashley Lamb and J.V. member sophomore Natalie Allen dance together at a pep assembly. "J.V. works really hard and that's why I like them," said Lamb. "I thought dancing with Varsity was fun. We worked more as a team and it felt like we were accepted by them," said Allen.

"A special memory from this year was when we went to our Park Rose competition. We were acting crazy! It was so much fun. It was embarrassing too!"
~Candice Overholser, 11

"The competition I like best was the West Albany competition. It was really carefree. We just have fun and don't take it too serious."

~Kelsey Ufford, 12

"The thing I liked best about dance team was getting to know all the girls and becoming really close to them."

~Janna Price, 10

Three's a crowd, senior Ashley VonCannon, junior Ashley Coakley, and senior Ashley Arnold prepare to leap across the gym at a pep assembly performance. "At the beginning of the year I didn't like dancing at pep assemblies but the last one I enjoyed dancing at because people didn't sit there and look at you like you're stupid," said Coakley.

Spirit fingers, seniors Stephanie Madesh and Mindy Bloom demonstrate a pirouette while performing their state dance routine for the school. "I like the state routine this year a lot. I have a really good feeling about it," said Bloom.

Move on up

Pump it up, sophomores Sarah Bivins and Natalie Allen, and freshman Claire Jarvis perform a simple move while dancing at a J.V. football game. "The best part of dance team was when we'd get done performing and you could tell you did a good job because the coaches would be smiling and they'd tell us we're a great team," said Jarvis. "Some special memories of being on the team are when we'd receive roses and candy from our coaches," said Allen.

Groove to the music, sophomores Natalie Allen and Sarah Bivins, and freshman Rhianna Giddings work it at a J.V. football game. "At our first football game we were really scared but our coaches just told us to be confident and smile," said Bivins.

Dancing queens, freshman Madison Brown and Janell Pulido are full of smiles and energy while dancing at a J.V. football game. "The thing I liked most about dance team was the bonding and learning new dances," replied Pulido.

"The most embarrassing moment on dance team was when we had to do our dance twice at freshmen orientation because we messed up."

~Rhianna Giddings, 9

"The best part of dance team was how we'd work so hard as a team and then we'd perform to show our progress."

~Whitney Coakley, 10

Genie in a bottle, sophomore Natalie Allen, freshman Madison Brown, sophomore Sarah Bivins, and freshman Janell Pulido demonstrate teamwork during a dance performance. "Teamwork is really important. If we wouldn't have worked together the dance couldn't have been done," said Bivins. "Sarah was a really good partner. She was a lot of fun to work with," said Pulido.

"If somebody asked me why they should join dance team I would tell them because it teaches you to work with other people and it prepares you for dancing after high school."

~Claire Jarvis, 9

Scores unavailable at time of publishing

Spring sports scores will be in the Supplement.

Year 2002 marked a large change for the Lebanon Warrior sports teams. We moved into the Mid-Western league from the Valley league. Faced with new teams to play against, it gave us the opportunity to play teams we had never even paid attention to before. Some saw it as the chance for more competition, others saw the difficulty of traveling farther and the effects of having less time in class. This year, it didn't matter if you played the sport or if you just watched some of the games. The intensity surrounding Lebanon High and the pressure to win and show our new league what we are made of was well evident through out the school. No matter if we won or lost this year, we never lost our will to win.

Show me the money!

Over a trillion served, senior Josh Scott has worked at McDonalds for a little over three years. He was just recently promoted to manager. "Some of the customers get really annoying after awhile. The old people are always nice though!"

Work for the family, senior Stephanie Broyles has worked for her dad at Ace Auto Sales since she was 12. "I like working there because my dad owns it so I get paid under the table."

On the loudspeaker, senior Robin Sliker has worked at Sears for almost six months. "The security guy likes to transfer the loud speaker to the phone so when I answer the phone I'm on the loud speaker saying, "Sears tool territory. This is Robin. Hello?"

Another trillion served, junior Curtis Sly has worked at McDonalds since June 1, 2002. When asked what he likes best about working there he replied with a big smile, "I don't like working there!"

Leaders of tomorrow!

Keep it safe, senior Catherine Jeffers volunteered at the Lebanon Boys and Girls Club this summer for a program called Safety Town. "I did it because I like kids and it looked like it was going to be fun." When asked what was most memorable she said, "keeping the kids on the road."

