114-41855 La Campanella arr. Denis Bouriakov (PR) $19.99
 Composed as the rondo finale of Paganini's Violin Concerto No. 2, La Campanella quickly took on a life of its own, being quoted by other composers in their own works even during the composer's lifetime. The title refers to a small bell motif that recurs in the accompaniment, in dialog with the soloist. Bouriakov's transcription for flute and piano exquisitely captures the original sparkle, levity, and intensity, in a manner that is gratifying to perform and to hear. The present transcription was included on the repertoire list for the 2019 Tchaikovsky Competition.

Long beloved in its original scoring for violin and orchestra, Sarasate's Zigeunerweisen oozes with Hungarian soul and fire. Jasmine Choi's flute transcription retains all the passion and sparkle in this valuable addition to the flute repertoire. Ms. Choi performs this transcription both in her own recitals and in orchestral concerto programs.

Drapkin, Michael

494-03146 Drapkin's Book of Clarinet Calisthenics (DM) $24.00
Drapkin has assembled a set of studies selected from Langenus and Baermann for each of three purposes: a short set (~15 minutes) for those coming back from time away, who may feel somewhat out of shape; a maintenance set (about half an hour), designed to keep you in shape; and a sixty-minute set for those working toward concert-level assurance. Drapkin very well knows that a standard study regimen is essential to confident playing and recommends working through a set each and every day.

494-03147 How to Work on Clarinet Reeds (DM) $19.95
Drapkin details his step-by-step approach to creating the perfect reeds for his clarinet. The conversational text is amplified by photos that put you right in his workshop. All reed players should take the time to learn how to craft their own reeds. "Most clarinet players are slaves to whatever comes in the box, not realizing that just a few minutes of touch ups can make all of the difference," says Drapkin, as he begins his process of creating the perfect reed. He discusses reed knives, various sandpapers, and how to "finish" a reed. When all is done, he even provides a troubleshooting guide for less-than-perfect reeds. This handy tome will bring you a skill that will last a lifetime.

The Robert Russell Bennett Project of Maurice River Press addresses the unpublished works of this uniquely American treasure. A leading arranger of Broadway and popular music over a span of decades, Bennett was also the composer of a large body of classical works. The Clarinet Quartet, from a time just before American involvement in World War II, imparts a light mood, if somewhat demanding of the performers. For advanced clarinetists. Dur.: 13'50"

Composed in 2016 on commission from Joe Lulloff, Sonata is a 23-minute monument in 4 movements. The work was inspired by both the saxophone music of late composer William Albright and by Joe's particular blend of finesse and brutality accompanied by an unparalleled command of the instrument. The movements are titled, I. This Black Cat, II. Three Songs Without Words, III. Cuppa Joe, IV. Epilogue: Lacrimosa in memory of Joel Hastings.

Following the Capitol Quartet's commission and celebrated premiere of The Mechanics, Carter Pann composed this short encore piece for the Capitol Quartet as a written-out improvisation. The players of Capitol are so virtuosic and adept at quick changes of tempo, character, and range, that Pann indulged in all three of these. The meaning of Pann's subtitle "for the Insane" remains open to interpretation. For advanced performers. Dur.: 2'30" (or less)

Working directly from Grieg's original piano four-hands version of the charmingly familiar Norwegian Dances, Webster has given flutists and clarinetists another addition to the ensemble's repertoire.

Dorff, Daniel

114-41769 Serenade for Flute and Harp..... (PR) $19.99

When commissioned by the celebrated Spax Duo, Dorff's thoughts immediately went to the French medieval style that had so captured his attention in his college days. The resulting five-movement duo reflects the music of the period and includes as the fourth movement a statement of the 14th-century love song "Helas! Je voy mon cuer a fin venir" by Solage. Dorff's neo-medieval sound is full of plaintive lyricism and driving dance rhythms. Each of the five movements may be performed individually for special occasions, as well as in recital as a 16-minute suite. For advanced performers.

A true family affair, Ewazen's Quartet from the Heartland was written to celebrate the retirement of a good friend and long-time band director. The instrumentation reflects those practiced by his wife (flute) and daughters (trumpet and horn), who performed the work at a surprise party with the composer at the piano. The Quartet is an arrangement from the first movement of Ewazen's Heartland Symphony, which he describes as "lively, energetic, playful, and joyous."

ARCHIVAL WORKS and OUT-OF-PRINT MATERIALS

If you are looking for an archival or out-of-print work, please complete the photocopy license request form under the “licensing” tab on our website www.carlfischer.com

Throughout the Trade Guide are titles with the indication “CP.”

These are works available as print-on-demand, or Custom Print, editions. While Custom Print began as a service to provide one-off copies of music that had gone permanently out of print, we quickly realized that this was the perfect opportunity to bring new music to print, which would not otherwise be available!

We take great pride in the advances we’ve made in Custom Print production quality, and we work hard to ensure the shortest turn-around time possible between order and shipment. Today, our Custom Print department ships thousands of copies each year as a matter of routine.

Custom Print editions can be ordered quickly and easily through your Sales Rep, along with all of your normal print music needs.

Most Custom Print orders are shipped the same day or the following day, but if your order is time-sensitive, please be sure to communicate this to your Sales Rep at the time of the order.

A short or comparatively easy composition need not necessarily be bad music or obviously vulgar. I assume that the apprentice student, the amateur, the young professional and the proven artist all have musical good taste and want superior music to play at every stage of the development. Accordingly, this compilation of flute music in the medium-to-easy category by some of the greatest composers in the world.

Most of the works were originally written for the flute. In those pieces arranged for flute and piano I have tried to be as faithful to the composers intentions as possible. I have added a few metronome marks, a few breath marks, and put in a variety of phrasings, slurs, tongueings, dynamics, etc. to give an idea of the manner in which the piece might be played. If, however, the performer will impart a mood of his own, based on the composer's style and historical period, it will add to both the musical result and to his enjoyment of playing it. — D.P.
