The Self-Titled Debut Album

Featuring "Undone-the Sweater song,"

SWELL Free To Be...

41 Turk St., San Francisco, is the address which, until recently, Swell used as office and studio for recording its albums, editing its videos, designing its artwork and packaging, and publishing its reader-friendly fanzine Swollen. Since the release of its latest LP (which was named for that space), Swell has moved to more prestigious digs in the city's financial district, where the band has once again set up shop. Swell's centralized, artist-controlled activity prompts the obvious question: Do these guys all live together like the Monkees? Without missing a beat, the band's singer/guitarist David Freel answers, "No, it's more like the Banana Splits and we all have our own little cars."

Freel and his bandmates bassist Monte Vallier and drummer Sean Kirkpatrick deliver a sound that's so loose and unassuming you'd never think the band spends so much time twisting and pulling its songs into shape. "[The song] 'Kinda Stoned' went through a lot of mutations," says Freel, explaining the travels a Swell song makes before it winds up on record. "I find a chord progression and then everybody kinda fucks it up and then we decide which way of it being fucked up is the best way."

"Then we all change it three or four more times," Vallier interrupts.

"And then we have a board meeting, criticize each other and make a final decision," Freel explains sarcastically.

Luckily for Swell, the band has an unusual amount of creative freedom in making its records and filming the accompanying videos. That freedom lends Swell's work an untampered personality and character that's so loose it can't be defined in just a sentence or two. So it's no surprise that Swell's members don't seem fond of concrete musical and stylistic definitions, not to mention the thoughtless and often ludicrous comparisons often made by critics. In the recent issue of Swollen, the band compiled a word search comprised of 72 artists to which Swell has been compared. A curious selection of entries includes: "bad" Dream Syndicate, Suzanne Vega, Emerson, Lake & Palmer, the Dead Kennedys and Jefferson Airplane.

Freel and Vallier also find a lack of originality in the world of video. "A lot of them look like Levi's ads," notes Freel. "All the videos start to run into commercials, they all look alike." The two liked our suggestion that a non-rap artist should do a rap-like video with bouncing cars, pool parties and teeming posesses to spice things up. "Yeah," jokes Freel, "Kristin Hersh should do something like that."

Vallier notes that a cross-genre video was something they've considered. "We wanted to do one that was like a Janet Jackson video with all these people dancing to one of our songs that you can't dance to. You know, with professional dancers all doing those Jackson kinda moves with big industrial machinery turning in the background and a bunch of sweaty musclemen with grease on their bodies." While waiting for that video (don't hold your breath) and the real video for "Forget About Jesus," Swell fans can also look forward to a new single released through Sup Pop in June.

GRIFTERS Crappin' You Negative (Shangri-La, 1916 Madison Ave., Memphis, TN 38104/901-274-1916)—"Are we inventive or just cheap?" ask the Grifters in the liner notes to their third album, not only poking fun at their own DIY indie aesthetic, but also posing an interesting question to those concerned with the state of today's independent rock. Tabling that discussion for another time, we'll put the Grifters on the "inventive" side, based solely on the commanding music they fashion from the most rudimentary tools; the tunes are then put to tape at a friend's studio, or on the nearest four-track, so folks like us can enjoy them with a minimum amount of gloss and fanfare. Where so many bands depend on lo-fi recording hiss, snarl and distortion for a sense of style, the Grifters thrive on these sounds, their songs glowing brighter with personality after each mouthful. Like the disjointed blues of the Royal Trux, the album's opener "Rats," its despairing vocals and steel-wooly guitars threatening to wander off, is tenuously glued together by a blues-soaked rhythm. The blues, in fact, colors all 14 songs here, as the emotions surge and dip according to the tones of the guitar sound. Retreat from Memphis: "Holmes" and "Bronze Cast," both of which appeared as 7" singles, "Maps Of The Sun," "Black Fuel Incinerator," "Felt-Tipped Over" and "Here Comes Larry."

—Lydia Anderson

BIOHAZARD State Of The World Address (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—From its opening yell—"It's a state of the world address, motherfuckers"—to the thundering, monstrous chords of the 14 songs, Biohazard proves that it has lost none of its intensity in its move to the major-label arena, and, by refusing to back down from its established aesthetic, remains as vital as it was in its scruffiest 'we're from Brooklyn' days. Unlike other metal records of late—such as those by Pantera, Entombed—State Of The World Address's strength is in its fast rhythmic flurries, not its grinding ferocity, recalling Anthrax's pop rather than a more evil-minded band. Here, Biohazard seems as if it's just having fun, the song titles—"Down For Life," "What Makes Us Tick" and "Five Blocks To The Subway"—painting a picture of the band in its daily minutiae. It's clear that the band has benefited from its brushes with rap—its swaggering vocals, as well as its songs' lyrical content, owe a lot to Onyx, and "How It Is" actually owes a debt to Cypress Hill, whose members guest on the song. State Of The World Address's thumping crunch and stomping rhythm are infectious, and the band's melodies should introduce it to another dimension of fan. Watch out for Biohazard's upcoming mega-tour with Pantera and Sepultura.

MEKONS Retreat From Memphis (1/4 Stick, c/o Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—The Mekons' saga, now in its 17th year, is one of constant change: the breadth of musical genres they have tackled is eclipsed only by the dizzying personnel changes they've undergone and the number of record labels that have used them as a tax write-off. Indeed, the course of their career is best summed up by the title of their 1991 album, The Curse Of The Mekons.

But, somehow, the Mekons trudge on, making it possible for rock critics to avoid getting real jobs for a little while longer, and keeping their cult of devoted fans happy. By this point, the Mekons' disparate range of influences has been alchemized into a fierce brand of punk rock that is unmistakably, well, the Mekons. Aside from "Our Bad Dream," which honestly sounds like Run-D.M.C. doing "You Talk Too Much" backed up by The Fall, and a handful of other tunes (including the disturbing "Spirals Of Paranoia"), much of Retreat, like 1989's Rock 'N' Roll, relies on pretty conventional song structures, but stretches the possibilities existing within that context. With repeated listenings, Retreat From Memphis will probably reveal itself to be some kind of leftist, post-modern, ironic concept record, but once the choruses of "The Flame That Killed John Wayne" or "Insignificance" kick in, who cares?

—Steve McGuire

TSUNAMI The Heart's Tremolo (Simple Machines, 3510 N. Eighth St., Arlington VA 22201/703-276-0680) —

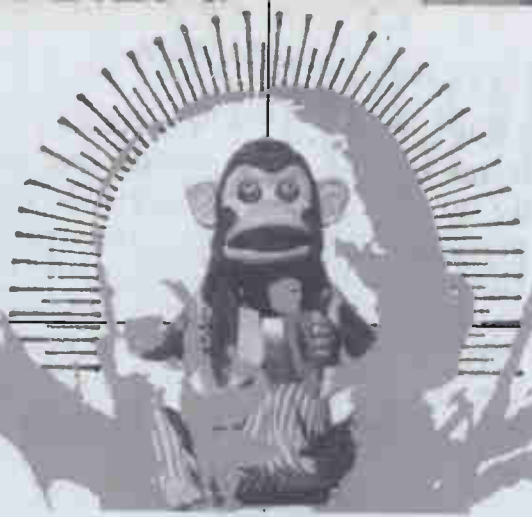

We could fill up this page discussing Tsunami's gorgeous packaging, self-run record label, side projects, etc., but the music itself is the most deserving of attention. On its sophomore effort, The Heart's Tremolo, the band has become a bit slower and quieter, creating subtle contrasts and greater depth through meticulous attention to sound and rhythm. Early comparisons to Scrawl were not entirely off-base, but don't do justice to the sophistication of Tsunami's arrangements. The music is complex, not in a virtuosic manner, but in dramatic accompaniment to the wide range of Jenny Toomey's singing. On "Loud Is As Loud Does" her soaring vocals and cynical lyrics are majestically engulfed by a guitar tidal wave, while on the striking "Kidding On The Square" the guitars chime under her melodious intoning. Rather than write occasional quiet/acoustic numbers as a change of pace, Tsunami utilizes these elements for dynamic tension. Each verse of "Cowed By

The Bla Bla" brings a different, but completely logical, instrumental texture, the song revealing itself gradually. Also making our pulse flutter: "Le Bride D'Elegance" and the tempo-shifting instrumental "Slaw," which could pass for a Slint out-take (this is not faint praise).

PRETENDERS Last Of The Independents (Sire, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Every time the Pretenders release a new record it is inevitably compared to their incredible 1980 debut—not an easy standard up to live up to. While it's true that Chrissie Hynde's recent work has often seemed less focused and confused, the Pretenders' latest, Last Of The Independents, is Hynde's best work since Learning To Crawl. Overly-slick production and arrangements occasionally overwhelm Hynde's talents as a singer and songwriter, but when Chrissie wraps her trademark vocal flutter around the '60s jangle of "All My Dreams," and ballads like "977" and "Every Mother's Son," you immediately forgive the Jim Steinman-esque chorus on "I'll Stand By You" or the lame faux funk of "I'm A Mother." And on rockers like the chart-bound single "Night In My Veins," she's back in old form, purring lines like "He's got his chest on my back, 'cross a new Cadillac/Oh yeah! It feels good" over layers of dense, ringing guitars, and the steady drumming of original member Martin Chambers. Best of the independents: those above, plus "Hollywood Perfume," "Money Talk" and the too brief "Tequila."

SOLA Blues In The East (Axiom, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/212-995-7891)—At first, on paper or in the mind, the fusing of two musical styles as far apart and radically disparate as Chinese opera and downtown New York blues-funk might seem incongruous, improbable, almost incoherent. But to Chinese-born poet, writer and performance artist Liu Sola, the two are inextricably linked. Sola detects shared themes in the two genres, and has created a broad work that connects the points of similarity between the two; aided by producer/bassist Bill Laswell, the result is Blues In The East, a dramatic and stunning work. A skillful army of downtown funk and blues musicians provides most of the instrumental backdrop as these two parables unfold ("Married To Exile" and the longer "The Broken Zither"), including players such as James Blood Ulmer, Henry Threadgill, Jerome Brailey and Amina Claudine Meyers, along with spoken raps from Last Poet Umar Bin Hassan. Of particular note are Fernando Saunders' basslines, which add a fluid, glue-like quality that eases the transitions between the genres. It's only logical that Laswell would be drawn to the drama and intensity of Chinese opera and the authenticity of traditional Chinese musical forms, and it's equally natural that he would be interested in Sola's bold attempt to twist and transmogrify them into strange new forms, bringing both into the future.

—James Lien

VIOLENT FEMMES New Times (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—It's been exactly three years since the Violent Femmes released their last LP Why Do Birds Sing?, and New Times demands new things. First, the Femmes have a new label after nearly a decade on Slash. Secondly, and more obviously, the trio has found many new sounds to complement the dominant acoustic guitar and snare drum that powered the band's first five albums. Everything from accordion, violins, cheesy organ and keyboards, as well as experiments with electronics (the apocalyptic "Machines") and vocals ("Agamemnon"), give New Times a decidedly different feel and message than previous albums, perhaps to shake the frat-house tag the Femmes have enjoyed since the massive success of their 1983 debut (their sense of desperation and intensity lent itself perfectly to the college audience). The mood is still intense, religious and self-deprecating and Gordon Gano's voice remains distinctive on the album's acoustic-based moments ("I Saw You In The Crowd," "Don't Start Me On The Liquor" and the title track), but songs like the Eastern European-influenced "Mirror Mirror (I See A Damsel)," the dark, bluesy first single "Breakin' Up" and "Jesus Of Rio" throw the kitchen sink into the mix, making New Times by far the most adventurous and organic Violent Femmes outing to date.

JOHN GORKA Out Of The Valley (High Street, P.O. lived-in tales. Out Of The Valley, his fifth LP, slips some gospel and bright-tempo rock into the mix for those only familiar with Gorka as a mellow folk journeyman. Early on, he made his mark as a master of the heartbreaking ballad, but changes in personal circumstances have enabled Gorka to write with more confidence and depth on a broader range of emotional subjects, leading to songs of unabashed joy, rock-bottom gloom and the irony between those poles of feeling. Gorka's rich characterizations are still his strong suit; his sneaky humor and ability to avoid cliché knows few equals when it comes to painting song portraits. Cue up: "Thoughtless Behavior," "Carnival Knowledge (Secondhand Face)," about a circus clown, "Always Going Home," about the friend we all have who keeps finding trouble, and "Flying Red Horse," a startling allegory about a horse breaking free from the Mobil gas station sign. —Steve Ciabattini

BAILER SPACE Bortura (Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)—The first thing you notice about Bailer Space is the guitars. There are loads and loads of multi-textured guitars layered atop one another like petulant nursery school children crowded onto a small playmat at naptime. Only none of them is sleeping. They're whispering, whining, giggling, gurgling, yelping, screaming and howling. Most are so weary they can hardly keep their eyes open, but they don't dare drift to sleep lest the sandman take them away forever. The second thing you notice about Bortura is the eerie, majestic melodies that seep through the songs, turning torrents of noise into beautifully hypnotic creations. While some of Bailer Space's older material stomped loudly in place, droning and drawing incessantly, newer numbers like "X" and "No2" amble swiftly along, leaving catchy trails in their wake. Whether dealing with mechanically-embellished constructions or trance-inducing soundscapes, the band inflicts melody with menace. Like Hair And Skin Trading Co. and even Straitjacket Fits, Bailer Space uses fear as an instrument, weaving spine-tingling atmospheres into every musical passage. "Shadow" rings and buzzes with shuddering intensity, layering softly-moaned vocals under a maelstrom of guitars, while "Galaxy" is more restrained, mixing rumbling distortion and lolling bass into a slow-motion nightmare of sound. Scream on. —Jon Wiederhorn

WEEZER Weezer (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—The eponymous debut from Los Angeles-based Weezer is an interesting hybrid of punkish revelry and melodic invention.

Imagine if Kansas had thrown some distortion-garbled guitar strummings on "Dust In The Wind" and you'll get an idea of the band's combination of driving intensity and bright acoustic highlighting. Weezer also offers an ample supply of heavier creations, where grooving Knack-ish tracks like "Say It Ain't So" reveal a harder, yet no less infectious, edge. Ric Ocasek's production thankfully falls short of the smooth and shiny buffing job featured on the Cars' poppy sound, although similarly taut harmonies still make regular appearances. Weezer's sense of humor is always a standout theme; on the marvelously inane "Undone—The Sweater Song," the band makes the lyric "If you want to destroy my sweater/Pull this thread as I walk away" into an overblown sing-along chorus that slowly dissolves into a trippy reverberation of hammered piano and wavering, bubbly guitar melodies. Breathe deeply for "My Name Is Jonas" and "In The Garage."

SAN FRANCISCO SEALS Nowhere (Matador, address above)—When Barbara Manning starts her new band's album out with the lines "Back again, back again, hello my friends, you're back again" ("Back Again"), it's as if she's welcoming her fans/friends back into their world after too long an absence. Manning's one previous CD (containing an album and an EP), along with numerous singles and other projects, won her a loyal following, largely on account of her lovely, honest voice, delicately crafted songs and choice cover versions.

Nowhere is the first album she's made with her band SF Seals, after the Baseball Trilogy single, and it's a welcome return. The loosely-knit 10-song set features some real highs, mostly concerning one of life's heavy lows—heartbreak. "8's," "Still?" and "Day 12" forsake sappy, weepy-heart stuff for the real wrenching pain of life, although the tunes' jaunty melodies almost make you forget. As usual, Manning's cover versions run the gamut, from '60s pebbledom (Faine Jade's "Don't Underestimate Me") and art folk (the Holy Modal Rounders' "Janine's Dream," sung by Manning's sister Teri) to airy New Zealand pop (Goblin Mix's "Winter Song") and bona fide power pop (Badfinger's "Baby Blue"). "Demons On The Corner," a pastiche of incidental noise, stands out from the pack as more experimental and less restricted to a song format.

—Lydia Anderson

BIVOUAC Tuber (Engine, P.O. Box 1575, Stuyvesant Sta., New York, NY 10009/212-505-6929)—British trio Bivouac is a somewhat carefree extension of American indie-rock in that its reliance on heavy, guitar-soaked melody and easy flowing honesty is similarly heartfelt, ragged and impassioned. But Bivouac manages to create a much larger rock presence, one with an unpretentious depth and rock-solid kick, accessible to more than just genre specific audiences. Tuber, Bivouac's debut, reveals a group of serious guitar-hugging songsmiths, reverently embracing the groundwork laid by the straight ahead, aggressive, "alternarock" of Hüsker Dü and Buffalo Tom, but pulling it off with an atypically smart and agile strength. In the hands of many lesser bands of this bent, Bivouac's sound could become agonizingly boring or unimaginative, but the trio instills Tuber with enough vibrant melodies and generously placed emotional muscle to it a surprisingly warm and vigorous rock record. Tubular: the spirited ring of "Good Day Song," the acoustic tenderness of "Deadend Friend," the shimmering melodic textures of "Dragging Your Weight Around" and the gear-shifting bristle of "Rue."