Help the homeless, senior Chris Bradshaw helped build a house in Lebanon for Habitat for Humanity. He built it alongside teacher Eric Frazier and his building construction 1 & 2 class. "My favorite part of the experience was learning to build a house."

Volunteer to help, senior Melissa Brazeale has spent over 300 hours volunteering during her high school career. When asked what experience was most memorable she quickly replied, "my mission trip to L.A. definitely!" While there she helped out at soup kitchens, homeless shelters, and schools.

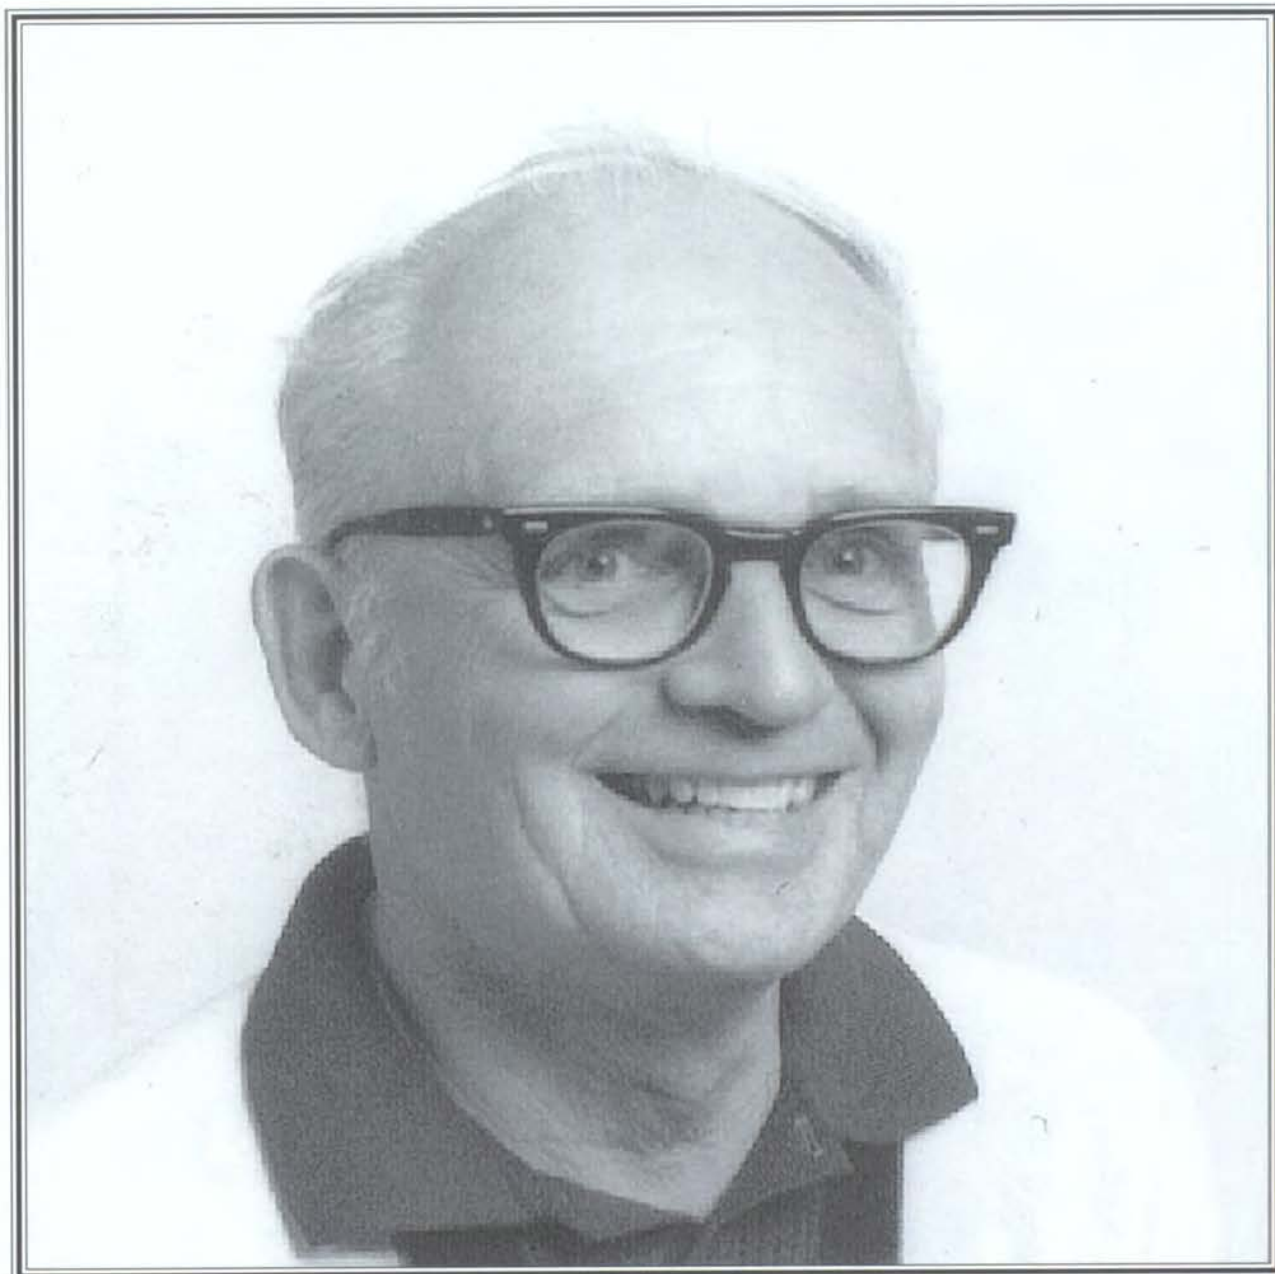

Find a way home, junior Katie Lindstrom has been a member of Search and Rescue since this past summer. As a member of the crew she helps search for evidence and people who are lost. "It's really fun to be a part of something that's making a difference!" She plans to be a member next year as well.

 HERFF JONES®

Melissa,

Without even trying, we've created a friendship based on give and take. This is my gift to you, celebrating all the things I never could have been or thought to do on my own. We get in trouble, talk too loud, keep my parents up all night and manage to con Mom into buying things without even asking. (How did we get so good?) We are the only people in this vast world that understand us.

Remember Squirrel Bob? That's him on the page! Remember how mad Mom was when we fed him all her expensive pistachios? She still tells that story... honestly, they're just nuts!!

Aim high for yourself. You have so much more to give than you think you do. Trust your instincts to lead you in the right direction. Remember, half the trouble we get into is completely against what we know we should have been doing at the time. Good luck as a Nanny, I know you can do it.