—Colin Helms

JACK O'FIRE The Destruction Of Squaresville (Estrus, P.O. Box 2125, Bellingham, WA 98227/206-647-1187)—Jack O'Fire, like the

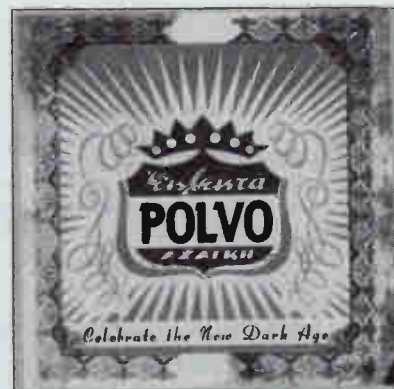

Jon Spencer Blues Explosion, is one of the few remaining hopes dragging the blues into the punk-rock '90s. Unlike the Blues Explosion, though, Jack O'Fire draws its repertoire from the blues masters of the past: performers like Howlin' Wolf, Blind Willie McTell, Little Walter, Negative Approach and Joy Division. If the last two names seem out of place to you, they don't to the band: "Can't Tell No One" and "No Love Lost" both make for awesome low-down electric blues, it turns out, and the band integrates them into the tradition with sweat, chicken grease and no hint of a smirk. Singer Walter Daniels plays a ferocious Delta harp and has the "distort" knob on his microphone turned all the way up, and guitarist Tim Kerr (formerly of the Big Boys—not the one from the label) has his bottleneck-slide mojo working overtime. This collection of previously released vinyl records also finds the band taking on hot-rod tunes by the Sonics (the inevitable "Boss Hoss") and Chuck Berry ("Slow Down Little Jaguar"), and a couple of songs by the Small Faces and the Pretty Things, who, after all, had a similar idea 30 years ago.

MANIPULATION OF THE MASSES.

Rosa and Sonic Youth's Daydream Nation were the only two records on earth, every band would sound like Polvo—especially if everybody listened to the albums on a worn-out record player that couldn't maintain a constant speed. One of the strangest, most exciting graduates from the Chapel Hill music scene, Polvo plays warped rhythms and strange musical interludes on de-tuned guitars, paying homage to its mentors, as well as a bevy of more obscure influences ranging from karate film soundtracks to merry-go-round melodies. Often these disparate musical strands tangle and intertwine within the same rhythm so that the music takes on its own chaotic logic. On many songs from Celebrate The New Dark Age, it sounds like Polvo is playing three or more different melodies simultaneously, causing the music to shudder and buckle under its own weight, bending, but never breaking. That, by far, is the key to Polvo's genius: for all of the band's experimentation, songs like "Fractured (Like Chandeliers)," "City Spirits" and "The Solitary Set" are surprisingly catchy, and despite (or maybe because of) the seemingly random musical juxtapositions, the material holds together seamlessly.

CANDY MACHINE A Modest Proposal (Skenel, P.O. Box 4522, St. Paul, MN 55104/612-645-6361)—Baltimore, MD's Candy Machine had no trouble elating the ears of many a critic with its self-titled debut last year and should have even less difficulty this time out. Like its predecessor, A Modest Proposal presents a propulsive, angular noise and dark tension, drawing points of reference from the likes of Big Black and The Fall. Vocalist Peter Quinn leads the band's dense, sonic tangle like a demented preacher, ranting about God-knows-what with agonized shouts and disjointed lyrical playfulness. Accessing a sizable palette of wiry guitar textures and wriggling bass grooves, Candy Machine wields a sinister element that comes across in almost schizophrenic patterns, writhing and churning with inventive strength. The cool bass strokes and shuffling percussion of "The Over Under Rule In Progress" form an eerie tension until Quinn's explosive ramblings jilt the song into a flurry of rhythmic twists and churns; the gut-punching skronk of "Rotodome" marches with unnerving persistence; and the tight rhythmic snap and thorny guitar path of "Autorepublic" jabs and circles like a certified obsessive/compulsive.

SUPERSTAR Superstar (Creation, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, 42nd Fl., New York, NY 10104)—The two dominating factors in Superstar's music—the wisful vocals and thick strummed guitar—make it sound as if the band was dropped in through a time warp from the late '60s, its influences the ringing guitar and folk-pop sensibilities of the Byrds mixed with the psychedelic British explosion. This arrogantly-named band produces catchy pop melodies which straddle the line between wimpy and pretentious, making its closest current comparison the pop adoration of Teenage Fanclub (with whom it shares a British label). When the band clicks—as it does on "Barfly," "I Can't Help It" and "Could It Be You"—its mix of melody and glistening guitar shards is perfect, creating a moment of affecting pop. Lead singer, writer and producer Joe McAllinden writes bittersweet lyrics of love and loss, singing them in a pained poetic style befitting their mood. The quieter songs sound as if they were dipped in a strong bath of Aztec Camera, the silky melodies and high vocals a touchstone of British pop. Superstar has the sound and style of many of the Creation bands, but adds a softer pop dimension that removes the edge of noise.

PIGFACE Notes From Thee Underground (Invisible, P.O. Box 16008, Chicago, IL 60616/312-808-0222)—"Fuck TV, the military, Mickey Mouse, the White House, Styrofoam, the media, laundry, every person that fucks a person in a band..." If diversity is what you crave, then hop onto Pigface's newest techno-bash wave. Previous releases of this melting-pot band have been limited to the industrial scene. Drummer Martin Atkins' newest project, however, combines danceable punk with throbbing pumps and grinds along with various moods in between. This time, Atkins also produces the album and strikes a head-on bullseye. The collage of talents this time around includes Genesis P-Orridge, Flea, Jello Biafra, Shonen Knife, Ogre and Alex Paterson, just to name a few. Spoon feed yourself and open wide to "Asphole," "Chikasaw," "Your Music is Garbage" and "Slut/Blood/Pain."

VARIOUS ARTISTS An Invitation To Suicide (Munster, P.O. Box 18107, Madrid 28080, Spain)—Suicide is so easily recalled as a vision out of mid-'70s Manhattan's orgiastic free art past that it is startling to think that the duo of Martin Rev and Alan Vega had been performing for six years before the group's first eponymous record was made. Can you imagine the effect of Rev's primitive keyboard minimalism and Vega's unhinged rockabilly rants and audience effrontery on post-hippie, pre-punk club crowds? No wonder the band called itself Suicide. This is why putting together a tribute to Suicide is a such a heady task; it's almost impossible to make the songs work out of that context or with traditional guitar/bass/drums instrumentation. What a pleasant surprise then that three of Your Invitation To Suicide's best tracks are courtesy of virtual rock luddites like Mudhoney, Ben Vaughn and the Goriest. Vega's rockabilly whoops and fondness for slapback echo play perfectly into the Goriest's garage hillbilly stomp, and Mudhoney actually does the best job of approximating the marriage between Rev's audience-dispersing drone and Vega's intensely romantic wails. To die for: Thin White Rope's "Rocket USA" and "Bring On The Year 2000" by Zenith, which features members of Mercury Rev and John Ashton of the Psychedelic Furs and is produced by longtime Suicide producer and supporter Ric Ocasek. —Scott Frampton

CHERUBS Heroin Man (Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin, TX 78765/512-454-3266)—The swansong of this Austin trio, Heroin Man finds the Cherubs just inches away from where they were when Icing came out a year and a half ago; two 7"s and several bit parts on compilations have merely shown the band is set on its chosen path. The Cherubs' overbearing obnoxious style is apparent from the first note of the first song—a sample of the pulse tone you hear when the phone is off the hook runs incessantly through the entire song, making the listener check the receiver every few seconds. Whatever annoying sounds the band creates out of samples make up for the decrease in the usual unrelenting offensively high-pitched vocals. It takes Heroin Man a bit longer than usual to reach its peak, but around "Baby Huey" and "Dave The Moon" the rhythms fall into place and glide back and forth on a punk rock groove. Like a heroin addict who dies too young, the Cherubs' final record seems both a brilliant ending and a terrible shame. Try the Ween-ish "Playdough" or the typically Cherubic "Coonass". —Dawn Sutter

ROBIN TROWER 20th Century Blues (V-12, 7095 Hollywood Blvd. #757, Hollywood, CA 90028)—Though lesser known than Eric Clapton, Jeff Beck and the late Stevie Ray Vaughan, Robin Trower has long been one of the most passionate blues-influenced rock guitarists, from his days as a member of Procol Harum and strong solo albums from the '70s, the most notable of which was Bridge Of Sighs. 20th Century Blues, his new album, was intended to be a collection of blues standards, but Trower found that ground too worn for his liking and instead composed new tunes of similar fire and fury. What makes 20th Century Blues a welcome return from a rock veteran is its approach—three musicians and three instruments with no gloss or studio fuss. The tracks, like most good blues, are of simple structure and content, yet Trower, drummer Mayuyu and bassist/vocalist Livingstone Brown find the power hidden within the confines of the genre. Trower's playing is both spacious and blistering, teetering between the spaced-out blues of Jimi Hendrix and the quick-draw delivery of SRV. How they did a Hendrix tribute without him is a mystery. Turn up: "Prisoner Of Love," "Whisper Up A Storm," "Don't Lose Faith In Tomorrow" and the title track. —Steve Ciabattini

ERASURE I Say I Say I Say (Mute, c/o Elektra, address above)—Trifles, trifles light as air, cotton candy and helium balloons, that's all Erasure wants to make, and its expertise at making weightless pop music is unrivaled. On I Say..., Vince Clarke's synthesizers lilt, whisper and twinkle masterfully around Andy Bell's effortless vocal gymnastics (Bell even hits some low notes on "So The Story Goes," which is a first). The opening "Take Me Back" is about hope seen from a position of hopelessness, and its undertones of bitterness are underscored by a swelling pedal-point, but Bell's fluttering contrapuntal vocals and Clarke's high-end synth motifs make it sound joyful. After eight years and hit after hit, Erasure remains refreshingly unaffected by musical fashions. Although Clarke's work with synth textures and sequencers anticipated techno, I Say... rejects techno's anti-pop ethic: Lushness, romanticism and songcraft trump trance-induction with Erasure every time. And it still sounds great on a dancefloor. Also handsomely devilish: "Always," "Blues Away," "I Love Saturday" and the closing ballad "Because You're So Sweet."

CRAYON Brick Factory (Harriet, P.O. Box 649, Cambridge, MA 02238/617-666-4007)—Crayon has been together since 1990, releasing three swell singles seemingly a zillion compilation tracks and a dozen issues of its own fanzine, Thrill! before releasing Brick Factory, its first full-length album. Although Crayon hails from the lesser-known Washington waterfront city of Bellingham, two of its three members have lived in Olympia and Seattle, and to a blurb writer's delight, the trio conveniently has some stylistic ties to both cities' well-known scenes. Singers Sean Tollefson and Brad Roberts both have idiosyncratic (and perhaps a wee bit annoying) nasal voices, and both write playful lyrics that tread the fine line between child-like and childish (references to algebra, pedaling bicycles and "Chutes And Ladders"), but before you kick sand in their faces, be sure to consider their music. With some heavy guitar distortion/feedback and a fat bass-drum sound they can indeed rock (for punk rock exuberance start with "Small"). Wobbly, off-key vocals on "The Snap-Tight Wars" give it a whole-hearted charm. The relaxed, hooky "Western Flyer" with a simple chorus of "ride away, ride away, ride away, ride away" is wimp-rock at its finest, and you're never too old to smile at a track called "Snow Globe."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

East River Pipe Ah Dictaphone

EAST RIVER PIPE "Ah Dictaphone" (7") (Hell Gate, P.O. Box 6053, Astoria, NY 11106/718-626-1654)—Low-key Queens resident F.M. Cornog is back with his latest in a stream of home-produced singles (look for ERP's debut LP, Shining Hours In A Can, this summer on Ajax). Like the Magnetic Fields' Stephin Merritt, Cornog squeezes an eerily real post-modern loneliness into the prettiest of pop capsules, but with more of a rainy-day, guitar-strummy Sarah Records aesthetic. The muted, swooning chorus of "Ah Dictaphone" almost mocks the tune's more upbeat, '60s jangle cousins, while a wispy, almost Mazzy Star-like breeze sweeps through "I've Got To Hide My Life Away From You."
—Lydia Anderson

CHAKA DEMUS & PLIERS "Twist And Shout" (12") (Mango, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—Think about it: Shaggy's smash hit "Oh Carolina" showed that in the dancehall, old school flavor was coming back in style well before Run-D.M.C. and the Treacherous 3 engineered comebacks in the States, proving yet again that hip-hop innovation usually works its way to Brooklyn and the rest of the country via its ever-present underlying roots in Kingston. Now, the dynamite duo of Chaka Demus & Pliers returns with "Twist And Shout," given a bouncy, Jack Radics/Taxi Gang treatment courtesy of some scratchy old-school ska samples and an incomparable Sly & Robbie riddim track. This single, along with "Gal Wine," will be grafted onto future pressings of last year's outstanding All She Wrote CD, and those seeking the perfect kick-off tune for this summer's beach tape need look no further.

—James Lien

FLYING SAUCER ATTACK "Crystal Shade" (Flying Saucer Attack, 407 Fishponds Road, Bristol, U.K.)—If dream pop is the music that you hear when you're dreaming, then Flying Saucer Attack is the style's king. The band's sound seems to come less from its instruments than from the inside of your head, with elements emerging from its ravenous, encircling whoosh like dawn-light around the edges of a velvet curtain. "Crystal Shade" is FSA's strongest moment to date, its murmured, echoing melody quilted by multi-layered pink noise. "Distance," on the B-side, is an abstract two-tone sound-painting with a similarly weird but striking mix.
—Douglas Walk

EXTRA GLENN'S Infidelity (7") (Harriet, P.O. Box 649, Cambridge, MA 02238/617-666-4007)—We stumbled upon and fell in love with the Extra Glenns' cryptic, but infectious "Badger Song," on the Shrimper cassette sampler Hi Fly Graveyard, and they've now returned with their first single. Low fidelity princes Glenn D (John Darnielle of Mountain Goats) and Glenn B (Franklin Bruno of Nothing Painted Blue) are both wordy and peculiar lyricists, always reliable for writing twisted lines with clever rhymes. "Going To Lubbock" is representative of their craft: tuneful melody, folksy strumming and bizarre lyrics about "digging up a human skull that was bigger than a basket ball." The superior B-side, "Malevolent Cityscape X," stands out with the addition of backward electric guitar and the odd effect of unison singing from two eccentric vocal styles.
—David Newgarden

BALLOON GUY "Incidentally" (7") (Generator, 726 Jefferson NE, 2nd Fl., Minneapolis, MN 55413/612-379-7651)—After the drone supreme debut 7" "Drug Testing In The Work Place" comes Minneapolis trio Balloon Guy's second vinyl waxing, "Incidentally," which still grinds like a power drill on a Flour-like groove, but with a somewhat more dynamic range. Despite the relentless abrasion of the guitars, the vocals and the song's overall direction are surprisingly tuneful. Things slow down on the flip, "Dapper," the vocals stepping aside for the song's loping, mood-setting rhythm peppered by heavily tremoloed guitars.
—Lydia Anderson

GOD IS MY CO-PILOT This Is No Time To Be Frail (7" EP) (Rough Trade Singles Club, 66 Golborne Road, London W10 5PS, U.K./081-960-9888)—Here are four fresh cuts from the band that has redefined the word prolific. One thing that makes each new GodCo release interesting is the band's revolving door policy on downtown NYC guest artists. Fred Lonberg-Holm (Styrenes) adds smooches to "Kiss & Tell" with his buzzsaw cello. Anthony Coleman contributes unidentifiable sampler blurts to "Childhood Dreams Of Abduction And Mutilation," which starts off sounding remarkably like Bow Wow Wow with yelping and reverbed "jungle" drums but quickly transforms into something more reminiscent of Lydia Lunch's Teenage Jesus. The normally exciting GodCo rapid-fire two-drummer battery is upped to three on the frenetic "Thank You, Just Thank You."
—David Newgarden

PEST "Philosophically Dyslexic" (7") (Harriet, address above)—This mixed-gender Montreal quintet features Raincoats-y violin, playfully sarcastic harmonies and witty, breezy lyrics. "Philosophically Dyslexic" is a sweet-tempered midtempo kiss-off loaded with four-syllable words and eight-cylinder hooks. The songs on the B-side are shorter and lighter-weight: "Kitchen Sink" is homegrown love-rock with a Cub-like melody (must be something indigenous to Canada) and the sing-song chant of "Blister" is accompanied by a sleet-storm of clattering, bonking percussion.

VARIOUS ARTISTS L.A.'S New Alternative (Smart, P.O. Box 48914 #390, Los Angeles, CA 90048)—Every so often, a compilation comes along that sums up a scene neatly, takes a handful of bands that might not even know one another and pulls them together, rendering their diversity in a cogent, meaningful fashion. It's not that all the bands sound alike or have lots in common, but taken as a whole, the collection offers a really good feel for the music that's going on in a particular place at a particular time. Examples from the past that come to mind are Throbbing Lobster albums like Claws! from early '80s Boston or the Scream compilation from mid-'80s Los Angeles. Like Scream, this 10-band comp spotlights some of the city's more interesting bands, apart from the glitzy, overhyped goth and bar-metal circuits. Still, it is L.A., after all, and predictably enough every band here is more or less on its way to being something else. While quite a few (such as Sunhouse and Silver Jet) might evolve into big rock stars with long limos, others like Coat and BigElf seem to be seeking out their own vision and niche through their music. The real steal here is BigElf, whose "I The Jury" nearly outdoes Vaganza and Urge Overkill at their own game; the tune co-opts '70s influences with its swirling Deep Purple organ solos, its drum fills that seem to have Bun E. Carlos' signature on them and its guitars that spill out of crunchy Orange amplifiers, and the band even tosses in a string quartet in the middle section. Other moments of note include Sunhouse (clever name; the band could call its debut album Death Letter), Coat's "Squirrel" (rewriting Pere Ubu's "Final Solution") and Marc Danzeisen, who pulls off pretty tasteful Lenny Kravitz/Plastic Ono band moves on "One Push To Freedom."

—James Lien

A promising demo tape from SUNHEAD (c/o Marlborough Farms, 292 Marlborough Road, First Fl., Brooklyn, NY 11226/718-282-4563) comes out of the Ride school of British pomo-psych (the group's tunes generally combine a lazy Manchester style drum beat, swirling guitars and a bright candy-coating of Farfisa organ), but a grab-bag of well-played instruments (trumpet, harmonica and a variety of percussion) gives the band personality and a more memorable sound. Occasionally the extra instruments are superfluous in overblown arrangements resulting in a sound like a marching band that took a wrong turn and wandered into the studio, but when used sparingly they are very effective. On "Blaze," a ringing glockenspiel (orchestra bells) cuts through guitars like shiny pennies at the bottom of a pond. "Solar" is a relaxed drug-trip la "Blue Jay Way," and the wonderfully ethereal "Song For Vocoder & Trumpet" features otherworldly singing that is only slightly marred by a cliched guitar coda that reminds us that we're still on earth listening to a rock band.

JACKPOT!

RAY CHARLES Blues + Jazz (Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778) [cat. no. 71607]—Everyone knows that Ray Charles defines soul music, but did Ray Charles invent it altogether? Well, before he was on the scene, popular music sure didn't swing as hard, it didn't have as much of the call-and-response between lead and background singers, and if you wanted to hear such joyous shouting and spirited playing that moved an audience so immensely, you had to go to church to find it. Ray Charles simply took all those elements, which had been around for years but never crossed such secular/spiritual lines, and put them in a piano/vocal rhythm and blues format. Then he put them in country music. Then he put them into children's songs. Then he put them into easy-listening. Then he put them into Pepsi commercials. Even if you don't like the last two, you have to admit it's pretty amazing. These are monumental inventions, gargantuan changes in the way music moved and was played and listened to, the kind of innovations that only come along once or twice a century, and Ray was the vehicle for so many of them. And as this reissue proves, even if he wasn't the only one, he was certainly the best. There's a reason why Modern Sounds In Country And Western sold a bejillion copies and made Charles the most recognized soul singer of all time: because Ray Charles could wrap himself around a song—any song—and make it a tremendous statement of meaning and soul.

This set, the first re-exploration of Charles' tenure at Atlantic Records since the awe-inspiring box set of his singles a few years ago, pairs some of his early, bluesier tracks with some of the more jazz-tinged explorations of his sessions for the label. It's an ambitious mating that further underscores the popular tag of Charles as "The Genius Of Soul" as more than just hitmaking hype cooked up by a record-company promotions team. As the first disc progresses, Charles moves further and further away from his early Guitar Slim/Percy Mayfield roots ("Feelin' Sad" is a Slim cover, while Percy co-wrote "Two Years Of Torture"), forging his own groundbreaking musical style. The second disc explores some more instrumentally-oriented Charles numbers, from sensitive piano trios to complex, jumping, horn-drenched hard bop sides. Of course it's all pretty amazing, even 40 years down the pike.

As an interesting aside from the music, this double-CD set, with its 34-page booklet, shows that in the hip '50s, Charles was also one of the most indisputably photogenic stars in all of music history—pretty amazing for a guy who couldn't even see himself in the mirror every morning. One has to wonder when looking at the photos here (and likewise, the remarkable photos from the Chess files that accompanied the two recent box sets on Howlin' Wolf and Muddy Waters) why over the years the packaging and photography on reissues in general has too often been so paltry and by-the-numbers. Now that reissues are seen as more than just budget items or quickie "Best Of"s, we're seeing some awesome design and packaging moves that actually seek to do the music justice.

So here we are in the '90s, nearly 40 years on from these early Atlantic recordings that put Ray on the map. The fact that Pepsico recently dropped brother Ray as spokesperson and replaced him with Cindy Crawford and Rodney Dangerfield only underscores that the '90s are in serious trouble as far as the hipness factor and coolness-of-life levels are concerned. Now if only Ray would take a tip from Johnny Cash, Bob Dylan, Neil Young, Charlie Rich and Little Jimmy Scott and make a fine 'n' mellow album of warm, intimate, acoustic music like he did in the old days...wow! What an Unplugged that would make. But until that time, there's always Blues + Jazz to groove to. Dig it... —James Lien

FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD Bangl... The Greatest Hits Of Frankie Goes To Hollywood (ZTT, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) [cat. no. 82587]—Frankie Goes To Hollywood was an anomaly. It was a rock band that was hugely influenced by earlier gay disco and had a huge influence on later electronic dance music; a "studio creation" with a blistering live reputation; a band that was embraced by teenyboppers everywhere, with an image built on eye-popping homoeroticism; a band with an immense and convoluted discography that, when you got right down to it, only contained two albums and seven singles. Instead of delving into the zillions of sought-after Frankie remixes and rarities out there, though, Bangl... mostly just culls the good stuff from Welcome To The Pleasuredome and its underrated follow-up Liverpool, appending a new Adamski remix of "Two Tribes" (which demonstrates the way that Mark O'Toole's jittering bassline on that song pointed towards today's techno) and the American 12" version of "Relax." Almost 10 years on, these songs still sound groundbreaking, mostly thanks to Trevor Horn and his disciple Steve Lipson's way-over-the-top production. "Relax," originally conceived of as an experimental, non-commercial dance single (!), is driven by a massive single-note pulse that house records echoed for years, and not one of these tracks lets three seconds go by without some kind of musical event. If you haven't heard this stuff in years, it holds up amazingly well; if you've never heard it before, discover the joys of excess. —Douglas Walk

ROBERT FRIPP/BRIAN ENO The Essential Fripp And Eno (Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929) [cat. no. 1886]—In heady mid-'70s art rock, there were probably no two greater titans than Brian Eno and Robert Fripp, so when the two sat down to meld minds and make music together, you knew the results would be intense. Culled from two mid-'70s collaborative albums, The Essential Fripp And Eno is illuminating listening when heard fresh today, especially with the addition of four heretofore unreleased tracks from an aborted third LP. See, it's like this: these previously-unreleased Fripp and Eno tracks from circa '75 ("Healthy Colours," parts IV) are the missing link between Talking Heads' Fear Of Music (which Eno produced) and the reformed, revamped King Crimson, forming a touchstone for almost all of the art-pop of the '80s—My Life In The Bush Of Ghosts, Talking Heads, Negativland, U2, etc. All that's missing is the rhythm section. (David Byrne, always a bit of a Leonard Zelig character musically, appears to have assimilated much of Eno's thinking from the collaboration on Bush Of Ghosts. But to his credit, on that album he also helped to bring Eno back from ambient and noodley piano into something with more of a backbone.) Of course, it's a delightful reminder of how pretentious and genuinely ridiculous the '70s could be (nowadays nobody jerry-rigging a couple of tape recorders would have the nerve to give the process its own silly name like "Frippertronics"). But spruced up and remastered for the digital era, it's quite a wild ride: these two albums make up a musical genre unto themselves. Leave it to Bob Fripp and Brian Eno to make music this utilitarian and functional, music with nearly unlimited uses and adaptations. For instance, one person we know listened to this disc while watching the recent solar eclipse. Our suggestions for future usage: on a Discman or Walkman, at top volume, stand on the rooftop of a very tall building as the sun sets; force yourself to watch a fish tank for the entire duration of "The Heavenly Music Corporation"; leave all 18 minutes of "Swastika Girls" on a friend's answering machine—the possibilities are virtually endless. —James Lien

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). NEW indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

Reporting to CMJ New Music Report

WHEN TO REPORT

Reports are taken weekly as follows:

- By FAX at (516) 466-7159 or (516) 466-7161 until 10 PM Eastern Time on Mondays.
 - By PHONE at (516) 466-7111 from Noon until 6 PM Eastern Time Monday and Tuesday.
- It is strongly suggested you call early.

WHAT TO REPORT

If you FAX us, please include the station's call letters, music director's name, city, state and a phone number at the top of the report. Include the Artist, Title and Label of all records reported.

If you PHONE us, please be prepared with an Artist's record, Title and Label, and have the following information ready:

1) TOP 35 RECORDS (mandatory—no fewer than 35 accepted)

In airplay order (#1 is most played, etc.) only. Records alphabetized within rotation categories (i.e. heavy, medium, light) is not suggested. The playlist reported should accurately reflect the entire radio station's programming—not one particular program—and should include ALL TYPES OF MUSIC presented (not necessarily rock only) and ALL FORMATS represented (albums, EPs, 7" and 12" singles, imports, tapes, etc.). We want an accurate list of what current releases have been played on your station for the week—either a direct count or a reflection of rotation. The CMJ Radio Top 150 is album-oriented, so if you must report album tracks, be careful NOT to report more than one track from the same album.

2) ADVENTURE PICKS (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 3 subjective selections of new personal favorites. These have no correlation with station airplay, and do not necessarily represent projected adds.

3) TOP CUTS (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most played tracks, be they album cuts or singles. Mention the artist's name first when reporting. For an album track, know what album it's taken from.

4) TOP AUDIENCE RESPONSE (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most requested artists with current releases and/or positive feedback on such releases being programmed.

Please call us if you have any questions!

CHART FOCUS

Johnny Cash

What more can you say about an artist who has been making essential music for four decades, who has stayed true to his ideals and who has not given into the pressures of the music industry? Johnny Cash, the man as recognized for his choice of clothing color (black) as for his low baritone, brings us a baker's dozen worth of tracks on American Recordings, showing him to be as vital today as any peak in his past. Recorded on a two-track, American Recordings is a stark, captivating and personal effort, one with which programmers are having no trouble. In its second week on the chart, the full-length jumps 41-21 (#4 in the West). Of the 403 top 35 reports this week, 76 are charting the album, led by top 5 reports from CJSF (#1), KAOS (WA), KCMU (#1), KFSR, KPCC, KTEK (#1), KTOO, KUSF (#1), KXLU (#1), WCBN, WEVL, WFHB, WHIM, WHRV, WRFL, WSOE and WXDU.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

For the third week in a row, DGC's Hole retains the title of #1, followed by Interscope-Atlantic's The Crow soundtrack, which makes a surprising leap (17-2). As Reprise's Green Day (6-4) and A&M's Soundgarden (8-6) gain two positions each, DGC's Sonic Youth blasts onto the chart, making its first appearance at #5. American's country artist Johnny Cash sweeps into the top 10 (21-10).

New on the stands this week: Go! Discs/London-PLG's Paul Weller (#22), Virgin's Traffic (#25), Epic's Allman Brothers (#26) and Basia (#34), and Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys (#44). Ryko's re-issues of Elvis Costello's Get Happy! and Trust make a first appearance (#46), as well as a solo effort by Mick Ronson (#63) on Epic, and Medicine-WB's soundtrack to Dazed And Confused (#73) which was recently released on video.

Taking opportunities to make waves: Nothing/TVT-Interscope's Nine Inch Nails (15-13), Arista's Crash Test Dummies (20-16), London-PLG's Meat Puppets (26-20), Atlantic's Collective Soul (50-31), Maverick/Sire-WB's Candlebox (42-32), Simple Machine's Tsunami (71-48) and 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go's Bad Livers (74-67). Quite a few records of the past return to the chart this week: Rykodisc's Morphine (#57), Elektra's Afghan Whigs (#65), Kill Rock Stars' Unwound (#69), and Matador's Liz Phair (#70). RETAIL FOCUS

SONIC YOUTH

A year after its last album, punk rock legend Sonic Youth returns to the scene with its latest, Experimental Jet Set, Trash And No Star, which enters at #5, capturing both the #1 Breakthrough position as well as the #1 In-Store. The band, which has single-handedly altered today's rock scene, makes a bit of a jump from the heavier side of things. In the words of Thurston Moore, "It's like we jumped in a boat and we're rowing down the lake away from grunge city." Even outside the walls of grunge city, the band will no doubt find success.

LARRY WILLIS SEXTET

LARRY WILLIS SEXTET/A Tribute To Someone/title track (Audioquest Music, P.O. Box 6040, San Clemente, CA 92674/714-498-1977)—Belatedly, some 30 years after his emergence on the national jazz scene, Larry Willis is gaining wide, deserved recognition as a complete-package pianist: composer, leader, accompanist, soloist. This Herbie Hancock composition, sporting the refined harmonic schema and asymmetrical horn-line movement particular to the great Miles Davis Quintet of the mid-'60s, is one of two Hancock pieces gracefully tendered by Willis and his top-shelf crew (Curtis Fuller, trombone; Tom Williams, trumpet; John Stubblefield, tenor and soprano sax; David Williams, bass; Ben Riley, drums). Shifting between a ballad feel and a medium-up groove, "A Tribute To Someone" is one of two Hancock pieces here (the other is the oft-covered "Maiden Voyage"), though all seven tracks, according to Willis, bear the influence of Hancock, his longtime buddy and better-known keyboard peer. Progressive bop of the highest order, the 53-minute A Tribute To Someone evokes, without imitating, the artistry and aura of Hancock. For a taste of Willis' pure pianistry, traceable to his formative work with church groups in Harlem, get ahold of his unaccompanied Solo Spirit, a deeply moving collection of jazzified traditional spirituals, on the venturesome Maple-shade label (2301 Crain Highway, Upper Marlboro, MD 20772/301-627-0525). Corollary programming options include trumpeter Williams' Introducing on Holland's Criss Cross (c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700) and the versatile saxman Stubblefield's quartet date Morning Song on Enja (c/o Koch International, 177 Cantigue Rock Rd., Westbury, NY 11590/516-938-8080).

MILT JACKSON/The Prophet Speaks/"Five O'Clock In The Morning" (Qwest/Reprise, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505-4694/818-953-3472)—Following his lushly orchestrated debut for Warners last year, Milt Jackson returns to small-group bop, the fertile soil in which he has, over more than four decades, cultivated his reputation as modern jazz's preeminent vibraharpist. From the CD-opening title track, a round-robin answering forum for all the participants, through "Blue Monk," Thelonious' craggy blues, this 74-minute package is both captivating and charming. "Blue Monk" (one of two Monk tunes) sports guest Joe Williams' spirited wordless vocals, especially his amusing voice-trumpet emulation, and guest tenorist Joshua Redman's robust obligatos. Williams' own vintage blues, "Five O'Clock In The Morning," again showcases Redman to fine avail, amid an effective core group comprising pianist Cedar Walton, bassist John Clayton and drummer Billy Higgins. Savvy jocks might consider following one of these selections with a piece or two from the classic Monk and Jackson CDs on Blue Note:

ON THE CHART

In somewhat of a surprise, Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West overtakes all to top the jazz chart (2-1). That Always Say Goodbye is #1 is not the surprise, but it is surprising to note the distance between it and Qwest-Reprise's A Tribute To Miles, led by Herbie Hancock, which had been #1 the last three weeks (1-2). Elsewhere, Columbia's Ellis Marsalis leads the Marsalis family on the chart by climbing 5-3, as ECM's Keith Jarrett (10-6), Messidor-Rounder's Mario Bauza And The Afro-Cuban Jazz

Orchestra (24-7) and Atlantic's Acoustic Masters I by Charles Lloyd and company (21-9) make significant moves in the top 10. Our top debut goes to Verve-PG's Bheki Mseleku (#16), the first of what should be many weeks on the chart for the exiled South African pianist/saxman. Our only other debut comes in from Gramavision's Ray Anderson, the trombonist performing his Big Band Record with the George Gruntz Concert Jazz Band (#25). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RALPH PETERSON/Art/"Art Of Blakey" (Blue Note, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Blue Note has finally, thankfully relented and released drummer Ralph Peterson's homage to his drum idol, the late Art Blakey, after a few years' delay. Like the aforementioned Willis tribute to Hancock, Peterson's bow to Bu works because it is sincere and abstract (only one tune from the Blakey book, Wayne Shorter's "Free For All," is interpreted here). Peterson, the current Blue Note artist who best exemplifies the drive and spirit of the label's Golden Age (mid-'50s through Mid-'60s), has had an erratic career. Beset, off and on, by personal problems, he has had trouble keeping out of his own way. Equally capable of rampaging elephantine stomp or fine-point percussive embroidery, Peterson compels/coaxes strong contributions from a kindred cast of explorative players—Graham Haynes, cornet; Steve Wilson, soprano and alto sax; Michelle Rosewoman, piano; Phil Bowler, bass; Frank Lacy, trombone; Craig Handy, tenor. Available for the past few years only in Japan, Art is a welcome stateside entry and, one hopes, a springboard for many future forays by Peterson on Blue Note.