And since you always said you wanted your own corner to sign in the yearbook, here you go.

I love you, Moo Moo!!

In loving memory of Brad VanEpps

Bradly Mack VanEpps.. he thought it was cute how I called him that. I would pinch his cheeks while saying that. It was hard to reach his face, so he would bend down for me.

If I could describe Brad in two words, they would be "gentle giant." He had a heart of gold.

I remember how he didn't like kids, but he loved my nephew. Brad was always gentle with him.

Brad will always be loved and thought about. He was a great person. Everybody thought he was scary. If they knew him, they'd say how cool he was.

I loved him with all my heart, and I always will.

But, people move on, day by day. In their own way. On their own time.

Among

Among the clouds, I am the silver lining.
among the stars, I am the one who makes you think.
among the trees, I am the one who blooms.
among the conformists, I am the individual.

Among the crowd, I am the sore thumb.
among the shuffle, I am the peace.

Colophon

"Warriors Forever" is the 7th installation of the Lebanon High School yearbook. The theme was thought up by the yearbook staff. The book is 8.5" X 11" and printed by Herff Jones on 80# Bordeaux Special paper. The staff used Adobe PageMaker 6.5, Adobe Photoshop 4.0, 5.0, 5.5, and 7.0 to create the yearbook. Our headline font was Biffo, our caption text was Lydian MT, and our specialty font was Parisian. We produced a 208 page book with a 16 page supplement, making a total of 224 pages and printed 900 copies, at $45 each, or $50 after January 14.

The Warrior yearbook would like to thank Herff Jones, our representative Bill Dube, and the teachers and students who helped us make the yearbook. The Warrior Yearbook staff thanks you all. Enjoy!