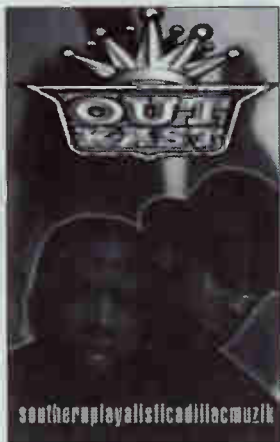

TERENCE BLANCHARD/The Billie Holiday Songbook/"Strange Fruit" (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., 26th Floor, New York, NY 10022-3211)—Jeanie Bryson's haunting narration on the Lady Day-associated song about a lynching down south [Bryson sings four other pieces] is the most poignant moment on this album by trumpeter Terence Blanchard's quartet, supplemented by an orchestra. Fellow vocalist Etta James' Lady Day tribute CD (Private Music, 9014 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90069/310-859-9200) is also highly recommended, but stay away, by all means, from the Miki Sings Billie title (Giant c/o Warner Bros., address above) from Miki Howard, who sounds more like Holiday than Bryson and James do but who, to her shame, turns her tribute into a travesty by employing anachronistic electronics. Boo!

DAVID FIUCZYNSKI & JOHN MEDESKI/Lunar Crush/"Vog" (Gramavision, 33 Katonah Ave., Katonah, NY 10536)—Despite their expanded group instrumentation, guitarist David Fiuczynski and keyboardist John Medeski come closest, in both spirit and substance, of any band I can recall to capturing the essence of Tony Williams Lifetime, the seminal metafusion band of the late '60s and early '70s. "Vog," featuring Medeski's astral-barbecue organ and Fiuczynski's scorching guitar licks, is a door-blowing jam for those who don't fake the funk. The fainthearted are advised to go elsewhere.

OUTKAST Southernplayalisticadillacmuzik (LaFace, c/o Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—On the surface, Atlanta's Outkast appears to be another two-man group that sounds like many shady gangster posses. Boasting competent rhymes, striking scenarios and occasional lyrical fantasy, the duo appears to be no more than a crew that prides itself on looking good, driving fancy cars and reinterpreting the pimp/hustler stereotype that became popular in the '70s. Not exactly your average blunted smooth-talkers, Outkast (Andre and Big Boi) keeps alive lyrics that thrive on self-supporting sensationalism—evidenced by the massive success of "Player's Ball." The Shaft-like coolness of Southernplayalisticadillacmuzik (say that 10 times fast) is enhanced by live instruments mixed with relaxed, bottom-heavy grooves. On the dreamy P-Funk-flavored "Funky Ride," the group examines its carnal desires without getting lewd or misogynistic like too many new jack balladeers. On the album's scattered interludes, and especially on "Ain't No Thang" and "Call Of Da Wild," Outkast stays within its self-created world, discussing its lifestyle and establishing a mindset that calls for the death of fakers and reminds listeners to stay real and remain aware of surrounding pressures. Unlike many of its peers, Outkast shatters gangster clichés, and makes motivating pleas for people to understand that there is more to life than "pimping hoes and slamming cadillac doors" ("Wake up niggas and understand what's going on around you!" the group warns). These sentiments also turn up on "Git Up, Git Out," whose lyrics are aimed at those kept down by drugs or disheartened by feelings of pessimism and doubt. Outkast is not your average gangster badboy posse; the duo takes more responsibility for its lyrics than many groups, and, best of all, offers solutions after identifying with its listeners. Keep it rollin': "Claimin' True," "Crumblin' Erb" and "D.E.E.P."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Fat Jazzy Grooves Volume 7 (New Breed, 134 W. 26th St. #770, New York, NY 10001/212-255-0672)—For its seventh volume of cutting-edge excursions in acid jazz, New Breed offers a six-pack of fat tracks featuring veterans of this on-going series, as well as a couple of new faces that augment the already-diverse nature of acid jazz music. Headshock (who had two cuts on Volume Six) validates on "Be-Bop To Hip-Hop," speaking the common language between rap and jazz, sampling scat vocals over heavy-swinging hip-hop rhythms and rap phrasings. The danceable "1440 AM" by Ghetto Funk Quartet, however, reaches for '20s jazz samples and Gillespie-esque soloing, with undiluted arrangements not unlike those of US 3. Many of the cuts, such as Bread & Butter's "Cool Blow," trod along unaffected by the pressures to be innovative, remaining composed and inviting, their artistic merits no less praiseworthy. May I make a

ON THE CHART

As Columbia's Nas (1-1) begins to settle into his new surroundings as ruler of the Beat Box chart, Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (2-2) and Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim (5-3) soundtrack continue to remain in the less glamorous runner-up positions. With a new single under its belt, Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon moves from 6-5, while LaFace-Arista's Outkast makes an impressive move, as Southernplayalisticadillacmuzik (I love saying that) moves 15-8 in just its second week on the chart. Also approaching top 10 status is Wreck-Nervous' Smif-N-Wessun (17-11) and Tuff Break-A&M's Dred Scott, who moves Breakin' Combs

32-14. There's a small cache of debuts to report this week, including MCA's soundtrack for Crooklyn (#15 highest debut), Chrysalis-ERG's Arrested Development (#18), the new EP by Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys—powered by "Get It Together" (featuring Q-Tip)—at #31 and Big Beat's Artifacts at #36. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Arrested Development; 2) Gang Starr; 3) Above The Rim; 4) Crooklyn Volume 1; 5) A Tribe Called Quest; 6) Artifacts; 7) Volume 10; 8) Ice Cube; 9) Domino; 10) Queen Latifah. DEF 12

NICE & SMOOTH "Blunts" [104 BPM] (Def Jam/RAL, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., 30th Fl., New York, NY 10022-3211)—It seems the more politically-correct you are in hip-hop, the smaller your airplay numbers are likely to be. It's not enough to applaud the cannabis sub-culture or give a hearty "legalize it!" shout on a record—rappers need to go to extremes and boast about it like a fresh pair of Adidas. Returning to the set are Greg Nice and Smooth B. (it's great to hear Smooth's articulate raps, which sound like he's reciting classic poetry), who on "Blunts" focus the chatter on "How many blunts did my lighter light?" and make a strong appeal that they're the ultimate tokers. Slightly more original and uptempo is the B-side "Old To The New," which is collecting most of the airplay. B-side wins again!

DEF JEF and US 3 appear on the soundtrack

The Flintstones: Music From Bedrock (MCA), on a cut called "I Showed A Caveman How To Rock."...RAP-A-LOT IN HOT WATER... AGAIN: Two Houston police officers have filed a lawsuit against Rap-A-Lot Records, claiming that their lives are in danger because they were photographed for the cover of TRINITY GARDEN

CARTEL's album Don't Blame It On Da Music. The two officers, James Sobota and Stephanie Gaithe, appear in the background of a photo which also includes models dressed as police officers. The foreground portrays the group being arrested by the model officers, as a black corpse lays on the ground. After a lawyer contacted label president James Smith via mail on the day the album was to be released, accusing Smith of "producing profits from the fanning of racist sentiments," Smith contacted those involved with the manufacturing of the tapes and CD booklets and requested all artwork to be scrapped immediately, adding that he would provide new artwork. Smith claims that this reflects a conspiracy to build a lawsuit rather than an effort to protect the officers. Smith is suspicious because the letter came to him the very day of the album's release, indicating that the two officers had already contacted the graphics company that designed the LP cover and discussed the process by which the artwork could be redone; Smith was only notified later, by fax.

ED LOVER & DOCTOR DRE MORNINGS

We thought we would show you Hat 97's (WQHT) new subway ad campaign featuring morning DJ's Doctor Dre and Ed Lover. New York City councilman Noach Dear has deemed the ad "disgusting." But those opposed to the "wait" look and into the "bigga" look will find this ad quite appetizing.

A TRIBE CALLED QUEST's Phife will be releasing his first solo album under the moniker PHIFE DOG, which we've been told sounds nothing like his work with A Tribe Called Quest. One possible cut is a reinterpretation of SPOONIE G.'s "Spoonin' Rap"...The release of HOUSE OF PAIN's Same As It Ever Was on Tommy Boy has been pushed back until June...Jive has signed rapper KEITH MURRAY. ON THE CHART

Whether it's in near riot conditions or during the height of a solar eclipse, hip-hop junkies are still flocking for the debut by Columbia's Nas, which holds the #1 spot for the third straight week. Probably the most significant movement in the top 10 comes from LaFace-Arista's Outkast, its debut disc shooting from 10-5 in just two weeks. While we see new life pumped into releases by Rap-A-Lot's 5th Ward Boyz (11-9) and

Assault-Big Beat's DFC (22-12), Priority's Anotha Level makes this week's highest debut, placing On Anotha Level at #15. Other notable debuts come from Payday/frrr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja "D. Original" 12" at #18 and Tuff Break-A&M's Dred Scott at #25. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

BLOWIN' UP

ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT "Ease My Mind" (12") (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104) Radio Chart Position: #18— Following the critically acclaimed debut 3 Years, 5 Months And 2 Days In The Life Of... in the spring of 1992, the message-oriented rhythms of Arrested Development reached an entirely new audience with its cultural-riveting vibe that opposed the dominant gangster mentality that has become so street-stylish. The sexually integrated group of young and old are not resting on its laurels; the drums are still beating. And now that Speech and Co. have our attention, the cause will be that much more evident with the upcoming release of Zingalamaduni (Swahili for "beehive of culture"), a record that continues to stress activism and empowerment while remaining determined and uplifting. It would be unfair to expect the first single "Ease My Mind" to reach the heights to which the infectious "Tennessee" rose, but its message of staying down to earth while shying from materialism is one that will start the revolutionary wheels spinning this summer. With one week to listen to the group's revised southern funk, "Ease My Mind" crashes onto the chart at #18, beaten out for highest debut honors only by the Crooklyn soundtrack. For its second straight week, Arrested Development takes home the #1 Adventure Pick, proving that reporters like what they hear. Of this week's 119 radio reporters, "Ease My Mind" was reported in the top 10 by 18 stations which include: CIBL, KAOS, KFJC, KQAL, KSMU, KSSB, KWLC, WAUG, WBSD, WBUQ, WCCX, WFPR, WKNH, WLHU, WPCR, WRSU and Mike Snow at WUSO in Springfield, OH.

JACKPOT!

POKROVSKY ENSEMBLE Les Noces (Elektra Nonesuch, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—This is my third encounter with the Pokrovsky Ensemble. The group's first U.S. recording was a collaboration with Paul Winter and his cohorts, a fusion of fusion and Russian called Earthbeat (Living Music). While it had its moments, the Russian voices were ultimately lost to the American jazz band. The group's RealWorld album from 1992 was stiff and uncompromising in its approach to the folk music. So it is a pleasure to report that Les Noces is a great album, which finds Dmitri Pokrovsky and his band of singers and musicians both praising their roots and exploring new ground. About half the album is comprised of traditional Russian wedding songs. The ensemble plays them with energy, the singers roar with enthusiasm and the songs themselves are powerful, melodic and beautiful. But the heart of this album is the title work, Igor Stravinsky's "The Wedding." Although it was performed in elegant productions in English, French and German in the years after he composed it, his native Russia remained almost unaware of this work, which, due to Stravinsky's anti-Bolshevik stand, was all but banned by the revolutionary government. It's ironic that one of the world's most revolutionary composers was seen as "mercantile" and counter-revolutionary. With this production, Les Noces is finally presented in the language of its birth. It is a raw, fractured reinterpretation of the tradition of the wedding, cast in early 20th century modernism that still has an edge today. The voices of the Pokrovsky Ensemble match the composer's energy, and the sparse instrumental accompaniment of piano, percussion and strings fuels it. This collection of the work of Stravinsky and the old folks songs that inspired him shows how little difference there really is between ancient and modern.

BILL FRISELL This Land (Elektra Nonesuch, address above) and JOHNNY CASH American Recordings (American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—Why are these world music? Because in the same way that bands throughout the world are redefining and rediscovering their local music, Bill Frisell and Johnny Cash remind us with these two recordings that American music still has a rich vein to be mined and redefined. Johnny Cash has come and gone in the American musical consciousness so many times in my life that I have lost track. But the man in black always seems to come back from the brink with grit and brilliance, and he does it here, as he picks up a guitar, sits down in front of a pair of mikes and makes one of his best records ever. From traditional stories like "Delia's Gone" and "Tennessee Stud" to tunes by songwriters such as Loudon Wainwright III and Leonard Cohen, Cash molds his voice around the lyrics like they were written for him alone.

Bill Frisell continues the exploration of his American heritage, but this time around, he is the composer as well as the interpreter. He digs up bits of lives' Americana, the creative spark of modern

ON THE CHART

Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder remains our #1 record this week, pulling even further ahead of the competition. That may not be particularly interesting, but further down, things are pretty competitive. In a weird coincidence of chart statistics, records from various labels all seem to be bunching together spontaneously this week. For instance: Two RealWorld-Caroline titles inch into the top five and occupy consecutive spots, as Shu-De moves 5-2 and Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan & Party move 8-3, edging out two consecutive Mango-Island titles Angeliqe Kidjo (3-4) and Salif Keita (6-5). Further down, we find an unprecedented four RAS albums in a row: Junior Reid enters at #17, Barrington Levy bounces back onto the charts with Divine (#18 re-entry), Dean Fraser moves 17-19, and reggae perennial Yellowman moves 23-20. Now if only Green Linnet titles by Ukrainians (14-15) and Tarika Sammy (21-22) and Heartbeat's Burning Spear (9-10) and Truth And Rights Observer Style (#23 re-entry) could get in line, the chart would be about as neatly organized as one could ask for... (NEW WORLD REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS.)

jazz, the rawness of country blues and the unfettered exuberance of rock. Given the latitude of his own writing, he manages to sound a nostalgic note even as he rips open the sonic structures he admires. Joey Baron supplies the edge on this recording, his drums a pounding, grinding foil to Frisell's whining, bending guitar lines. Don Byron (clarinets), Kermit Driscoll (bass), Billy Drewes (alto saxophone) and Curtis Fowlkes (trombone) round out the ensemble, lending grace and tension to the composer's vision. This Land is inspiring, indefinable music that is as much folk as it is jazz or pop. That may be what makes it so thoroughly American.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

American composer and drummer/percussionist BOB MOSES looks to the beat of the whole planet for his inspiration. Time Stood Still (Gramavision, 33 Katonah Ave., Katonah, NY 10536/914-232-1399) reflects the Afro-centric roots of jazz and Latin music, plays with funk and rap, and uses pure, local melodic and rhythmic ideas from Africa and Asia to form his particular musical world. The title track quotes the slide guitar of juju, the vocal chants of pygmies, the groove of Motown and some bebop for good measure, alternating between lush and funky. Every track on the album takes this approach, veering from continent to continent, city to city, in search of identity. What you call this music is irrelevant. To quote a certain

Harry Holtzman in the notes, "Hardening of the categories leads to art disease." This is simply music, made in America from a universe of ingredients... WENGE MUSICA became the darling of the month in Britain in 1991 following a BBC appearance and a minor hit record with "Kin E Bouge." But the group's 1988 album Bouger Bouger (NATARI/Africassette, P.O. 24941, Detroit MI 48224/313-881-4108; fax 313-881-0260) never saw a release outside of Africa until now. This is streamlined soukous from Zaire, right on the cusp of the big change-over to higher and higher tech, with sweet ensemble vocals, fat bass and those shimmering electric guitar lines that define the style. In fact, it's Alain Makeba's guitar solos and fills that really define this recording. He sets a spark to every vocal line and his solos are crisp, almost austere in their melodic simplicity. You still have to get past the inevitable low budget synthesizers so hip in Kinsasha at the time, but the rest of the ensemble is so lush and wonderful that it is a minor chore. If you are a fan of soukous masters like the families Zaiko, then this is for you.

Internet users might want to check into rec.music.reggae, the Usenet group for Caribbean grooves.

Peace.

DAJAE

DAJAE "Is It All Over My Face?" (12") (Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch, Ste. 218, Chicago, IL 60622/312-642-8008)—If you're waiting for the name Curtis Jones to disappear from these pages, you'll have to wait 'til he releases a bad record, and that just isn't going to happen. Not if the new Dajae single is anything to go by. Cajmere has recruited crosstown mixmasters Hula and K. Fingers (of the Clubhouse posse) to apply their wisdom to this outstanding song. Cajmere's love for the history of dance music is present in all his work, so it's no coincidence that this single bears the same title as the vastly influential, Larry Levan-mixed single by Loose Joints from 1980. The life-affirming vocals of Dajae resonate with an extraordinary power, the same energy which lent such vigor to "Brighter Days" and "U Got Me Up." Hula and K. Fingers' "Vocal Club Mix" has a smoother quality than Cajmere's usual efforts, with the dub spreading the vocals around the mix. Flip this monster over and "Green Velvet's Crush Mix" sends this track straight into the stratosphere. Like the recent "Connption" and "Preacher Man," this is Cajmere revealing his passion for grimy, hard underground house trax. With percolating acid and the jagged kick drum flattening everything in sight, this is a floor-shaker of mammoth proportions.

DEEPER, AND MORE CAJUAL

The Cajmere invasion continues apace this week with the release of two new GREEN VELVET tracks on the flipside of "Preacher Man." Like the second side of the new Dajae single, "Off The Hook" and "They Came From Outer Space" are just too hard and deep to ignore. With ripsnorting analog drums careening to and fro and synth darts flying past, these are two more certified smokers from the indefatigable Cajmere (Cajual, address above).

HOUSE TO HOUSE

What better way to start the month of May than with the latest single from ROCHELLE FLEMING, produced by Paul Simpson. "Danger" is a smoldering garage track with an elastic bounce and crisp remix work by Danny Morales and Aldo Marin (the Cutting label's stalwarts). Fleming is a highly talented vocalist, so let us hope she does not drift into obscurity the way so many wonderful singers before her have. The A-side's first mix is the most straightforward, yet powerful of the four here, while the flip's "Underground Danger Mix" has a less polished texture, the rougher sound of Morales and Marin coming to the fore (Cutting, 104 Vermilyea Ave., Ste. B2, New York, NY 10034/212-567-4900)...Chicago's L'IL JOHN COLEMAN, best known for his Pina Colada EP of last year, has returned with a set of blazing tracks called the Red Dog Grooves Vol. 1 (named after Coleman's club). The clarity and

ON THE CHART

This week sees little movement in the top 25, with the Aphex Twin seemingly in for the long haul at #1 and WHITE LBLS-American Messiah at #2. Oliver Lieb's Spicelab project leaps six places (15-9) while Sven Vath rises three spots (9-6) after 24 weeks on the chart. The one new entry this week is Transformer 2's Transformations out on Caroline in the U.S., by way of Round & Round/Antler-Subway in Belgium at #20. The only deep-ish house record on the chart this week comes from the U.K.'s Mount Rushmore, whose Kiki Dee cover, "I Got The Music" jumps two places (19-17). This week's compilation count: eight.

punch of the production work here is exemplary, especially on the Marvin Gaye-sampled "Your Lovin'," which is so tightly executed there isn't an inch of space to be had. After Coleman's ambitious "Ulysses" project, this is more Chicago trackwork of the finest sort (Large, 714 N. Racine, Chicago, IL 60622/312-829-0293)...Ralphie Rosario doesn't release 11 records a month, but when his creative energies make their way onto wax, he shows everyone else how it's really done. His punishing "A Tracky Hold" by the SECOND OPINION is, simply put, a high-velocity organ-infused rollercoaster ride, and if you're not at least nodding your head by the track's end, you need your head and feet examined (Strictly Rhythm, 1650 Broadway, Ste. 312, New York, NY 10019/212-246-0026).

DETROIT'S AXIS

We've heard little from the highly original JEFF MILLS lately, but that calm has been rent by his astounding Cycle 30 EP, which once again pushes the limits of electronic dance to the far horizon. The "track" on the A-side is divided into eight continuous loops, each wholly different, each sounding like they are not of this earth, yet packing grooves that defy gravity. The flip has three boldly experimental, riveting tracks that remind you how good techno can be cerebral and physical at the very same moment. This is a momentous return for Mills (Axis, 515 W. Briar #403, Chicago, IL 60657).

MODEL 500'S OPUS

Juan Atkins' early work under the name MODEL 500, with singles such as "Sounds Of Stereo," "Off To Battle" and "No U.F.O.s," defined the genesis of techno for many. Once again working under that moniker, Atkins has released a stunning full-length symphony of electronic sound, The Sonic Sunset (LP/CD), engineered by Moritz Von Oswald (a.k.a. Maurizio of Basic Channel). Like Kenny Larkin's recent Azimuth LP (now slated for domestic release on TVT), this is electronic dance which lets the listener drift through oceans of sensation. I could sing the album's praises track-by-track, but that'd only detract from its cohesive, hypnotic momentum (R&S, Limburgstraat 82, 9000 Gent, Belgium/9-224-2148).

CMJ COUNTRY

JACKPOT!

MARTY BROWN Cryin', Lovin', Leavin' (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—If some people say Marty Brown is "too country," they're referring to his undiluted nature and the unflinchingly honest way he makes music. If you're talking to country radio programmers, they mean he's closer to Hank Williams than Garth Brooks, which only leaves them shaking their heads and wondering if the guy is real. Cryin', Lovin', Leavin' is Brown's third album and it proves, once again, that the man is the genuine article. He continues to impress with a decidedly unprocessed sound and songs that lay emotions brutally bare, yet always ring true. That he seems to have discovered a pattern for his record making hardly matters. We expect an Everly Brothers-styled anthem with ringing guitars and he delivers on the title track; a Hank Sr.-type wailing weeper, you get "Why Do You Crucify Me"; a frolicsome sing-a-long and Brown covers Moon Mullican's "Cherokee Boogie" with childlike abandon. That's not to say this is a by the numbers effort by any means; Brown takes a gamble on tunes like the rowdy blues "Too Blue To Crow," the gospel-inflected "Shameful Lies" and even tries his hand at "contemporary country" on his duet with Joy White, "I Love Only You" and comes up a winner every time.

LISA MEDNICK Artifacts Of Love (Dejadisc, 537 Lindsey St. San Marcos, TX 78666/512-392-6610)—Lisa Mednick is one of Austin's most highly acclaimed local musicians and singer/songwriters. Her debut, Artifacts Of Love, is an elegantly stylized collection of stories reflecting her life of travel. Although born in Boston, at one time or another, she's also called New York, Ann Arbor, MI, Washington, D.C., New Orleans and Los Angeles home. With the help of co-producer Greg Leisz (k.d. land, Rosie Flores), a few of Austin's best top musicians—bass player Sarah Brown, ex-Poi Dog Adam Sultan on guitar, cellist John Hagen of Lyle

Lovett's band—and comes from Charles Neville and Lucinda Williams, Mednick paints glorious pictures with a keen eye for detail, a distinctive sense of melody and engaging use of rhythms that's often reminiscent of the work of Alejandro Escovedo or Lisa Germana. Although best appreciated as a whole listening experience, the funky New Orleans styled "The Saints Are Winning," the electronic moodiness of "Filling The Gaps With Gold" and the acoustic ballad, "Harper's Ferry," stand out among these Artifacts Of Love.

INTO THE VAULTS

Sugar Hill (P.O. Box 55300, Durham, NC 27717/919-489-4349) continues to re-issue the highly influential United Artists recordings of DOC & MERLE WATSON. This time they've combined 1973's Then And Now and 1974's Two Days In November on one CD. Both Grammy-winners underscore Doc's groundbreaking vision of combining country and blues, augmented by Merle's remarkable guitar stylings. They cover tunes by Hank, Sr., Merle Travis, Townes Van Zandt, Tom Paxton and others, exploring American music as few ever have, before, or after, these recordings were made...It's perplexing to think that LEO KOTKE's 6- And 12-String Guitar (Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900), now available for the first time on CD, was released 25 years ago. Kotke's debut, a collection of 13 original instrumentals and an interpretation of Bach's "Jesu, Joy Of Man's Desiring," was a soundtrack for many people's lives in the early '70s. An uncanny combination of traditional folk and experimental acoustic guitar, it went a long way to putting Kotke in the position of guitar hero, a stature he maintains to this day...One of the leading lights of the '60's folk revival, PHIL OCHS still holds a special place in many hearts. Hannibal (c/o Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678) has just made his first two albums, All The News That's Fit To Sing (1964) and I Ain't Marching Anymore (1965), available for the first time on CD. Both influential and an integral part of their era's social protest movement, Ochs' barbed political lyrics speak to a generation. Although the specific subjects of his tunes were topical for their day and not specifically relevant today, his style and attitude has affected many of today's singer/songwriters. These are historical documents, as well as an inspired listening experience, whether you've heard them before or are listening for the first time.

SHORT SHOTS

It's been a while since there's been any good roots rock to rave about, but that changed with the arrival of D.J.'s Front Porch, the debut from DUANE JARVIS (Medium Cool, c/o Twin\Tone, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646). A mix of Joe Henry's rustic intensity and Lucinda Williams' dusty Texas blues, this is the kind of record that gets into your head and won't let go. Jarvis has a droll way with words and every listen brings out some new twist. Check out the sensuously slinky "She's Like A Drink," the bluesy shuffle "I Can Hardly Wait" and the twangy rocker "Back Of Beyond." This is too good a record to let slip through the cracks...The TRAILSIDE RANGERS are a New York City band that could easily fit in with the Diesel Only Rig Rock crew. Their debut EP Peacemaker (Jericho Hill, 230 W. 82nd St., Ste. 4A, New York, NY 10024/212-362-5458) has four guitar-laden tracks with a lot of punch leaning to the country side of Neil Young or Creedence Clearwater Revival. Well worth seeking out...After too many years apart, PETER ROWAN & THE ROWAN BROTHERS have re-grouped and released Tree On The Hill (Sugar Hill, see above). Peter has been involved with a lot of different types of solo projects in recent years and it's great to hear him harmonizing with his siblings again in a decidedly traditional framework. Don't miss their sultry version of Townes Van Zandt's "No Lonesome Tune," a new-grass styled take on the classic "Man Of Constant Sorrow" or the shiny new Rowan original "Long Time."

MEMPHIS GETS THE BLUES

A few words on the 15th Annual W.C. Handy Awards/Beale St. Music Festival, Memphis, TN, May 5-8...In the past few years, the Blues Foundations has held its annual Handy Awards show in Memphis in the late Fall. This year, the show was moved to coincide with the beginning of the city's Beale St. Music Festival, a long weekend of music on three stages set up on the banks of the Mississippi River. This year's show was a briskly paced affair, hosted by local heroine Cybill Shepherd and R&B icon Isaac Hayes, that was marred by the lack of winners being present to accept their awards and a half-empty Orpheum Theater. The big winner was the late ALBERT COLLINS, who was honored as Blues Entertainer Of The Year, as well as taking the Blues Contemporary Male and Blues Instrumentalist, Guitar categories. The evening was saved by performances from CEDELL DAVIS, JIMMY ROGERS, MARCIA BALL (who provided one of the night's highlights when she was joined for a duet by DELBERT McCLINTON), KOKO TAYLOR, JOHN HAMMOND and KENNY NEAL, collectively demonstrating the great breadth and variety in today's blues scene.

Although not exclusively a blues fest—headliners included the BLACK CROWES, BOB DYLAN and the ISLEY BROTHERS—the Beale St. Music Festival did present an uncommon amount of the blues. There was even a blues tent, which came in handy for a lot of folks during Saturday evening's rainstorms. Highlights included the raucous roots rock of new Margaritaville signing TODD SNIDER; an electrifying set of Texas blues/rock from DOYLE BRAMHALL & THE MEMPHIS HORNS; the thrilling and powerful vocals of LOU ANN BARTON; a rousing set from KENNY NEAL and his brothers, who nearly stole the weekend with their uncanny instrumental prowess and energy; and a full-blown set of hot Chicago style from JIMMY ROGERS and his band. When the shows at the festival grounds ended, usually by midnight, the crowds headed for Beale St., where B.B. King's Blues Club was the place to be. Saturday in particular was a hot night there, with JOHNNY COPELAND performing his mixture of gritty soul and rowdy party-time favorites. He was joined for some fiery jamming by Neal, LITTLE JIMMY KING and DEBBIE DAVIES. A very special appearance by ROBERT JR. LOCKWOOD, stepson of Robert Johnson, for three songs capped a weekend that would have delighted and satisfied any lover of the blues.

ARGH!!! IT'S THE LOUD ROCK REPORT

DOG EAT DOG
All Boro Kings

(Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Yeeeah booo, word up!! Dog Eat Dog is back, barking up your tree, frothing at the mouth, and ready to put that hardcore, hip-hop, metal-rock bite back in yo' booty with the release of its first full length LP, All Boro Kings (the follow-up to last year's Warrant EP). Don't try to read into the band or the lyrics, because what you see is what you get—"No fronts, no tricks, no soap-box politics, no guns, just blunts, we kick this just for fun" ("No Fronts"). Produced by Jason Corsaro (Soundgarden, Danzig, Madonna, Peter Gabriel), All Boro Kings is chock full of heavy, attitude-laden metal-rap, splashed with dashes of reggae (compliments of Darryl Jenifer from the Bad Brains on "Who's The King?") and infiltrated throughout by a kickin' horn section. A variety of additional musicians contributes to Dog Eat Dog's already robust sound, assisting with extra brass and vocals, making the overall sound even more elaborate. Highlights are "Who's The King?," "In The Doghouse," "If These Are Good Times" and "No Fronts."

Dead Sailor Acid Blues
(Imago, Carnegie Hall Tower, 152 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Usually one would associate the word "orangutan" with a shaggy-haired ape that has nothing better to do all day than beat on his chest and eat bananas. Well, this Orangutang is an animal of a different kind. The band first dug its claws into the music scene back in 1990, via the Boston club circuit, and over the past four years has developed a hefty fan base and made its presence known to the world. Dead Sailor Acid Blues is a fantastic voyage through the rippling waters of alterna-pop metal, bubbling with swirling, melodic energy, only to crash into a wave of churning, crunching guitar chords. This time around the band has opted for a more euphonic sound, but hasn't lost any of the rousing kick that made its debut EP, Rewards Of Cruelty, a smash with the metal crowds. A four-song metal sampler will be coming your way soon, containing three tracks from this album ("Daddy Raw," "Sweet Lemon Maureen" and "Bigger Chunk"), along with "Mr. Cymbalista," the hard-rockin' highlight from the band's previous EP. There are also some other heavy hitting songs on Dead Sailor Acid Blues that should not be overlooked, including the aggressive drive of "The Day Before I Died" and the racious ramblings of "Surf Continental." Don't be the last primate on this earth to recognize the enticing appeal of Orangutang.

DUMPSTER JUICE

Get That Out Of Your Mouth
(Spanish Fly/Twin\Tone, c/o Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-957-4357)—Dumpster Juice: Mix one part aggressive punk with two parts thrashy hardcore, add a twist of warped humor, shake well and serve straight up. Ever wonder what would happen if you took Helmet, Rollins and Pantera, carted them off to a monster truck and tractor pull, got them totally inebriated and told them to play together? Well, it would probably sound something like Dumpster Juice. These guys produce an intoxicating blend of sped-up thrash, pummeling hardcore and punk grind. Get That Out Of Your Mouth (the follow-up to last year's That Not So Fresh Feeling LP) stomps through a pit full of thick, sludgy guitar riffs intertwined with lightening fast speed bursts and vocalist Rowland's fierce, raspy scream. He even throws in a few guttural death growls now and again for good measure. If you liked the disgusting artwork on the band's first album (a close-up shot of a brace-filled mouth caked with yellow scum and oozing drool), you'll love this one, too—an open, red gummed mouth with one solitary yellow-tinted tooth poking out (the band has an odd oral fixation). Lay back, open wide and suck in some Dumpster Juice with "Clown Midget," "D.D.S.," "Chisel You Weasel," "Living Dead" and "Mommy's Sobbin'."

THEE HYPNOTICS

The Very Crystal Speed Machine
(American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505/818-973-4545)—Thee Hypnotics entice you into a swirling helix of blues-tinged psychedelia, drenched in funky roots-rock, that induces a high more potent than uncut crack. Soulful '70s melodies collide with an energetic '90s rockin' groove. The Very Crystal Speed Machine churns with swaggering rhythms, straight-from-the-gut vocal howls and mesmerizing guitar grind, laced with some smoky slide guitar, hip harmonicas, piano and even a touch of the harp! Thee Hypnotics aren't what you would call "loud rock" or "metal," but there's no denying that this music has huge mass appeal and The Very Crystal Speed Machine has begun to see the light on some of the metal airplay charts. After a series of mishaps and setbacks, things began looking up for the band when Chris Robinson of the Black Crowes took them under his wing, helped to get them signed to American and produced this album for them. Thee Hypnotics are a unique British acid rock band with a ton of groovy, hip-swaying tunes that'll keep you movin'. Check out "Keep Rollin' On," "Heavy Liquid," "If The Good Lord Loves Ya" and "Down In The Hole."

Crossbearer
(Too Damn Hype, c/o Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—Starkweather combines the rage and disgust of punk rock with the brutal sounds of the heaviest metal. In light of the many Lollapaloozy bands of the past few years, not to mention all the thrash metal bands who have hit the "big time," the punk/metal combination doesn't seem as groundbreaking as it once did. Crossbearer, however, probably would've sounded exactly the same had Starkweather recorded it during the hairspray/spandex crazed '80s. Immune to trends, this band plays its tunes the only way it knows how: brutally, with no frills. The band's disregard for conventional song structures sets its sound apart. Since the mid-'70s heyday of prog-rockers such as Pink Floyd, Yes and King Crimson, few bands have been able to mold song structures as well as Starkweather does here. While many cuts here are long, over seven minutes, with Starkweather, this is a good thing. The tunes may be lengthy, but they don't waste time. While vocalist Rennie Resmini is bound to receive loads of attention ("range" doesn't begin to describe his going from near operatic singing to scarier-than-"Old Scratch" death metal growling in under five seconds), this is truly a band effort, and one that deserves to be heard. All the tunes on the album stand on their own, but check out "Tumult," "Murder In Technicolor," "The Rift" and, for the adventurous, "Shards."

—Brian Ives

"No Woods" (7")
(Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—It's no wonder we've been seeing so much chart action with this brand, spanning new band (Stompbox is already in the top 50 with only a single)—this band crushes! As the name implies, Stompbox will slam you into a stupor with its heavy mix of Helmet-like grind. "No Woods," the first single from the forthcoming Stress LP, trudges along a path of sharp, militant guitar riffage, gravelly vocals and jolting drum kicks. The band joined forces with producer Sylvia Massey (Tool, Green Jelly) and recorded its album up in Bearsville, NY: "...three months of living up in the woods and having to rock, surrounded by these huge trees. It was very disorienting," says guitarist Jeff Turlik. "No Woods" is a perfect prelude to an album that's sure to be filled with more of the same aggressive furor. Keep your eyes peeled for Stress and prepare to be pulverized.

DIALOGUE

Matt Young, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

Well, it's official...PITCH SHIFTER has left the country. Their very first American visit was a huge success! Tours, videos, soundtracks, mayhem and destruction. What a wonderful life! The "Triad" video is on all kinds of video channels. The TV commercial for Brainscan features all of three and a half seconds worth of "Triad." DISGUST is pure and simple punk! Kick out "Mother Earth." A video is coming soon. So is the Earache debut of A.C., Everybody Should Be Killed. Promo samplers are here for the asking. God bless Earache! 212-DIE-9090.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

BIOHAZARD's "Tales From The Hard Side"...who hasn't been waiting for it? Adds now! FYI: Limited-edition vinyl of State Of The World Address will show up any day now! However, don't expect the full CD until the 5/24 street date! One last Biohazard note—the video of "Tales From The Hard Side" should surface soon. Until then, keep watching the making of State Of The World Address on Headbanger's Ball—5/7, 5/14 & 5/21. Look for ATOMIC OPERA, For Madmen Only. The full CD will be in your hands this week. You and your listeners should spend some quality time with this. Keep playing "Justice." Thanks to Malcolm, KUTZ and the 15,000 Austin kids for making the Sunday DIO show a major success! Everyone keep on this Dio record. Tour dates on the way! I swear! Did you get your seven inches of JOAN JETT? Let us know what you think!

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

Finally, things are getting back to normal. If we haven't talked in awhile it's because I've been out on the road with CROWBAR. Their tour just finished up in Santa Monica. They won't be off the road for long before they start up again with VARGA. STRESSBALL is preparing every fleshy part for Gen's special touch, as they head out on the road with the Genitoraters. DEMENTED TED is heading to the West Coast on their cross-country tour with Unleashed and Broken Hope. Interviews, IDs and tickets are available for all shows. On the news release front is the new disc from FEAR OF GOD. Yes, they are the ones you are thinking of. They are back with their new release, Toxic Voodoo, due out early June. That's about it. Need anything, just call. Oh, and if your hours are changing or your station is going off the air, let me know.

Jay Hughen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 856-7139

The depth of the Superunknown continues to distinguish and lead SOUNDGARDEN past all others. The first leg of the tour begins in Vancouver on May 27. THERAPY? hit the trail with the Rollins Band for a string of northeastern and rust belt dates with more tension release and tattoos than Steve Prue's vacation weekends. New Troublegum single, "Die Laughing," impacts May 23/24. Be there! What Therapy? project had them in a studio in Los Angeles in the afternoon of the same day they played a show in Minneapolis?! God bless PAW! Road warriors for a solid year in support of Dragline. We've got extensive tour dates and you've got a "Jessie" single with new B-sides...do the right thing. Education, education, education on this Deep Six compilation, folks. MELVINS. SKIN YARD. MALFUNKSHUN. GREEN RIVER...this is first wave stuff. I need a new roommate. I scared the last one away playing new ones from Nailbomb, Green Day and Kyuss.

Brian McEvoy, Mercury Records, New York, NY (212) 333-8458

On your desk the first week in June is Kiss My Ass, the KISS tribute record. Please report your adds the week of June 6. The surprise metal record of the year, DOWNSET, will be in your hands soon. Add date is 6/13. Downset just started their month-long tour of Europe with Biohazard. GRETA on tour with Motorhead this week, then out on a headlining tour with Mutha's Day Out.

Jesse Lombardi, Century Media/Lonely Planet/Dope, Los Angeles, CA (310) 396-0094

MUCKY PUP! Mucky Pup! Mucky fucking Pup!!! This record should be creating response. Please chart this puppy! This record is a serious effort to create a heavy sound. Please take this record seriously. Tour coming. UNLEASHED has been kicking ass across our open nation, in support of Across The Open Sea. Keep rotation up on Unleashed. You have the live and the full length, so please give us tour airplay. PSYCHOSIS is cranking, yet I want those numbers keeping strong. SPUDMONSTERS are Gwar's little brothers. Please give the same appreciation. Phil was wearing the EYEHATEGOD shirt at last night's show. ASPHYX, live TIAMAT and ENCHANTMENT are on your desks, so please add on May 9. ATROCITY is coming soon, along with the GRAVE full length. Lots of cool stuff from our factory of music. DEAD ORCHESTRA will be rocking the charts soon with their Zappa-like death sound. This is an intelligent, musical and wacky record. Keep your ears open for the full length.

Cornelia, Taangl Records, Cambridge, MA (617) 876-2411

SPORE begins a massive U.S. tour June 3rd in Boston, and they will be coming to your town, too. Thanks for all the great response to their debut LP, Giant. I promise you'll never get sick of this record. GODSTAR is quickly becoming a favorite with lots of you programmers. Their EP, Lie Down Forever, brings them to new heights. If you haven't heard by now, Taangl will be releasing much of the SPACEMEN 3 catalogue this year, so stock up on blotter and start looking on top of cow patties. If you don't have the new records from Spore, Godstar or LYRES, call me and I'll hook you up.

Marni/Wayne/Psycho, Roadrunner

Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077
DOG EAT DOG's new album, All Boro Kings, will be going for adds on May 16th and 17th. The single is "No Fronts." We all hope you enjoyed your little treat. Yum! You should be all over BLACK TRAIN JACK's new record, You're Not Alone. Concentrate on "Hand Outs," "What's The Deal" and "Not Alone." NAILBOMB is still the best creation, and a big thanx to WZMB, WFSE, WKNC, WPCR, KNON, WVFS, WIZN, WWDX, WMWM and WDBM for doing interviews with Max and Alex. And thanx to those who will do one after this dialogue is written. SEPULTURA will be heading over to tour Europe with Prong and the Obsessed. The new single by them will be "This Time," with a live B-side of "Through And Through." Sepultura's new single, "Slave New World," will be going for adds on May 23rd/24th. BUZZOVEN, MADBALL, FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY, MACHINE HEAD, OBITUARY...is there any need to say anything else?

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

IMPERIUM's Too Short A Season is working its way up everyone's charts. The band's unique mixture of progressive and heavy influences seems to have created a lot of interest. "Chemical Dreams" was the lead track, but I think the opening track, "Silenced," really shows what the band is all about. Give it a spin next. SIMPLE AGGRESSION and their video, "Formulations In Black," are doing very well in Europe with repeated plays on MTV/Europe! The CD is selling very well over there and the band will be headlining some outdoor festivals this summer throughout Europe.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

Sprint with this—SURGERY is on the road NOW. Call me for guestlists NOW! GODSPEED is touring Europe with Black Sabbath and Cathedral. MTV thinks Godspeed's "Houston Street" is an "ode to drug abuse" and is delaying airplay on the track. Believe me when I say that it isn't! "Houston Street" is a song which denounces drugs. It tells the tale of someone fighting drug addiction. Just hear the lyrics, "Slow down, I want to get off/slow down I want to get right." COLLAPSING LUNGS are on the road with Infectious Grooves. Also on tour is STUTTERING JOHN, KING'S X, and soon, STP and RUST! New music from STP, SAVATAGE (with Alex Skolnick), OVERKILL, TESTAMENT and TED NUGENT in the works.

Jill and Jeannie, The Red Light Records Death Squad, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OKFU

Hello, hello, hello. Had a killer weekend. Saw my favorite band, PRONG, at a cool club here called the Avalon. These guys are the greatest, hands down! And Cheryl, it was great to see you again! Speaking of live shows, SARKOMA will be playing a town near you! 5/5 Omaha, 5/16 Kansas City, 5/17 Wichita, 5/18 Denton, TX, 5/19 Ft. Worth, 5/20 Dallas, 5/21 Amarillo, 5/23 Austin, 5/26 Tulsa, 5/27 Lincoln, 5/28 Des Moines. If you are in any of these cities, call me right now to book interviews and get your free tickets to the show! More to come. Our new band, the PLEASURE ELITE, will be touring the NW United States and into Canada. These guys are a heavy industrial band and their record will be out in June with a video as well. You all are on the SKATENIGS. Keep it up, we gotta break this band! You will be getting full lengths in about two weeks, actually for both Skatenigs and Sarkoma. We are going for full length adds Monday/Tuesday May 23/24. Thanks for your support with GUTTED and OPPRESSOR. It's a beautiful thing!

Sivan, Wax Trax!/TVT Records, New York, NY (212) 979-6410

Peeeeeeewwwwww...just had a brief encounter with that Manhattan stench, you know, that horrific odor that becomes all too apparent as the pavement warms up. Welcome back, summer! Greetings to all of you who've embraced SISTER MACHINE GUN's The Torture Technique! We're all psyched about Angstfest, kicking off on 4/28 in San Fran, that'll feature KMFDM, Sister Machine Gun and Chemlab! Pick up Angst, the Drug Against War and Light CD5s (check out the Nails, SMG and Die Warzau mixes of "Light"). Promote the shit out of these fococika dates, puhleez! The SMG boys will do interviews galore, so call, call, call! Rumor has it that there'll be body piercing opportunities on stage during their set, while KMFDM will also be illustrating various forms of dismemberment...will advise. More tour dates: Salt Lake-4/30, Sacramento-5/1, Seattle-5/2, Portland-5/3, Palo Alto-5/5, Ventura-5/6, LA-5/7, Tempe-5/8, Tucson-5/9, El Paso-5/10, San Antonio-5/11, Houston-5/12, Dallas-5/13, Memphis-5/14...

BREEDERS "Saints"/"Shocker In Gloomtown" (4AD, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—What initially endeared so many people to the Breeders when Last Splash first came out was its infectious single, "Cannonball" and its Kim Gordon-directed video which magically captured the group's affable charm, leading to chart-topping success (on both radio and video levels). "Saints" once again taps in to this personality, the band to ham-it up in a variety of costumes and settings, from their ski-suited performance on a snow-piled hillside to their summertime fairground wanderings. The clip doesn't linger too long on any one shot or attempt any editing somersaults, but it's done with just the right amount of energy and verve to parallel the band's striking pop ingenuity. "Shocker In Gloomtown" is somewhat of a "video B-side," a minute and a half cover (which, incidentally, is not on Last Splash) of a tune by up-and-coming indie hipsters Guided By Voices, who make a special cameo appearance in the extra clip. (CH)

SUPERCHUNK "The First Part" (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)—Chapel Hill's Superchunk has been steadily establishing itself as the indie-rock band to be, relentless in its tour and release schedules for the past half dozen years or so, gaining a consistent catalog of glowing press. Taken from its fourth long player Foolish, "The First Part" appropriately casts singer/guitarist Mac McCaughan as a Mr. Rogers-like father who must endure the slumber party pogo-fest of his kids in an upstairs bedroom. Placing Mac in front of a fireplace in a cardigan sweater with a tray of milk and cookies tableside belies the band's maniac guitar-driven anthem, but it's this unpretentious and playful depiction that makes it such a great video. (CH)

MC SOLAAR "Nouveau Western" (Cohiba c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St. 5th Fl., New York, NY 10003/212-995-7800)—It may not be a first, but it sure is a damn good idea: subtitles on videos of non-English speaking artists. Some may cry foul, but it doesn't hurt one bit to know what foreign artists, in this case French rap master MC Solaar, are really saying (though it didn't help Buju Banton much). Our only problem with "Nouveau Western" is that this video is so eye-catching it's hard to stay focused on the subtitles what with the camera diving into video layer after video layer. Whatever you focus on, "Nouveau Western" is a video worth watching as it creates parallels among the old west, the west (that's the U.S. to the French) and gunslinging violence on the street. [SC]

A TRIBE CALLED QUEST "Oh My God" (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)

Oh my God! It's another great video from A Tribe Called Quest. How can you not like a song that reprises the Busta Rhymes sample from "Scenario?" Simple, cool and a little old school, "Oh My God" takes you through the streets of Brooklyn with the Tribe on a flatbed truck and hanging out amidst fenced-in playgrounds. The video starts with a nice little bit of joking around in a corner deli that shows New York has neighborhoods where people actually get along. [SC]

BEN HARPER "Whipping Boy" (Virgin, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)

If you don't know about Ben Harper, then your missing something. This lead track from his debut LP Welcome To The Cruel World, shows off Harper's direct style, simple instrumentation, lyrical honesty and soulful delivery. Shot in dusty black and white, "Whipping Boy" has an understated quality that works its way towards the viewer in a series of multiple frames on the screen. Harper may not break through the public consciousness through video, but this artist is not about video marketing or demographic target audiences, he's about his guitars (which he makes himself) and the words he sings. [SC]

CATHERINE "Idiot" (TVT, 23 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)

Hailing from Chicago and boasting an EP co-produced by head Smashing Pumpkin Billy Corgan, Catherine faces the inevitable "post-Pumpkins" tag for its cascading wall of guitar sound and its obvious associations with its influences. Fortunately the clip for "Idiot" taken from the band's debut EP Sleepy, portrays a group far removed from the heavy artistry or drama typically associated with bands of this ilk. With an almost home movie feel, the video employs a variety of performance snippets, oddball film-school movie leftovers and a subtle comic sense to fuel the quartet's rigorous arsenal of sound. DIALOGUE

RECORD COMPANY

Jay Septoski, Alligator Records, Chicago, IL (312) 973-7736

Just when I thought college radio had lost its cutting edge, along comes the top-50 debut of the new Pink Floyd record, boy do I feel stupid. All of you who are playing the hell out of it better watch out. Somewhere, Steve Albini is secretly reading your playlists and when he gives his latest rant about how anti-establishment he is (probably in his Rolling Stone cover story), he'll say bad things about your station. Just a warning. Also, play our records because they are damn good: LUTHER ALLISON, SUGAR BLUE and CHARLIE MUSSELWHITE are at your station and NYC guitarist MICHAEL HILL is on the way. Michael Hill is good friends with Vernon Reid, who also makes a guest appearance on the record, so if for some reason you need incentive to listen to it there you go. Until next time, deny false rock.

Bob Ardrey, Continuum Records, Cranford, NJ (908) 709-0011

Thanks to college radio at large for supporting the BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE If 60's Were 90's album. Look for the song "Rilly Groovy" on the soundtrack for the movie PCU (this year's Ridgemont High). Rilly. We have PM Dawn remixes of "If 60's Was 90's" that are yours for the asking. Call us for it, and you'll get it. The same goes for Grind (over 60 minutes of continuous house mixes prepared by Johnny Vicious), Jammin' (real cutting edge reggae from Jamaica) and the new RED RED GROOVY single "Come To Me Ecstasy." Peace and love and all that.

John Di Maio, Radioactive Records, New York, NY (212) 489-4820

Thanks to all for the phenomenal success of LIVE! It's gone up quicker than the San Diego Padres in a warehouse. Patrick's appendix is out, and the band is ready for the road. Call for info. As you know, the new DIG EP Soft Pretzel is for college radio only. 800 copies pressed. 800 shipped out. Unfortunately, we have no replacement copies, so we hope it doesn't get lifted. Check out the neat cover of the Floyd's "Fearless."

Ingrid Wilkerson, Exiting National Promo Director, Mesa/Bluemoon Records, Burbank, CA (818) 841-8585

This will be my last Dialogue from Mesa, I can just hear the sobs. Next stop, Discovery Records! Until then, here's whassup... BLACK UHURU's new CD Strong should be on your desks May 17. If you've already gone on vacation, you'll want to come back for this one. Challenging as ever, the Grammy-winning group reaches back to a strong(g) roots sound. This will be a must for reggae fans. SCOTT HENDERSON, who fusion followers will recognize from Tribal Tech, might get a surprise when Dog Party's blazing blues licks blast out of the speakers. It's a rockin' blues party that anyone missing Stevie Ray will revel in. Remember while you all are out loitering in the sun, record promotion reps never rest.

Steven Joerg, Homestead Records, New York, NY (212) 675-0922

First off, I'd like to thank Thinking Fellers Union Local 282 for Admonishing The Bishop in the Funeral Pudding. And now, with singular pleasure, I'm proud to proclaim that in May, Homestead will release SLEEPYHEAD's second album and PONY's first. June, and we got WILLIAM HOOKER and E#S TERRAPLANE. July sees sophomore triumphs from BABE THE BLUE OX and SMACK DAB. Lonely at the fucking top. Peace through chaos to be found anew?

Russell Lefferts, College Radio, Zero Hour Records, New York, NY (212) 957-1277

Been looking forward to addressing all you industry types in print for the first time, and so it comes to pass. Expect to be hearing from me often, oh industry figurines. But on to more lofty shit, so buckle up. For those who remember A.J. Foyt in his prime...Zero Hour Records is heating up the warp drives, so shove over. Our first major full-length to hit the street in mere weeks is the ultra soul-rockin' twosome 22 BRIDES, who are already rattling the tour bus and heading to a town near you, if they haven't already. Anyway, if you want some tour info or if you're wondering "who the hell are they?" or just dizzy and confused—calm down, quit it with the prozac and give me a buzz. Oh, and, rest in peace Kurt. We'll miss you.

Stephanie, Lisa, Caris, The Andrew Angels, Vision Trust Promotions, San Francisco, CA (415) 752-2564

EVERCLEAR on your desk now. Check it out, take the pill and call me in the morning. To the graduating class of '94, we will miss you, keep in touch and take care.

Eddie Lundeen, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111

This is my final CMJ Dialogue, at least for now. I wanted to inform you all that there will be some changes in the Metal Blade alternative department. I, Eddie, will be exiting Metal Blade to work over in the promotion offices at Atlantic Records in Los Angeles. So from this time forward, I can be reached there. Taking my spot here as your college alternative Metal Blade rep is Nooshin. She is very cool so take care of her for me and be very nice like I know you all can be. One last comment, BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME fucking rocks, so play it, damn it! Take care.

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

BLACK TRAIN JACK mama. May dates in New York, Philly, Providence and Boston. Summer tour to be announced soon. Phone interviews are available—call me. Let's make You're Not Alone huge! Major thanks to everyone who has been playing the MOON SEVEN TIMES. It would be a shame if you haven't discovered this beautiful Illinois band. DIE MONSTER DIE are in Europe with Nova Mob right now, and will return for a summer tour. "Portrait" is a great cut to discover from Withdrawal Method. Sweet Jesus, wait 'til you get a taste of the new BUZZOVEN stuff (call me if you would like to have a tape before release).

ATTENTION REPORTERS:

Because of the Memorial Day holiday, we will be accepting reports on Friday, May 27 and Tuesday, May 31. Please try to call on Friday, since Tuesday will be an unusually heavy reporting day.

Thanks!

Rosie V-Estrada, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

It's raining! If you're not from California, then it's no biggie to ya, but if you are, this means about an extra hour to get home on those freeways. Yuk! Well, for all of you lovely people whom I don't get a chance to talk to every week, I'm spreading the word about the new YOTHU YINDI (Freedom) CD, the BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA (self-titled) CD, and trying to fill everybody in on all of the tour dates for: SEA-WEED (yes, they're no longer with Sub Pop), ELEVEN, Yothu Yindi and the Brian Setzer Orchestra. I do hope that all of you are spinning these latest tunes, and catching them live at one of their shows! Feel free to call me anytime Monday-Friday 9-6 p.m. Pacific time, and if need be, call collect.

Chuck And Steph, We Eat Food, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

Did you ever notice how you really need to eat? Like, if you don't, you get hungry really fast? Just wondering...We have some happy records coming out soon—look for the VERVE's new nine-song mini LP No Come Down any day now. They will be on the sidestage on Lollapalooza so don't miss them. Also check for the AUTEURS' new CD Now I'm A Cowboy—cool music from the U.K. We love you for all the support on SHONEN KNIFE's tour. It's selling out all over the place! SAM PHILLIPS is on tour now with Counting Crows, and BEN HARPER will resume again this summer so call us for info. We have a special Ben 10" with live tracks coming soon. If you have a jazz show and need the Backbeat jazz score, call us. Don Was produced it and Terence Blanchard is featured on trumpet. I bet they eat food, too. Don't forget the Backbeat soundtrack boasting the punk-rock line-up of cool boys playing Beatles covers. Chuck has studio quality cassette interviews of both Shonen Knife and Evel Knievel (really) so call if you want. Lastly, for no-budget folk, you can call our 1-800-566-9497 number and leave us a message if you need something. We won't send you food though, sorry.

Dan Mackta, Director Of Shipping And Receiving, autoTonic, New York, NY (212) 260-3389

We've decided that we're going to start charging college and community stations for promotional service like the majors used to in the old days... This gravy train mentality has gotten way out of hand. What do you think about that? I wonder what we'll charge for the new album for Memphis, TN's GRIFTERS, Crappin' You Negative (Shangri-La)? Ten bucks? Twenty? Or what about Brick Factory (Harriet), the new one from CRAYON? Has to be worth at least eight-fifty. You're lucky if you got a promo copy of JEN-NYANYKIND Etc. (No. 6) because the band is on tour in May and June and you can't get on the guest list unless you know at least one verse to "The Way It Goes." KICKING GIANT, on the other hand, eschews traditional values and goes on the road with Versus this month. I'll pay you five dollars to take a free copy of Crookt, Crackt of Fly (Drag City) by GASTR DEL SOL if you can play "The C in Cake" on the melodia. Initials on the horizon: GBV, SVS. Other rockers and rocks: Rake Rake Is My Co-Pilot (VHF), Butch Willis Repeats (Teen Beat), Simple Ones "Be Minor" (7", Mentality).

Dane Johnson And Garret Vandermolen, Heartbeat Records, Cambridge, MA (617) 534-0700 ext. 253

There is a big buzz in the air, do you hear it? It's the sound of Heartbeat reggae playing all over the country, thanks to all of you who make it happen. As the summer inches closer I think everyone needs to hear even more of it, so if you want some sweet reggae music, call Heartbeat. Let me just say Hail H.I.M.! That's right, BURNING SPEAR's Hail H.I.M. is out for the first time on CD, and for those of you who have worn out the vinyl or if you've never heard this incredible album, it's time to get back up on the horse. Catch another good buzz with Truth & Rights Observer Style. This is a premier collection of '70s roots reggae including DENNIS BROWN, FREDDIE MCGREGOR, MICHAEL ROSE, JACOB MILLER and more. Also, TONY REBEL MEETS GARNET SILK In A Dancehall Conference is one album you don't want to be without this summer. If you are, call me for a CD or LP of this smokin' conscious dancehall record. There are about 400 club DJs around the U.S. and the Caribbean slammin' singles from Tony & Garnet's Dancehall Conference, so check it out! Down the road, you can look forward to Dennis Brown's Light My Fire, Deeper Roots: The Best Of The MEDITATIONS, and plenty more from Heartbeat. Respect!

Chris White, Elektra Records, College Radio, New York, NY (212) 275-4211

When I'm not busy taking calls about giveaways for the new HUEY LEWIS AND THE NEWS record, I love to transfer calls from rogue music directors asking if I can get them on the "list" for the Stuttering John show down to Seth Gershman's office. Remember kids: "If it says Atlantic on the outside, it's alternative on the inside." Aqueduct. Memorial Wood. Free commemorative poncho day! The #3 horse at 39 to 1 odds pays $4.80 to show. Huh? Help me. Fine race horse names or new NICK CAVE AND THE BAD SEEDS songs: "Nobody's Baby Now," "Cunning Disguise," "Jangling Jack," "My Lady Of The Various Sorrows," "Loverman," "Thirsty Dog," "Stacks of Green Paper," "Death And Vanilla." Nick's ninth (!) release with the Bad Seeds, Let Love In, ranks as powerful and important as anything they've done previously. By the way, Savage, "Do You Love Me" is not the Kiss song. Make room in mid-May, Elektra's making your miserable lives a little more bearable. The enigmatic FRANK BLACK returns with his second solo release, Teenager Of The Year, a hardy 22 song masterpiece; pared down, immediate, timeless. Look out for Elektra full-length debuts from college radio veterans VIOLENT FEMMES and ERASURE, plus newcomers DROWN and COMPULSION. Drown's Hold On To The Hollow, produced by Skinny Puppy's Dave Ogilvie, is all about crushing electronic dynamics and extremes, while Compulsion's Comforter generously and infectiously advances the lives of pop and punk. Coming soon: KYUSS, FREEDY JOHNSTON.

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

Comments by Ben Knight: 1. Knight describes Envelope's KXLU visit as "a full-scale, unprovoked attack on peaceful Los Angeles residents Further." Not quite. We merely challenged them to a knife fight (they declined). How could Further's brand of by-the-numbers, rootless, alterna-rock be anything other than provocative? It's really a cultural thing, Ben. When someone from N.Y. hears a Dino Jr./MBV tribute band, we instinctively want to kick their ass. Someone from L.A. instinctively wants to put the record in heavy rotation. 2. Knight claims that Envelope "didn't tour across the country in a broken van, they flew in an airplane." This is an outrageous falsehood. Envelope's rhythm section hitchhiked across the continent. The 12-string guitarist traveled via the QEII. The group's singer/guitarist had wanted to fly via his personal corporate jet (The Stickee Bird), but instead took advantage of UPS' blue tag rates and had himself packed into a 25 count LP box. 3. "Don't feel bad that they [Envelope] drove past your town without stopping in for a show, they flew past." The NYC group Envelope have logged plenty of hours and miles driving to towns all over the USA. Whether or not this is a judicious use of band funds is anyone's guess. Envelope could always just hire an entertainment attorney to shop a tape around, but to paraphrase Jay Tiller, we're not so smart. Finally, in response to John Wilsbach of WMSS who wondered out loud, "Fuckin a Nun, Orgy of Self Mutilation, Kill, Blood Everywhere. Where do you low-life small-time record companies come up with this garbage?" I've often wondered the same thing. How come nobody sends us the good demos?

Vicki Aubin, College Radio Gal, Radical Records, New York, NY (212) 475-1111
Satan is your friend...play our records! I've lots of stuff to say, so here goes...Almighty thank yous go out to the following wonderful musical director people who've realized how to enlighten their lives with sounds of the new punk rock, our own INTENSIVE CARE UNIT (I.C.U.) Jim at WDCR, Mike and Rob at KGLT, Chia Chad at KUMM, Kristie at KMSA, Alex at WQFS, Erv at WMEB, and many more! (Including KUOI, WRPS, WVBU, KWWC, WSFX.) A big forehead sticker goes to Kathy "I.C.U. Queen" Ring and her staff at WPBX for making us a part of Southampton College's big spring fest musical extravaganza, which I.C.U. appeared at with the very cool Too Skinny J's! The video for "Play Dead" (track #6) is airing on almost 40 video stations nationwide! Is this reason enough to make you play it? Good! Also, look out for MR. FREEZE AND THE HOME-WRECKERS "Oh Susannah" wicked hip-hop single to hit your station soon as well! Last, but not least, May 14 and 15 at the Grand (NYC) will be our own mega two-day ska-fest Skampilation '94 (later to be compilation). Until then, play our stuff, and don't squeeze the Charmin!

Will Simon and Scott Perry, Beggars Banquet/Thirsty Ear Records, New York, NY (800) 866-2313

You can almost hear the sound of "Pomp And Circumstance" or at least Alice Cooper's "School's Out for Summer." It's the time of year that tests the mettle of music directors. MDs who stick it out during the summer months listening to music in a 11x17 cinderblock room instead of basking in summer's glow are the MDs with real moxy and grit (or severe stupidity). For these brave souls we have some pleasant summer releases. Some of you summer hermits will soon receive Broken And Mended, the latest EP from the BLUE AEROPLANES. The Aeroplanes new LP, Life Model, will be out in July. In June you can expect to receive The Plastic Hassle, the debut LP from RIPE. These kids from Australia pound out a wall of guitar like no one from Down Under since the Celibate Rifles. Ripe currently has a 7" out on Sub Pop. Hopefully you're still giving your listeners the finger with the DYLAN'S Spirit Finger; a tour is in the works. Speaking of tours, HAIR & SKIN TRADING CO. are just finishing their U.S. jaunt. Thanks to everyone who came out to the shows and let them sleep on their floor. They still have a few West Coast dates left at the end of May. SMALL BALL PAUL have a few more gigs on the Pacific coast, as well. They'll be pounding out dates with fellow Midwesterners Cher UK. Will's current faves: Pony, Further and Stratotanker (live).

Kevin Forsythe, A.T.S./Another True Story Publishing Company, Pittsburgh, PA (412) 241-0704

Hello and thanks to KCAC, WVMA, WRUW, WYEP (hey Don!) and many more for great early response to Blood Drive, the new 19-song CD from A.T.S. on Shimmy-Disc, produced by Kramer. If I time this right, a lot of you received a package of new music from our label, the incomparable Shimmy-Disc, within the last week or so. It contains A.T.S. Blood Drive, plus several other releases by Shimmy-Disc and KokoPop artists. Please open your hearts, minds and ears to all of them. Then: 1. Dig through the pile. 2. Pull out A.T.S. Blood Drive. 3. Play "Car To Get," "Lab Rat," "Power Lunch," "Louise," "White Haus," whatever else you like, the title track, then 4. Hurl yourself into summer with a clean conscience. What?! You haven't received Blood Drive? Call Shimmy-Disc (718) 768-2424. Cleveland, Columbus, Pittsburgh and all denizens of Tri-State radio-land: Watch listings in your seediest clubs when A.T.S. teams up with our Shimmy-Disc label mates, the Jehovah's Waitresses for double bills this summer. Two other great Pittsburgh bands with stuff to play now: Don Caballero (Touch And Go) and the Karl Hendricks Trio (Fiasco). Final shot: A.T.S. wants to play your college. We do our own booking and we'll cut you a tremendous deal. Call me (412) 241-0704 and let's talk. Also, cool poster, new photo, and the stunning '94 Blood Drive Tour T-shirt. Thanks for playing A.T.S.

Gary Jay, Amy Nathanson, Andre Marion, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ (800) 275-0091

OK, you got me. Look, I needed the money, they offered me the job, I did it. So, fine. The secret is out. I am the Shimmer girl on the SURGERY CD cover. Hats off to Pete Rosenblum for his Woodward/Bernstein-esque investigative skills. This chain letter thing is incredible, I've gotten ten T-shirts already, is anybody else making out as good as I am? Rockabilly that will run through you quicker than baked beans and molasses, C.C. ADCOCK's eponymous debut CD is for those who understand why a Marlboro is more than just a cigarette, it's a smoke. Hopped in the DENZIL Pub for a pint yet? New tuneage from ORANGUTANG, A.D., HOPE FACTORY and MISS ALANS are going to start your summer with style. Medical alert: Do not smoke pot while listening to the Autechre CD, you will bug out.

Kerri Savage, Relativity Records, Torrance, CA (310) 212-0801 and Erika Tooker, Rhymes With Hooker/Admitted Anglophile, WUSB, Stony Brook, NY (516) 632-6500

Continuation from the midday lobby action at the metzarnoldorf weekend in CT: Seth forget the rest, the only one that's free, ...KRIS—747 or a DC-10? Winter, Summer—who knows when? Unplug your Sega and do us all a favor, Mortal Combat has lost its bite so try another flavor... Henry, Sperber, Glennie B., Tooker, Sha, Kris and Julie...OK, I (K) was the only one lucky enough to attend both east and west wedding festivities so I am just full of love this week... Congrats to Chuck and Kris! On the dork channel: when Chris Carey isn't selling ladies' shoes at Nordstrom's, he's checking out Kimberly's mutant head on Melrose...Please hire Jeff Sperber, we love him dearly and I (E) will chart any record he works (unless it's Milla or Sheryl Crow). Then I will pretend I don't know him, like I do to Jeff Marks. Just kidding! We love Jehu! OVERLITTLEWHELMING COLORFUZZY FAST-monkeys are on tour now with BLOOD OF ABRAHAM! Call me for stuff. We are lucky enough to have signed MERCY RULE from Lincoln, NE. You'll see what I mean when you receive God Protects Fools in a few weeks. If you feel that you are not receiving our stuff and you should be, please call, if you'd like to know where Phranc spends her time surfing, then you should definitely call, bye.

Nicole Blackman, Media Czarina, Nicole Blackman PR, New York, NY (212) 685-3001

Oh CATHERINE! Such a beautiful shiny silver round thing from TVT called Sleepy. Such a reason to live...Those 22 BRIDES! Such a swingin' self-titled debut on the new Zero Hour label. Such a reason to get into your car and drive cross-country. Things I hate: getting pink eye, Calvin Klein having the nerve to say he's "offended by women looking like little girls now," running into an ex at a gig, an MTV exec saying that their new syndicated radio show is a "safe way for Top 40 stations to get into alternative music," people apologizing for music they really like, and being put on speakerphone. Big yay to KCMU for their Grass play, WSIA for their in-studio performance May 6 with the WRENS, and all the stations spinning DITCH WITCH. New Grass releases from LOCUS SOLUS, POLLEN, JOHN'S BLACK DIRT, PENCIL (read the lyrics carefully kids) and SLOWPOKE. If ya got 'em, spin 'em...Surreal club moment: Chuck from Virgin outside Brownies addressing me as "Mondo Tomato"...some people read these Dialogues a little too closely. Mag pick: Net, 22 E. 21st St., NYC 10010, for their brilliant, pithy reviews, features and Robin's Puhleez column. Zine pick: Off My Jammy/Lisa Kalner, P.O. Box 22138, 1400 Washington Ave., Albany, NY 12222 for the Meices pee stories and general fierceness. CD-ROM Magazine pick: Blender, 25 W. 39th St. #1103, NYC 10018. Don't miss this show: BRAINIAC, EDEL and the Wrens at Maxwell's on June 2. It's worth...from wherever you are, darlings. Got a 'zine? Drop a line.

Bill Murphy, Yodeling Cowboy, Bug Music, Los Angeles, CA (213) 466-4352

It's that time of the year again, folks, when the snow melts and all the dainty young things in doc martens and tattoos start sniffing at each other. Makes me kinda nostalgic. New stuff...TED HAWKINS has a new record called The First Hundred Years on Geffen that you should be playing; but I'm telling you now that it won't sit well next to the new Pantera. I would wait til yer late night show. He is the personification of soul music, but with a country quality. Enjoy. A few years back there was this group, TRUE BELIEVERS, with the Escovedo Brothers, Javier and Alejandro. They rocked and rocked Austin, put out an album on EMI that was ignored, rocked some more, and then couldn't get their great second album released. Corporate indifference and all that. So now Rykodisc has released both rekkids on one user friendly disc. The BLACK WATCH have an album out on Gotta Go Records called Amphetamines that combines the best elements of bright guitar pop with odd, quiet textures. Check out "Kill" and "Whatever You Need." I will leave you now with a Christmas card a fiddler I know got from his family in Scotland—Dear son, you're born in Pain.....You live in fear.....and you die alone. Merry Christmas.

RETAIL

Dale Johnson, Retail Stuff, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Dear Mom: Besides the fact that my biggest male sea monkey has passed, life at Slash is good. Those wacky boys in FAILURE continue to wow 'em on the road, as they finish their trek across America (Canada, too) with Tool and Flaming Lips. Did I mention the cool display contest I'm doing? These people are goin' nuts for it! Flash a little dinero under their noses and these people become artistic animals. Who knew? Since the deadline is May 31, I guess people will be scramblin' to get their entries in on time. You're gonna love this new band from New York we just signed called SOUL COUGHING. They sound kinda like something you might have heard back in '58 when you and Dad were hangin' with the beatniks, but with a funkier vibe, mind you. Tell Dad we finally signed STEEL POLE BATH TUB. He's been buggin' me about that one for a year it seems now. Sorry, L7 can't come to this year's Fourth Of July cook-out, since they'll be leaving for their jaunt on Lollapalooza around that time. Remember how much fun they were last year? It's too bad, 'cause I think they're really Hungry For Stink this year. Boy, I should probably go, since MICHAEL PETAK just got here and I think he's eyeing the last frosted strawberry pop tart. Just 'cause he's got his own record comin' out on June 14, doesn't mean he can eat us out of house and home.

VIDEO

Alia Malley, Video Promotion, 4AD Records, Los Angeles, CA (310) 289-8770

When helicopters turn into angels...ah...life in L.A. goes on. Greetings to video programmers everywhere from the big wide world of 4AD. By now you should have all received your very own copy of LISA GERMANO's video for "Puppet," the first single off her new 4AD release, Happiness. Unlike her previous videos (namely last year's "You Make Me Want to Wear Dresses") which were on the cute-in-a-good-way side of things, "Puppet" is not cute, but it is good. Directed by Melodie McDoniels, and shot in grainy B&W 16mm, "Puppet" incorporates a noirish mood lighting (and a recurring orthodontics motif) which gives it a spooky, nightmarish feel. Kinda more in the vein of German Expressionism than Slick Music Video. But don't take my washed-up film school terms for it...go watch it for yourself. Also, if you haven't already done so, drag out your copy of the GLEE CLUB's video for "No Reason," taken from their new record, Mine. Shot in B&W with slo-mo treatments, "No Reason" is more of a photo essay than a narrative. Think mood-invoking over story-telling. Leslie McCleave, who directed the piece, won an award for excellence in short filmmaking at this year's Sundance Film Festival. But again, go watch it for yourself. Enough turbo-babble, I'll stop now. Peace and trees.

Dave Ross, Producer, Future Flash, Atlanta, GA (404) 419-4964

Greetings! We are all alive and well in our new offices. Atlanta is an alternative music mecca (compared to Orlando—which is a barren wasteland for the genre). Look for a new version of the show to debut mid-June in Orlando, Atlanta and D.C.—more interviews, more music news, and more live performances. Our goal is to have five million households by September. Who's hot? The GREENBERRY WOODS, SHERYL CROW, and the FLESHTONES. Thank you very much to Brooke at A&M, Aron at Telemotion, Eleanor at Warner Bros., Marni and Harry at EastWest, Simone at Cellar Door, Matt-Brandt-Miles-Ira of TCBW and Bill from BUFFALO TOM. Attention publicity departments: send media kits to Future Flash, 369 W. Sandtown Road, Marietta, GA 30064, Attn: Dawn. See ya!

RADIO

Fred Mastromarino, Music And Metal Director, WSJU, Jamaica, NY (718) 990-6563

This will be my last Dialogue. I didn't have many in the past, and mostly I just complained about snow, but this is a momentous occasion. I'm gonna miss everybody. I've come to make a lot of friends over the last two years. I hope you folks remember me. Maybe you could put together a tribute album, like "No AlternaFred," or "Fred, Hot + Blue." Oh well, it was just a thought. Be sure to be nice to our new MD Malinda Scelta.

Mike Siciliano, Alternative Music Director, WCWP, Brookville, NY (516) 299-2626

I just had the pleasure of working with VALEN-

TINE SMITH for an unplugged concert to be aired on WCWP. The album, Back On Earth, is unreal. Get it. Now. You won't be upset. Reports and response to these guys have been incredible since WCWP began playing the CD. I have never heard a violin used so passionately before in any genre of music. I never believed in my life I would hear a guitar, bass and violin come out with solid rock 'n' roll beats, but it has occurred right before my eyes, and the beat will get you toe-tapping for the entire album. Now, this is my first one out there, so I want to say thanks to Bill, Steve, Amy and Claudia for coming down. Check this album out immediately. I will guarantee a hit.

J. Pierson, GM, KWVA, Eugene, OR (503) 346-4091

Re: Guest Dialogue in the April 25, 1994 issue (Vol. 38, No. 6 #377). Charlie Baldonado, shut the fuck up.

William F. Marion, Station Manager, WPLS, Greenville, SC (803) 294-3045

Alas, another Dialogue from the deep south. Hello to everyone out there especially my fellow graduating seniors who do not have a job yet. Special thanks to BARK PSYCHOSIS for the overseas phoner they did last week! Those guys are cool. If you're not listening to that LP you should be. Also a big thanks to Andy from the DYLANs for the phoner last week as well. Of course Seth deserves some time of recognition for his perseverance in setting up the interview. I don't have a whole lot of purpose behind this Dialogue except to let everyone know a few things: 1. We now have an e-mail address which will be active by the 9th of May. It is WPLS/Furman@Furman.edu. So everybody feel free to save yourself the call and send us messages via e-mail if you like. 2. Simon Crowe is no longer with us at WPLS as music director. He left because of, shall we say, "philosophical differences." If you talked to Simon you can now talk to Jason and if you used to talk to Jason you can go on to talking to Jason. Also, you can always ask for myself or the PD/station manager elect, Jeff Montgomery. 3. I wanted to let you all know that I am graduating and that I won't be around much longer so call me while you can and keep in touch in the future. One last note, we love: the Dylans, MESSIAH, LIVE, FRENTEI, ROLLINS BAND, LOREENA MCKENNETT, INSPIRAL CARPETS, EAT, LUNA and LOWI See you next time!

Here it is—my last Dialogue in CMJ. That's kind of sad. I'm still looking for jobs and will send a resume quicker than you can say "you're hired!" I'd love to be mushy and thank all my reps, but I know that I inevitably would forget someone. Thanks—you've all been great. I also wanted to thank all the levels that have been supportive of KRNL, both major and independent. At the risk of upsetting/overlooking some, I'd especially like to thank the indies that have taken a chance on us: Matador, Mission, Generic, Choke, Kill Rock Stars, Tim/Kerr, Dischord, Touch And Go, Mint, Ringing Ear, Trumpeter, Bong Load, Hardspun, Taangl...the list is endless. I'm sorry I couldn't mention all the labels that I've been able to work with (majors included). My last report to CMJ will be on May 16; my last day for phoning is May 18. KRNL is going off the air for summer (but please keep us on your mailing lists and everything will be sorted through in the fall) and will resume broadcasting in August/September. The new music director will be Rick Sadowsky—I'll be breaking him in over the next couple of weeks. I guess that about covers everything. Some bands that I really like include: BLACK TRAIN JACK, ROLLINS BAND, MILKMINNE, STANFORD PRISON EXPERIMENT, LARVA, FUDGE, KUSTOMIZED, CRAIN, STOMP-BOX, I SPEAK JIVE, SEA OF SOULS and ALLIGATOR GUN. I guess that covers everything...take care.

Ed Talaski, Industrial Director, WXAV, Chicago, IL (312) 779-9858

Greetings here from Chicago! We all are thawing out here. We have had some great music to keep us warm the latter part of winter and the early part of spring. Bands such as NON-AGGRESSION PACT 9mm Grudge (Restriction), SISTER MACHINE GUN Torture Technique (Wax Trax-TV), DIGITAL POODLE Division (Cleopatra), ARMAGEDDON DILDOS Come Armageddon (Sire-WB) and SECT Telekinetic (Third Mind). We were able to get our hands on a Zoth Ommog compilation (Zoth In Your Mind), and we are all wondering when there will be a full album and if that compilation will be released domestically. Any questions, feel free to call me on Tuesdays from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. (CST). If anyone knows where I can get some old FOETUS albums please let me know.

Kenneth E. Norian, General Manager, WBAU, Garden City, NY (516) 877-6400

In a recent issue a former music director of WBAU used Dialogue as a venue for venting his frustration/anger toward WBAU in general and me in particular. With regard to the circumstances that led to Jeff's removal, which in turn made Henry feel compelled to leave—I will only offer that as a person committed to college radio for nearly two decades I am very circumspect about exercising discipline and that there are obviously two sides to every story...But enough about that. I would like to assert, on behalf of the 75 other staff members at WBAU, that WBAU today is the product of over 20 years of hard work by many hundreds of people. Our music department is comprised of far more than one or two people. In addition to maintaining virtually the same programming as has recently existed, we have a strong staff of DJs, music directors and music program director who will continue the fine job that others (our differences notwithstanding, Jeff and Henry included) have done before them. We look forward to continuing to bring the best in new music to the Long Island/greater New York metro area. Call Rich Fascianella, music program director, Jessica Posada, alternative music director or Kwesi Ndzibah, R&B music director at 516-877-6901.

Let's see...ALI FARKA TOURE clearly at the top of all my lists (except for that Crypto one). ADRIAN BELEW, BILL FRISSELL and HARUOMI HOSONO of particular interest. TINDERSTICKS and BARK PSYCHOSIS are swell, SWELL too. LIVE is literally roaring at me as I write this. FAILURE, EAT, JAZZ BUTCHER, SAUSAGE...(some kinda poetry?). INGRID KARKLINS gains curious listeners, JON HASSELL brings funky surprises, and JOHN CALE delivers some kinda cool arty thang with BOB NEUWIRTH. HOLY TOLEDOS exclaim at CHARLATANS. TELESCOPES gaze on LUNA and CARMINE tries to explain their album title...Whole buncha compilations on the air: Barramundi, Volume Nine, Rare On Air, The Crow—these things can make a DJ's life a lot easier. LISA GERMANO is apparently happy again. TALITHA MCKENZIE and WILD COLONIALS are worth a spin. And ROLLINS BAND and SONIC YOUTH will keep us all awake and honest. I recently rediscovered MIRANDA SEX GARDEN, and the new TINY LIGHTS is a lot of fun. I'm pleased to hear SHOUKICHI KINA (who's big on the phones even as an obscure import) domestically, and love the new NUSRAT FATEH ALI KAHN and SHU-DE. Check out TREY GUNN on Frapp's Discipline label, also the CALIFORNIA GUITAR TRIO. Farther out, watch for ADVOCATES OF DAS BANG!, JON ROSE, GEORGE CARTWRIGHT, SPANISH FLY, FIUCZYNSKI & MEDESKI, VIRGIL MOOREFIELD and new MUSLINGAUZE. MANGANESE: TABLE OF THE ELEMENTS SHOWCASE

April 28, Knitting Factory, New York City
April 29, Thread Waxing Space, New York City
May 2, Real Art Ways, Hartford, CT
May 4, Context Studios, New York City

To call it a "Noise/Improv Lollapalooza" would not be hyperbole. Manganese, an ambitious eight-act touring extravaganza, was organized by the Table Of The Elements label, which is releasing recordings by most of the performers. Various lineups appeared in different cities; here are a few highlights from the NYC area shows. New Zealand's Gate (Michael Morley of Dead C. fame) teamed up with Lee Ranaldo for its U.S. debut. The textures of this guitar duet progressed from a hypnotic druggy buzz to head-out-the-car-window ambience through root canal drilling, finally fading majestically. With Sonic Youth on a maternity break, Thurston Moore and Steve Shelley, joined by guitarist Tim Fohljan (a k a Two Dollar Guitar), performed in a new, as yet un-named trio for a surprisingly feedback-free set of melodic new songs. Britain's AMM, which has been remarkably steadfast since 1965, created a characteristically quiet improvisation that blurred the distinctions between music and sound. The group's dialogue of scraped guitar, impressionistic piano, jazz drums and transistor radio simultaneously approached both chaos and beauty. For krautrock legend Faust, it was the first trip across the ocean. Reunited with Tony Conrad (pre-Velvet Underground Cale/Reed/LaMonte Young associate) after 22 years, Faust performed a lengthy variation on Conrad's "From The Side Of Man and Womankind" (from 1973's Outside The Dream Syndicate), a warm, repetitive throb of violin/bass/drums which slowly intensified, then sputtered to an abrupt ending. At the outdoor Hartford "Day Of Destruction" (as a local paper's front-page headline called it), Faust performed sans Conrad, playing several of its classics. A joyous moment occurred during the rained-out soundcheck, when drenched singer Jean-Herve Peron launched into an impromptu bang-on-metal version of "It's A Rainy Day, Sunshine Girl." Faust's stage antics (smashed TV sets, jackhammer, chainsaw, nudity, livestock!) and hippy agitprop may have seemed preposterously old-hat to jaded '90s eyes, but it was a sincere and authentic recreation of vintage '70s "art-terror." —David Newgarden
